

IMPEACHMENT OF MAYOR W. H. KING

Proceedings Are Begun for His Removal by Council of St. Johns.

DECIDED FOUR TO THREE

Councilman P. J. Peterson Is Also Included in the Proceedings, and an Effort Will Be Made to Oust Him.

Impeachment proceedings were started last night at the meeting of the St. Johns Council for the removal of Mayor W. H. King and Councilman P. J. Peterson, the charges being read by Councilman J. H. Shields. All the seven Councilmen were present, and Mayor King presided.

The little room in which the meetings of the Council are held was packed to suffocation, and many remained standing at the open windows outside to hear the proceedings.

At the opening, after the minutes of the former meetings were read and approved, Mayor King said: "We will now elect a successor to Mr. Edwards." This started matters. Mr. Shields then arose and read the charges on which he based an action for the removal of the Mayor and Councilman Peterson from office. He had scarcely taken his seat when Councilman W. H. Brice was on his feet reading resolutions directing the City Attorney to prepare charges and specifications and serve them on both Mayor King and Councilman Peterson. The City Attorney was directed to proceed at once with the preparation of the charges and serve on both the Councilman and Mayor, who shall have five days in which to answer.

Long and Bitter Controversy.

Following the reading of the articles of impeachment and resolutions there was a short silence, when Councilman Shields moved the adoption of the resolution. Councilman Leggett, president of the Council, arose and put the motion over the head of the Mayor, and it was carried by four votes—those of Leggett, Shields, Brice and Edwards.

Then followed a long and bitter controversy between Attorney McBarry, who represented Mr. Edwards, Attorney W. T. Vanhan and Ogelsby Young, who represented Mayor King and Councilman Peterson. Mr. Peterson demanded that Councilman Edwards be tried and his name cleared of every imputation. The other attorney contended that Edwards was not a member. The squabble lasted until 10 o'clock last night, and finally resulted in the City Attorney being instructed to go ahead with the proceedings against Peterson and the Mayor, on charges.

There was some very bitter words between Edwards and Peterson. Edwards said that Peterson had reported he would be ready to produce evidence when the time came.

The text of the charges on which impeachment proceedings against the Mayor and Councilman have been started, is as follows:

That your petitioner is informed and believes and therefore charges that P. J. Peterson, a member of said Council, together with one W. H. King, Mayor of the City of St. Johns, have, in violation of their public duties, entered into a conspiracy with other persons to disrupt the Common Council, disfranchise the citizens and impose upon the city other undesirable officials for the purpose of permitting the applicant to exploit the city to their own advantage.

That your petitioner is informed and believes and therefore charges one P. J. Peterson, a member of this Council, who has entered into illegal and clandestine negotiations with a certain liquor dealer to obtain for him, for a valuable consideration, a license to sell liquor to the City of St. Johns.

AT THE THEATERS

What the Press Agents Say.

KENDALL'S BIG SUCCESS.

Favorite Comedian Presents New Play to a Crowded House.

"The best ever," was the verdict of the crowded house to the play of the Marquam Grand Theater last night after witnessing the comedian you all know, Ezra Kendall, and his excellent supporting company, in the beautiful play, "Weather-Beaten Benson." That it was a "drenching success" is true both literally and financially—you will have to see this funny comedy-drama to appreciate the first, and the packed house will verify the latter statement. Never before has Mr. Kendall presented in Portland a play that made the hit this one has. Seven and eight curtain calls after each act but slightly exceed the sentiment of the big audience. "Weather-Beaten Benson" will be the hit tonight and tomorrow night. Beginning Thursday night and continuing the remainder of the week, "The Barn Stormer," by Sidney Rosenfeld, will be presented for the first time on any stage. The Marquam is on Marion street between Sixth and Seventh. Seats are now selling for the entire week.

"ALICE" AT THE BELASCO

Nothing So Successful as "Alice of Old Vincennes" Ever Offered.

