

EIGHT HUNDRED DEAD

Colorado Flood's Victims Grow in Number.

TWELVE HOUSES WRECKED

Torrent Swept Them Away With All Their Occupants, and Families Are Recovered.

TRINIDAD, Colo., Aug. 25.—According to information received from Hastings this morning, possibly 14 persons were drowned in the flood at Tabasco, 16 miles from Trinidad, yesterday morning. Seven houses occupied by Austrian and Italian laborers and their families were swept away.

Tabasco and Berwin, containing camps, having together about 2000 population, are located in Rhode Canyon, a usually dry arroyo. Yesterday's cloudburst is the first that has occurred there since the town was established.

Berwin is a mile below Tabasco, and the flood was not of so great force there as at Tabasco, much of the water having sunk in the sand and run off into tributary arroyos. Considerable damage was done to the Colorado Fuel & Iron and the Colorado & Southern Railroad Companies' property.

Persons leaving Trinidad for the scene of the flood were unable to go through on account of washouts.

The Colorado & Southern branch line to Berwin was washed away and a heavy volume of water rushed down the canyon all night, making it impossible to penetrate to the point where the loss of life is said to have occurred.

A telephone message from Hastings this afternoon stated that 18 persons are known to be dead or missing. Six bodies have now been recovered, among them being a woman with the body of a six-month-old child clasped in her arms.

At noon Coroner Eberly received a message from Hastings stating that five bodies had been recovered. The Coroner left immediately for the scene of the flood, Joseph Veit, his wife and three children are reported to have been drowned, their house at Tabasco having been washed away.

A telephone message from Hastings this afternoon stated that 18 persons are known to be dead or missing. Six bodies have now been recovered, among them being a woman with the body of a six-month-old child clasped in her arms.

At noon Coroner Eberly received a message from Hastings stating that five bodies had been recovered. The Coroner left immediately for the scene of the flood, Joseph Veit, his wife and three children are reported to have been drowned, their house at Tabasco having been washed away.

A telephone message from Hastings this afternoon stated that 18 persons are known to be dead or missing. Six bodies have now been recovered, among them being a woman with the body of a six-month-old child clasped in her arms.

At noon Coroner Eberly received a message from Hastings stating that five bodies had been recovered. The Coroner left immediately for the scene of the flood, Joseph Veit, his wife and three children are reported to have been drowned, their house at Tabasco having been washed away.

A telephone message from Hastings this afternoon stated that 18 persons are known to be dead or missing. Six bodies have now been recovered, among them being a woman with the body of a six-month-old child clasped in her arms.

At noon Coroner Eberly received a message from Hastings stating that five bodies had been recovered. The Coroner left immediately for the scene of the flood, Joseph Veit, his wife and three children are reported to have been drowned, their house at Tabasco having been washed away.

A telephone message from Hastings this afternoon stated that 18 persons are known to be dead or missing. Six bodies have now been recovered, among them being a woman with the body of a six-month-old child clasped in her arms.

At noon Coroner Eberly received a message from Hastings stating that five bodies had been recovered. The Coroner left immediately for the scene of the flood, Joseph Veit, his wife and three children are reported to have been drowned, their house at Tabasco having been washed away.

AGREEMENT ON MAIN PRINCIPLE

Dislike Gayer Birds.

Those of Darker Plumage Ready to Attack Brighter Ones.

Twelve Houses Wrecked

Torrent Swept Them Away With All Their Occupants, and Families Are Recovered.

carpenters of Boston received an increase of wages under the decision of Judge George T. Wentworth, to whom, as special arbitrator, the employers and workmen submitted the question of a new working agreement. Judge Wentworth grants the five main demands of the carpenters, including an increase from $2 to $2.50 for an eight-hour day; double time for all overtime instead of time and a half, and an eight-hour instead of a nine-hour workday for all shop and millhands.

Those of darker plumage ready to attack brighter ones. Birds of brilliant plumage in these parts are not only the hands of men, but are the objects of suspicion and apparent dislike even to their feathered brethren of plainer attire. Some of the brilliant birds are mere migrants, seen here only in Spring and Fall.

