AT THE THEATERS

What the Press Agents Sa).

M'EWEN'S SUCCESS.

Famous Hypnotist, Mindreader and

Entertainer Pleases Audience. The great McEwen began an engage-ment of one week at the Marquam Grand theater last night, to an audience that laughed themselves almost sick, and it was only McEwen's kindness in dividing the entertainment into three parts that saved them from this ordeal. This clever magician-mindreader hypnotist and entermagician-mindreader hypnotist and enter-tainer has proved himself the best be-fore the public, and can rightly be called great. He mystifies, bewilders and amuses you. If you are looking for an evening's ontertainment that will not only amuse but furnish you tood for thought, see Mc-Ewen. Miss Irene Franklin, the world's greatest lady cornet soloist, played sev-eral selections most admirably, her tone and execution showing years of patient study and practice.

McEwen will be the bill all week, and it is more than likely that the Marquam will continue to hold the same large owds that have been attending Kolb & Dill. The bill is changed every night.

"THE GIRL AND THE JUDGE"

Another Tremendous Hit Scored by the Belasco Last Night.

Was it a hit? Well, was it? Ask anybody who witnessed last night's beautiful performance of Clyde Fitch's great play "The Girl and the Judge," by he Belasco Stock Company, Will Wall ing, the new leading man simply carried the audience by storm and promises to become the most popular man who has ever worked here in stock. The play gave him a fine opportunity to show his meitle and he had his own way all evening. The rest of the company, particularly Miss Moore, were admirable. The "Girl and the Judge" is beautifully mounted and dressed and will probably break all records for attendance at the Belasco. In spite of the circus there was a crowded house last night and the sale for the ensuing performances is already very large. Don't miss the best show of the

Perilous Feat at "The Oaks."

Jocke Walde, the famous high diver and champion of the United States, has been secured by the Oregon Water Power & Raliway Company to make perilous dive every afternoon at 2 o'clock and every night at 9 o'clock from one of the cars of the glant whirl flying machine while the machine is traveling at the speed of seven miles an hour. As the whirl is built out on the Willamette a considerable dis-tance, the dive Mr. Waldo makes is 126 feet high. Only those who have witpessed the wonderful revolutions made by the giant whirl while in motion can possibly appreciate the terrifying dive and great risk Mr. Waldo takes in ming this feat.