The Belasco Stock Company struck the very best gait last night when it presented for the first time in the West the brilliant historical romantic drama, "Alice of Old Vincennes." A year or two ago the most popular novel of the day was this epic story of the conquest of the Northwest Territory by George Rogers Clark and his valiant little army while their compatriots on the Atlantic seaboard were fighting the tyrannical British. Intertwined with the incidents of camp and field is the beautiful love story of Alice, the charming daughter of the wilderness, and the brave young Virginia officer, Miss Lillian Lawrence, recognized as the leading stock actress in America, made her first appearance as leading woman with the Belasco forces and fairly captured her audience. She and Will Walling make an admirable team of leading people, and the company now ranks as the most perfect organization of its kind in the land. "Alice of Old Vincennes" will continue for an entire week and theatergoers will find it the best theatrical entertainment in many months.

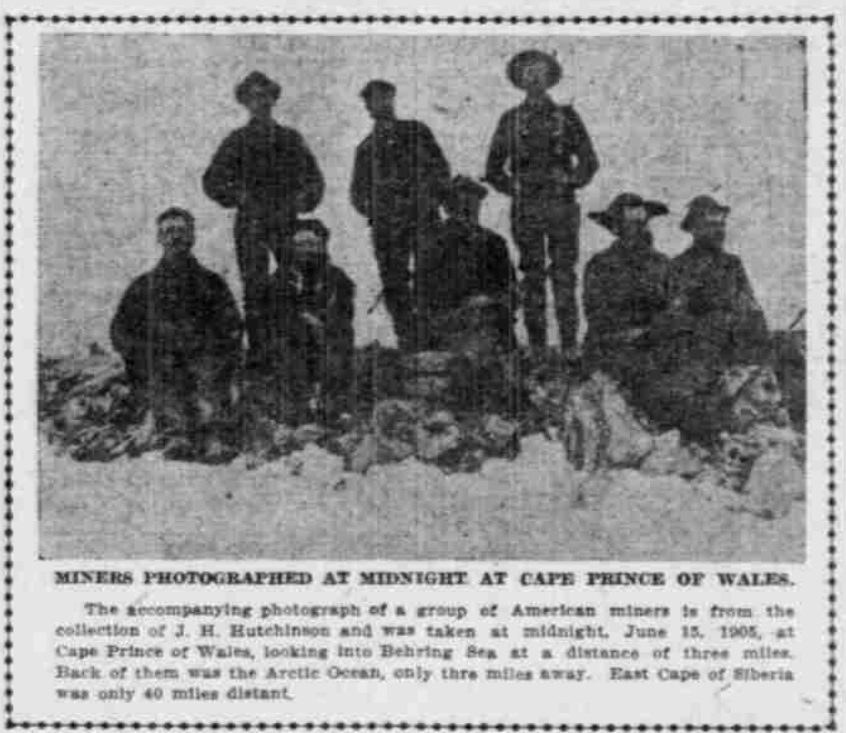

WILTON LACKAYE IS COMING

Celebrated Actor to Present "The Pit" and "Trilby" at Marquam.

Wilton Lackaye and his company of players will be the attraction of the Marquam Grand Theater next week. Beginning Monday night, September 4, and continuing Tuesday and Wednesday nights, "The Pit" will be the play. Thursday, Friday and Saturday matinees, "Trilby" will be presented. Mr. Lackaye's engagement promises to be one of the dramatic events of the season. Frank Dekum, a Portland boy, is playing with Mr. Lackaye.

Matinee Days at the Baker.

Special attention is called to the matinee days at the Baker for this season. Matinees are to be given every Sunday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday.

MINERS PHOTOGRAPHED AT MIDNIGHT AT CAPE PRINCE OF WALES.

The accompanying photograph of a group of American miners is from the collection of J. H. Hutchinson and was taken at midnight, June 15, 1905, at Cape Prince of Wales, looking into Behring Sea at a distance of three miles. Back of them is the Arctic Ocean, only three miles away. East Cape of Siberia is only 40 miles distant.