The bluejay is one of these. He is a special victim of the pothunter, but his vigor and energy protect him from other birds. The ruby-throated hummingbird, one of the few regular Summer residents of brilliant plumage, is so small and swift that he usually escapes molestation. The sparrows and other small birds, indeed, seem to fear the hummingbird. With his long, keen bill and buzzing, invisible wings he is a sort of animated torpedo-boat of the air.

Of the Summer residents of considerable size the scarlet tanager or black-winged redbird is the most brilliant. These birds are scarce in some years and relatively plentiful in others, though their number is always small in comparison with the hosts of the robins, catbirds, woodthrushes and sparrows. The tanagers are always more frequently seen in late Spring than in midsummer. Some of them doubtless go farther north to nest and are killed for the sake of their plumage. Some, however, stay the Summer through and raise their broods.

The tanagers are always more frequently seen in late Spring than in midsummer. Some of them doubtless go farther north to nest and are killed for the sake of their plumage. Some, however, stay the Summer through and raise their broods.

Of the Summer residents of considerable size the scarlet tanager or black-winged redbird is the most brilliant. These birds are scarce in some years and relatively plentiful in others, though their number is always small in comparison with the hosts of the robins, catbirds, woodthrushes and sparrows.

Of the Summer residents of considerable size the scarlet tanager or black-winged redbird is the most brilliant. These birds are scarce in some years and relatively plentiful in others, though their number is always small in comparison with the hosts of the robins, catbirds, woodthrushes and sparrows.

Of the Summer residents of considerable size the scarlet tanager or black-winged redbird is the most brilliant. These birds are scarce in some years and relatively plentiful in others, though their number is always small in comparison with the hosts of the robins, catbirds, woodthrushes and sparrows.

Of the Summer residents of considerable size the scarlet tanager or black-winged redbird is the most brilliant. These birds are scarce in some years and relatively plentiful in others, though their number is always small in comparison with the hosts of the robins, catbirds, woodthrushes and sparrows.

Of the Summer residents of considerable size the scarlet tanager or black-winged redbird is the most brilliant. These birds are scarce in some years and relatively plentiful in others, though their number is always small in comparison with the hosts of the robins, catbirds, woodthrushes and sparrows.

Of the Summer residents of considerable size the scarlet tanager or black-winged redbird is the most brilliant. These birds are scarce in some years and relatively plentiful in others, though their number is always small in comparison with the hosts of the robins, catbirds, woodthrushes and sparrows.

Of the Summer residents of considerable size the scarlet tanager or black-winged redbird is the most brilliant. These birds are scarce in some years and relatively plentiful in others, though their number is always small in comparison with the hosts of the robins, catbirds, woodthrushes and sparrows.

Of the Summer residents of considerable size the scarlet tanager or black-winged redbird is the most brilliant. These birds are scarce in some years and relatively plentiful in others, though their number is always small in comparison with the hosts of the robins, catbirds, woodthrushes and sparrows.

Of the Summer residents of considerable size the scarlet tanager or black-winged redbird is the most brilliant. These birds are scarce in some years and relatively plentiful in others, though their number is always small in comparison with the hosts of the robins, catbirds, woodthrushes and sparrows.

Of the Summer residents of considerable size the scarlet tanager or black-winged redbird is the most brilliant. These birds are scarce in some years and relatively plentiful in others, though their number is always small in comparison with the hosts of the robins, catbirds, woodthrushes and sparrows.

AGREEMENT ON MAIN PRINCIPLE

Dislike Gayer Birds.

Those of Darker Plumage Ready to Attack Brighter Ones.

Twelve Houses Wrecked

Torrent Swept Them Away With All Their Occupants, and Families Are Recovered.

as long as possible, so as to be free to force France to join Germany and break with England. For this purpose it is necessary to defeat President Roosevelt's object, in order that subsequently when Russia is exhausted, Emperor William may become the mediator between her and Japan. To this end, Emperor William is endeavoring to bring about an alliance with Russia. All of which will conduce to the German hegemony of continental Europe. It is to be noted that this it is necessary to persuade Emperor Nicholas that he must not bow before the failures which have come, that all great nations have to suffer such a crisis, and it is his duty to give the armies of L'nevitch a chance to turn the situation.

