Charge of Keeping Open After Hours Against Proprietors of Tuxedo Saloon Will Be Hard-

against the proprietors of the Tuxedo as-Attorney Fitzgerald has found it necessary to issue a subpoena for the former

Yesterday morning Judge Cameron Attorney John F. Logan when they wished to try the cases of McGlinn and Johnson, proprietors of the Tuxedo, and it be waged between the city and defendunts, as the latter have been so frequently in court and have so often been convicted of the offense now charged, that it is understood they will lose theirlicense if they fall to establish their innocence in this case.

It is understood that the defendants will set up as a defense the alleged fact that ex-Judge Hogue was a member of a in a rear room of the saloon and that they refused to vacate when it came time for business to be closed. It is said the defendants will contend P. M. to 5 P. M., none; total since Sept