There will be no performances on Saturday evenings as the companies will leave for San Francisco after the Saturday matinee.

A new company opens every week with the Sunday matinee. This week the Fay Foster company is the attraction, and has set theatergoers talking as nothing else has done in a long time. This company is always been a favorite with burlesque lovers, but this season it is larger and better than ever, and presents many interesting novelties. Scenery, costumes and electrical effects are on a magnificent scale, and are said to eclipse anything heretofore seen with this line of attractions. Two lively travesties and a brilliant array of vaudeville talent complete the bill. "The Mysterious Mrs. Raffles" is the title of the closing part. This is a take-off on the recent hunt for Raffles, which caused such a stir throughout the East. Louise Dacre, the happy girl, is seen as Mrs. Raffles. "Cleopatra in Central Park" is the title of the opening part.

The Grand.

A male Anna Eva Fay is the stellar attraction at the Grand this week. He calls himself the Great Tatum, and barring the speech which he makes at the commencement of his performance, he does a good many stunts which seem to warrant his name de theater. He finds hidden articles, answers questions, makes predictions and generally mystifies his audience with his alleged occult powers. Hart, Heasle & Co. do a character change act which makes a hit, shows the impersonations being very lifelike, particularly those of Gladstone and the late Pope Leo. The De Fay team of musical artists, one of the best recently seen here, the best feature of their act being the playing of "Alice Where Art Thou" by whirling metal discs. The Buckeye Trio do an interesting acrobatic turn and Fred Purinton sings "Down on the Farm" very well.

The Star.

"Musical Kismet" is the topliner at the Star this week. Here is a man who seems to have a genius for novel effects and his act is remarkably good. He is the sort that the high-priced vaudeville houses in the East feature and should prove a big drawing card at the Star this week. He gives his performance on a darkened stage and the world is produced a little short of startling. It is also a commendable act. The bill as a whole, is perhaps the best ever offered by this theater, and includes Metville & La Zelle in their funny sketch "Jack the Hugger," Yarrick & La Londe in character changes, Walter Perry, one of the best monologists in the business, Roy McBrain's illustrated song and the moving pictures.

Accuses Saloon Man.

Complaining against the noise she allowed continued in the Forestry Inn Saloon until a very late hour yesterday morning, Mrs. L. M. Donaldson appeared before Deputy City Attorney Fitzgerald yesterday and secured warrants for the arrest of M. Marks on two charges—disturbing the peace and quiet of the vicinity and keeping his establishment open after prohibited time. The arrest was made last night.

File Incorporation Articles.

Articles of incorporation of the Clatsop Forestry and Ochre Company were filed with the County Clerk yesterday. Its principal place of business is in Portland, and capital stock $50,000, divided into 100 shares of the par value of $100 each. W. L. Dudley, I. A. Yereck and William B. Streeter, all of this city, are the incorporators.

File Mechanic's Lien.

Rasmussen & Co., yesterday filed a mechanic's lien on the Washington building in the Exposition grounds by virtue of a claim of $48.41, alleged to be held by them against the firm of Carroll & Linn, on account of materials furnished the contractors who constructed the edifice.

Wife Accused of Desertion.

C. A. Blakely has brought suit in the State Circuit Court against Emma Blakely, alleging desertion. They were married Dispute Arises Over Monies Given by Street Railways to Compromise Suit Following an Accidental Death.

Richard W. Ruffin, an attorney, has come up from Long Beach, Washington, to face some sensational charges that have arisen lately in the County Court relative to his connection with the estate of Rudolph Jensen, who was killed February 6 in a street-car accident at East-tavilla.