It is believed the Japanese intend to let the conference end tomorrow. On the Russian side all pretense of claiming that Mr. Witte is any longer negotiating is abandoned. He has gone to the furthest limits of his imperial master's orders. More he cannot do, sincerely as he personally may desire to bring the negotiations to a successful conclusion. His position is a difficult and peculiar one. He is a statesman of ambition. Liberal at heart, he is yet a servant of his sovereign. At the present juncture his role is described as like that of Mirabeau. He stands between the King and his people. He obeys his sovereign, but he wants his people to know where the responsibility for the fate of the negotiations must rest. At the same time he cannot himself take a firm stand against his sovereign. For this reason, and the authenticated history of the conference will bear out this statement, he preferred, when first appealed to by Mr. Roosevelt, to have the latter go straight to the Emperor with his suggestion. Though perhaps in full sympathy with President Roosevelt to have himself appeared in support of it too ardently or to have openly endorsed it against his instructions, might, considering the influences about the court which are personally hostile to him and jealous of him, have injured instead of bettering the chances.

When the President's first effort failed, he did not discourage a second attempt in such a way that the Emperor would have had difficulty in declining, on courtesy to the President, to accept Mr. Witte at least tentatively to proceed with the negotiations and see if a satisfactory basis could not be arranged, reserving the last word for himself. Should such authority come at the eleventh hour, Mr. Witte might make the best terms he could and then figuratively throw a treaty at the Emperor's feet to take or leave, yes or no. As a politician, Mr. Witte might not relish the idea of having said when returning to his sovereign that he had made a "bad peace." He might prefer the Emperor to shoulder that responsibility.

Witte Says It Is All Over. But shortly before midnight Mr. Witte gave absolutely no encouragement to the idea that there would be a change of heart at St. Petersburg. Unless Tokyo is ready to recede further, he expressed the opinion that all was over. He said: "I have received no telegram from St. Petersburg which changes the situation. Indeed, I do not expect any. I have not asked instructions, so that I cannot receive any. If tomorrow there is to be a change, it must come from the Japanese side."

Hopeful Sign From Japan. That the last word had not come from Tokyo, and that Baron Komura may still appear in a conciliatory role tomorrow, may possibly be inferred from the following fact: The time for the sitting of the conference tomorrow was not set when the adjournment was taken on Wednesday. This evening Mr. Witte notified the Japanese mission that he would meet it in the morning at 9:30. The Japanese, after consulting, demurred on the ground that the protocol of the last meeting would not be ready in time. Therefore, at their request, the meeting was set for 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Information received at a late hour indicates that President Roosevelt's efforts are not exhausted; that he is still in communication with Tokio and St. Petersburg. Tomorrow's meeting, consequently, is likely not to prove decisive. At midnight no message had reached Mr. Witte from the President, and it was regarded as practically certain that an adjournment would be taken tomorrow until Monday.

NEITHER NATION WILL YIELD. Russia Holds Out Against Japan Indemnitists On, Indemnity. PARIS, Aug. 25.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Temps telegraphs that Emperor Nicholas, while expressing to Ambassador Meyer his deep recognition of President Roosevelt's efforts, explained that he was unable to make further concessions. His Majesty said that the payment of an indemnity would be contrary to the fundamental interests of the nation, while it would only further the ambition of the Japanese for fresh territorial conquests and involve the possibility of a recommencement of the war in the near future, with the balance of power in their favor instead of an equalized strength as at present. The desire of the Russian people for peace, the Emperor told the Ambassador, did not supersede the national interests.

TOKIO, Aug. 25.—The Associated Press correspondent has reasons to believe that nothing that has occurred at Portsmouth will change the attitude of the Japanese government. While the Foreign Office maintains its usual reticence, the official decline to talk for publication, the demand for an adequate indemnity remains unalterable.

KAISER BLOCKS NEGOTIATIONS. Russian Correspondent Says He Is Thwarting Roosevelt. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 25.—Mr. Briantchinoff, the correspondent of the St. Petersburg Slovo, in his cable to his paper today, dwelt upon the reported role played by Emperor William. He wrote: "There is a fact in the situation which has not appeared on the surface, but which, nevertheless, has played a big role. It is Emperor William. The deep impression produced by the meeting of the two sovereigns at Gorka is known and it is also known that Emperor William returned home enchanted.

