SOME SUBURBAN PROBLEMS

Water Supply and Livestock Questions Receive Attention.

At a meting of the Arieta Improvement Association yesterday, W. A. Schooling, president, a special committee was appointed with J. James, chairman, to inves-tigate the stock law. At the last election that precinct voted that cows should not be allowed to run at large. Since then stock comes in from Lents and Wood-stock and this committee will ascertain how this can be prevented. A special committee was also appointed to confer with the new Push Club re-cently organized at Lents to secure cooperation in promoting the interests of the whole southeast district.

In the matter of more water it was reported that George Brown, owner of the plant, is laying a large main from the well near Lents and will soon cor nect with the reservoir at Arleta, when there would be plenty of water. As there has been some reports' concerning the water which is to be supplied the people, it was decided to have it analyzed to have the question settled and the minds the people put at rest for all time. well goes down to gravel at a location two miles from the reservoir, and there is plenty of it. It is claimed that it equals Buil Run in purity. In order to make the association per-maneut a special committee on consti-tution and by-laws was appointed. The next meeting of the association will take place Friday evening, September 7, when reports from all these committees are

Betwixt Rolling Rivers

We are compelled to acknowledge that more people went to see the circus Monday and Tuesday than went out to Vernon, although quite a number visited Vernon, and we will venture to say those who went to Vernon were much better pleased than those who went to the circus. The beautiful natural scenery from Vernon is even nicer than a nice circus. Eleven lots sold in Vernon inone day, which means eleven families will be made happy soon by having homes of their own. "Who will be next?" The rent you are paying will soon build you a home of your own, and if you will see Vernon and our prices and terms you will surely try