It is alleged that the Consolidated Railway Company compromised a suit by agreeing to pay Jensen's heirs $200, and that of this amount only about one-half found its way into the hands of Herman Jensen, a brother to deceased, who came out here from Wisconsin armed with a power of attorney from other heirs to settle up the estate, information having reached them that there was a chance to get something out of the railway corporation by suit for damages, on account of

Taggart Lawyers Brawl

Presiding Judge Has Quite a Time Quelling the Disturbance.

WOOSTER, O., Aug. 28.—Promptly upon the opening of court today, Mrs. Grace Taggart entered the room. Mrs. Taggart, in her appearance, the courtroom filled rapidly and a large audience was present.

Contrary to expectation, Mrs. Taggart was not placed on the stand at the opening. A controversy occurred between the attorneys about a letter referred to in some papers received from the War Department by Mrs. Taggart's attorney, Mr. Weitz was put on the stand and asked some questions by ex-Judge Smyser about the letter. After considerable discussion, the letter was read. It was from Adjutant-General Corbin and referred to the charges of General Miner.

It was to the effect that the report had been shown to the secretary of War and he regretted this unfavorable report from a man otherwise an efficient officer; that Captain Taggart should be admonished for his conduct, that strict watch should be made that he keep the pledge he made, and that for some time a monthly report of his conduct should be made to the War Department. The inference made by Mrs. Taggart's attorney was that the letter had been removed from a number of papers received from Washington. This was denied by Mrs. Taggart's attorney. At Mr. Weitz's left the stand, he made some remark to ex-Judge Smyser which the latter resented.

Woman Charged With Battery.

A bloody battle took place on Thurman street, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. Nellie Ryan and Mr. Albert Knebel as the participants. It resulted in the attacking party, alleged to be Mrs. Ryan, taking her heels to avoid arrest. During the fray blows were delivered from all sides and Knebel suffered a badly scratched face.

Death of a Centenarian.

Mrs. Mary Gibbons Campbell, a native of Ireland, died last night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Allie Campbell, East Eighth and Fremont streets, at the extreme age of 104 years. Had Mrs. Campbell lived until next March, she would have reached her 105th year.

Brings Partition Suit.

Henry Meister has brought a partition suit in the State Circuit Court against Abraham Meister and wife and J. H. Peterson, asking that lots 5 and 8, block 13, Watson's Addition to Portland, be sold, and a referee appointed by the Court for that purpose. Plaintiff claims to own an equal share in the property with Abraham Meister, and that defendant Peterson holds a valid mortgage against it for $4,800.

Seeks Divorce for Desertion.

Alice Goodwin has sued Edward H. Goodwin for divorce on the ground of desertion. They were married in New York City September 5, 1895, and have one child, Helen, aged 8 years, which Mrs. Goodwin asks the custody of from the Court, together with a decree awarding her a one-third interest in all the defendant's property, the value of which is unknown.

Says Wife Is Cruel.

Robert J. Wolcka has asked the State Circuit Court for a decree divorcing him from Minnie R. Wolcka on the ground of extreme cruelty, consisting mainly in charging him with being unduly intimate with other women. They were married at Oregon City October 11, 1894, and have two children, William R. Wolcka, six years, and Mildred M., who is two years and a half old.

Asks Revocation of Licenses.

Chief of Police Gritzmacher has addressed a communication to the liquor license committee of the City Council, requesting the revocation of the license of the Tuxedo saloon, located at 285 Alder street. This is the place the proprietors of which were fined $50 in Municipal Court last week for violation of the 1 o'clock closing ordinance, and which has been in bad repute for a long time. Chief Gritzmacher requests the Council license committee to revoke the licenses of several "fake" auction houses on North Third street, against which a warrant had been issued late by the police and Municipal Court officials.

Changes in the Weather Bureau.

Harry Pickock, a printer at the local Weather Bureau Office, has tendered his resignation to take effect September 1. He resigns to take a position here. John Grover, local assistant weather observer has relieved J. J. Kellher, of the North Head station, who is off for a month's vacation.

Portland Wins the Cup Takes First Place Among Norwegian Singing Societies.