Denies Kaiser Is Obstructing. LENOX, Mass., Aug. 25.—When Baron Von Denbuche, German charge d'affaires, was shown the reports emanating from Portsmouth to the effect that the German Emperor was using his influence against the acceptance by Russia of Japan's terms, he said: "Such reports are contrary to the truth. The Emperor is strongly for peace and is not interfering with President Roosevelt's efforts. Quite the contrary, he earnestly sympathizes with the President's endeavors."

Russians Flaunt Yellow Peril. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 25.—The Russian press continues to express their surprise at the support given the Japanese cause in America. They contend from the standpoint of international politics that Japan's influence in the Pacific region is a great danger to America's commercial and trade development westward.

American Steamer Captured. YOKOHAMA, Aug. 25.—The American steamer Montu, bound for Petro Pavlovsk, was captured by the Japanese in the Bering Sea August 23.

AGREEMENT ON MAIN PRINCIPLE

Dislike Gayer Birds.

Those of Darker Plumage Ready to Attack Brighter Ones.

Twelve Houses Wrecked

Torrent Swept Them Away With All Their Occupants, and Families Are Recovered.

Japanese Papers Oppose Concessions. TOKIO, Aug. 25.—The Japanese newspaper, Jiji, declares that any compromise relating to the purchase of the island of Sakhalin as reimbursement for the cost of the war would leave Japan loser, as both items are vitally important, and a compromise is impossible. The Jiji says: "Peace concluded in such form cannot satisfy us, and cannot be solid. Russia would prefer to such a sacrifice. Prolongation of the war means a hard struggle on our part, but we would rather suffer an hardship and consequent reduction or alteration of our demands."

Peace Union Praised President. MYSTIC, Conn., Aug. 25.—The thirty-ninth annual meeting of the Universal Peace Union came to a close today. The following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That our thanks and the thanks of the civilized world go to President Roosevelt for the admirable and diplomatic manner in which he offered his good offices and those of our Government to bring about an armistice between the belligerents of Russia and Japan and paved the way for the peace negotiations now being arranged at Portsmouth, and the wise and conciliatory manner in which he received the diplomats without showing favor to either party.

Basis of Russia's Obstinacy. BERLIN, Aug. 25.—The dominant feeling in the Russian court as reported officially here is that Russia is in a better position to hold out with the war since she has heard Japan's terms than she was before, because the dissemination of these terms in Russia is having the effect of bringing more educated persons to the conviction the war must be fought out, as the conditions are insupportable and because the return to Russia of 500,000 soldiers, discontented with their treatment in the Far East, and with the vain results of their endurance, would add to the internal ferment.

No Compromise, Says Witte. LONDON, Aug. 25.—In a dispatch from Portsmouth the Daily Telegraph's correspondent gives the gist of a conversation with Mr. Witte, who, he says, declared he had done everything compatible with national honor and dignity to arrive at a settlement; that he could hear of no compromise on the two disputed points, therefore, he was unwilling to make any payment and the cessation of Sakhalin. Mr. Witte, the correspondent adds, declined to give any opinion on the forecast of the next meeting of the conference or its final result.

New Destroyer for Japan. TOKIO, Aug. 25.—The torpedoboot destroyer Nenohi has been launched at Kure. This is the fifth of the new fleet of 25 destroyers under construction to be launched.

HOBBSON'S POLITICAL BEE. Hero of Merrimac Still Struggles to Break Into Congress. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 25.—Richmond Pearson Hobson, the "hero of the Merrimac," but better known as "Hobson, the kaiser," still bankers to come to Congress. Twice since he retired from the Navy on account of defective sight, Captain Hobson has made an attempt to break into Congress, but each time he has found it impossible to wrest the seat from Representative Bankhead, an old, experienced politician. But Hobson is not depressed by his failures; on the contrary he announces his intention of making the race again next year, and he has that hope which comes to so many politicians; he says he is confident of winning next time.

RUSSIAN ARMY BELLIGERENT. Learns Japan's Terms and Clamors for More War. GODEZADANI, Manchuria, Aug. 25.—Rumors that Russia will cede the island of Sakhalin to Japan, and that Japan has produced an unfavorable impression.

Landsdoff Repeats Interview. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 25.—Respectfully published in the United States yesterday to the effect that Count Landsdoff, the Russian Foreign Minister, had been interviewed and declared that Russia would not pay a kopeck of war indemnity and pay an indemnity to Japan. The Foreign Office this morning declares officially and categorically that Count Landsdoff has received no correspondent and has given no interview. Nevertheless, the Russian Office at Petrograd, its recognized press representative, maintains its attitude and reiterates its official utterances that Russia will not pay such indemnity.