At the banquet of the Norwegian singing societies, held in Arion Hall last night, the beautiful silver cup was awarded to the Portland organization for the best chorus singing of any society which participated in the concert at the Auditorium on the Exposition grounds Sunday night. With an appropriate speech, F. C. Hageman, who presided as toastmaster, presented the trophy to the Portland singers. The judges who awarded the cup were Madame Ragna Linne, Dr. Everett, second vice-president; N. Portlandian, Dr. J. J. Kellher, Dr. W. Bellingham, Wash. All the societies that sent delegations to Portland entered the contest and the competition was very close.

WARRANTS ARE ASKED FOR MAYOR WANTS WARRANTS.

Mayor Lane is angry because he has been accused of releasing alleged poker players, who were captured in a room of the Imperial Hotel by Headquarters Detectives Carpenter and Resing. He claims that he had nothing to do with the turning loose of the alleged gamblers, and to show his attitude toward them and toward gambling, he yesterday morning directed Chief of Police Gritzmacher to have Detective Carpenter request warrants for the rearrest of the whole bunch.

Detective Carpenter first went to Deputy City Attorney Fitzgerald, who referred him to City Attorney L. A. McNary. The latter is out of town, but is expected home tomorrow. The request will then be made.

Those for whom warrants are wanted are L. W. (Doc) Robertson, Attorney A. S. Bennett, Mayor Matlock of Penitentiary, F. Matlock, Dr. J. M. Davis, a Portland dentist, and Charles Babb, Eastern Oregon cattle king.

Mayor Lane refused to "stand for" the release of those notable men who made up a party of poker players in a room of the Imperial Hotel last Friday afternoon, and who were so rudely "pinched" by Headquarters Detectives Carpenter and Resing. Therefore, he proposes to rearrest the whole bunch. Yesterday morning Detective Carpenter appeared in the Municipal Court and asked Deputy City Attorney Fitzgerald for warrants.

Not wishing to "butt in" on the game at this stage of the affair, Mr. Fitzgerald instructed Detective Carpenter to go to the office of City Attorney L. A. McNary and seek warrants of him. Upon reaching there, the officer ascertained that the city's legal adviser was at the beach and will not return until Wednesday. The case rests until he can be seen.

Those Wanted on Warrants.

Those for whom warrants will be asked are L. D. (Doc) Robertson, formerly a Chief of Police in Portland; A. S. Bennett, of the Dalles, and known to fame as the chief defender of Senator Mitchell and now attorney for Congressman Willamson; Mayor W. F. Matlock, of Penitentiary; F. Matlock, of Penitentiary; J. M. Davis, a Portland dentist, and Charles Babb, a cattle king of Eastern Oregon.

All of the foregoing named citizens were caught red-handed in a poker game in "Doc" Robertson's room in the Imperial Hotel last Friday afternoon, and were taken to police headquarters by Detectives Carpenter and Resing.

At headquarters, the men, all of whom are well-known in Oregon, protested that they were not gambling, but that they were merely enjoying a little social game. Municipal Judge Cameron was called in, but said he could hardly take a hand in the matter at that stage, as he was a judicial officer. Upon his suggestion, City Attorney McNary came and listened to what the distinguished prisoners had to say for themselves.

Will Not Shoulder Responsibility.

Right here, stories differ as to what occurred, but at any rate all of the alleged poker-players went to see Mayor Lane. Now City Attorney McNary and Judge Cameron claim Mayor Lane turned the alleged gamblers loose, and he refuses to have it that way, he says Cameron and McNary did it, and that when the men appeared in his office at the City Hall, they were free.

The matter has created a great deal of talk about the city, and Mayor Lane has concluded that he will not shoulder the responsibility for the release of the prisoners. It is at his instance that Chief of Police Gritzmacher yesterday morning directed Detective Carpenter to make the application for warrants. Upon City Attorney McNary's return, the officer will again apply.