Denies Kaiser Is Obstructing. LENOX, Mass., Aug. 25.—When Baron Von Denbuche, German charge d'affaires, was shown the reports emanating from Portsmouth to the effect that the German Emperor was using his influence against the acceptance by Russia of Japan's terms, he said: "Such reports are contrary to the truth. The Emperor is strongly for peace and is not interfering with President Roosevelt's efforts. Quite the contrary, he earnestly sympathizes with the President's endeavors."

Russians Flaunt Yellow Peril. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 25.—The Russian press continues to express their surprise at the support given the Japanese cause in America. They contend from the standpoint of international politics that Japan's influence in the Pacific region is a great danger to America's commercial and trade development westward.

American Steamer Captured. YOKOHAMA, Aug. 25.—The American steamer Montu, bound for Petro Pavlovsk, was captured by the Japanese in the Bering Sea August 23.

AGREEMENT ON MAIN PRINCIPLE

Dislike Gayer Birds.

Those of Darker Plumage Ready to Attack Brighter Ones.

Twelve Houses Wrecked

Torrent Swept Them Away With All Their Occupants, and Families Are Recovered.

as long as possible, so as to be free to force France to join Germany and break with England. For this purpose it is necessary to defeat President Roosevelt's object, in order that subsequently when Russia is exhausted, Emperor William may become the mediator between her and Japan. To this end, Emperor William is endeavoring to bring about an alliance with Russia. All of which will conduce to the German hegemony of continental Europe. It is to be noted that this it is necessary to persuade Emperor Nicholas that he must not bow before the failures which have come, that all great nations have to suffer such a crisis, and it is his duty to give the armies of L'nevitch a chance to turn the situation.

It is believed the Japanese intend to let the conference end tomorrow. On the Russian side all pretense of claiming that Mr. Witte is any longer negotiating is abandoned. He has gone to the furthest limits of his imperial master's orders. More he cannot do, sincerely as he personally may desire to bring the negotiations to a successful conclusion. His position is a difficult and peculiar one. He is a statesman of ambition. Liberal at heart, he is yet a servant of his sovereign. At the present juncture his role is described as like that of Mirabeau. He stands between the King and his people. He obeys his sovereign, but he wants his people to know where the responsibility for the fate of the negotiations must rest. At the same time he cannot himself take a firm stand against his sovereign. For this reason, and the authenticated history of the conference will bear out this statement, he preferred, when first appealed to by Mr. Roosevelt, to have the latter go straight to the Emperor with his suggestion. Though perhaps in full sympathy with President Roosevelt to have himself appeared in support of it too ardently or to have openly endorsed it against his instructions, might, considering the influences about the court which are personally hostile to him and jealous of him, have injured instead of bettering the chances.

When the President's first effort failed, he did not discourage a second attempt in such a way that the Emperor would have had difficulty in declining, on courtesy to the President, to accept Mr. Witte at least tentatively to proceed with the negotiations and see if a satisfactory basis could not be arranged, reserving the last word for himself. Should such authority come at the eleventh hour, Mr. Witte might make the best terms he could and then figuratively throw a treaty at the Emperor's feet to take or leave, yes or no. As a politician, Mr. Witte might not relish the idea of having said when returning to his sovereign that he had made a "bad peace." He might prefer the Emperor to shoulder that responsibility.

Witte Says It Is All Over. But shortly before midnight Mr. Witte gave absolutely no encouragement to the idea that there would be a change of heart at St. Petersburg. Unless Tokyo is ready to recede further, he expressed the opinion that all was over. He said: "I have received no telegram from St. Petersburg which changes the situation. Indeed, I do not expect any. I have not asked instructions, so that I cannot receive any. If tomorrow there is to be a change, it must come from the Japanese side."

Hopeful Sign From Japan. That the last word had not come from Tokyo, and that Baron Komura may still appear in a conciliatory role tomorrow, may possibly be inferred from the following fact: The time for the sitting of the conference tomorrow was not set when the adjournment was taken on Wednesday. This evening Mr. Witte notified the Japanese mission that he would meet it in the morning at 9:30. The Japanese, after consulting, demurred on the ground that the protocol of the last meeting would not be ready in time. Therefore, at their request, the meeting was set for 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Information received at a late hour indicates that President Roosevelt's efforts are not exhausted; that he is still in communication with Tokio and St. Petersburg. Tomorrow's meeting, consequently, is likely not to prove decisive. At midnight no message had reached Mr. Witte from the President, and it was regarded as practically certain that an adjournment would be taken tomorrow until Monday.

NEITHER NATION WILL YIELD. Russia Holds Out Against Japan Indemnitists On, Indemnity. PARIS, Aug. 25.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Temps telegraphs that Emperor Nicholas, while expressing to Ambassador Meyer his deep recognition of President Roosevelt's efforts, explained that he was unable to make further concessions. His Majesty said that the payment of an indemnity would be contrary to the fundamental interests of the nation, while it would only further the ambition of the Japanese for fresh territorial conquests and involve the possibility of a recommencement of the war in the near future, with the balance of power in their favor instead of an equalized strength as at present. The desire of the Russian people for peace, the Emperor told the Ambassador, did not supersede the national interests.

TOKIO, Aug. 25.—The Associated Press correspondent has reasons to believe that nothing that has occurred at Portsmouth will change the attitude of the Japanese government. While the Foreign Office maintains its usual reticence, the official decline to talk for publication, the demand for an adequate indemnity remains unalterable.

KAISER BLOCKS NEGOTIATIONS. Russian Correspondent Says He Is Thwarting Roosevelt. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 25.—Mr. Briantchinoff, the correspondent of the St. Petersburg Slovo, in his cable to his paper today, dwelt upon the reported role played by Emperor William. He wrote: "There is a fact in the situation which has not appeared on the surface, but which, nevertheless, has played a big role. It is Emperor William. The deep impression produced by the meeting of the two sovereigns at Gorka is known and it is also known that Emperor William returned home enchanted.

Denies Kaiser Is Obstructing. LENOX, Mass., Aug. 25.—When Baron Von Denbuche, German charge d'affaires, was shown the reports emanating from Portsmouth to the effect that the German Emperor was using his influence against the acceptance by Russia of Japan's terms, he said: "Such reports are contrary to the truth. The Emperor is strongly for peace and is not interfering with President Roosevelt's efforts. Quite the contrary, he earnestly sympathizes with the President's endeavors."

Russians Flaunt Yellow Peril. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 25.—The Russian press continues to express their surprise at the support given the Japanese cause in America. They contend from the standpoint of international politics that Japan's influence in the Pacific region is a great danger to America's commercial and trade development westward.

American Steamer Captured. YOKOHAMA, Aug. 25.—The American steamer Montu, bound for Petro Pavlovsk, was captured by the Japanese in the Bering Sea August 23.

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate is the most appetizing combination of nutriment and flavor you ever tasted. It builds sound nerves and sturdy bodies without taxing the digestion. Makes toothsome cakes and pastry.

GHIRARDELLI'S GROUND CHOCOLATE

Ask any man who ever wore a GORDON HAT. That is the best argument

Gordon Hats $3

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision for over 30 years. Allow no one to deceive you in this. Counterfeits, imitations and "just-as-good" are but experiments, and endanger the health of Children—Experience against Experiment.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

IN A WEEK

We treat successfully all private nervous and chronic diseases of men, also blood, stomach, heart, liver, kidney and lungs troubles. We cure SYPHILIS (without mercury) to stay cured forever. We remove STRICTURE (without operation or pain, in 15 days). We stop drains, the result of self-abuse, immediately. We can restore the sexual vigor of any man under 45 by means of local treatment peculiar to ourselves.

DR. W. NORTON DAVIS & CO.

The Best Hot Weather Medicine

Prevent All Summer Bowel Troubles

Twenty Years of Success

In the treatment of chronic diseases, such as liver, kidney and stomach disorders, constipation, diarrhoea, dropsical swellings, Bright's disease, etc. Kidney and Urinary Diseases of the Rectum. Such as piles, fistula, fissure, ulceration, mucous and bloody discharges, cured without the knife, pain or confinement.

DR. WALKER, 181 First Street, Corner Yamhill, Portland, Or