Manufacturers Enjoined From Ille gally Using Union Label.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Aug. 28.-Judge Shumway in the Superior Court has handed down a decision in the suit of the United Batters of North America against C. H. Merritt & Son of Danbury, in favor of the plaintiff. The hatters sued, alleging that the firm was getting business by counterfelting the union label on goods made by non-union workingmen. Judge Shumway orders an accounting by the firm with the Hatters and issues a permanent injunction restraining the firm from using any more of the offend-

Judge Shumway practically exonerated the non-union men from any intention to deceive or defraud, stating that these allegations in the suit were not proven, although at the same time he finds the firm guilty of counterfelting the union

Judge Shumway also says there was abundant testimony to show that some non-union hats were of better material and workmanship than those made by inion workmen.

An appeal will probably be taken by C. H. Merritt & Son, to the Supreme Court.

Lively Bow in the Orpheum.

Fred Jacobs and Claud Ford, two lads scarcely of age, got into an alter-cation at the Orpheum early this morn-ing, which resulted in the calling in of Captain Bailey, of the night relief. It seems that the young men were in the place, which recently forfelted its liquor license and is now a "soft drink" emporium, with a ballet attraction on the side, and were drinking orangeade and the like with Mamie Elmore and another habitue of the place, and com-plained of being overcharged for the drinks. They had paid a dollar a bottle for several bottles of soft drinks, and one of the women proposed that, if the boys would buy a bottle of a beverage cailed "gilt neck," she would buy them a supper. This they consented to do, with the understanding that the price was to be $2.50, but when the waiter served the same he demanded $5, which the young men refused to pay, and the row started. Captain Bailey went to the place to investigate the affair. No

LOSES HOLD ON TRAPEZE

John Williams Drops From Parachute 1200 Feet in the Air.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 28.-Releasing his grasp on a trapeze attached to a para-chute as the latter opened-to the wind 1300 feet above the ground, John Williams, 88 years old, was dashed to his death yea-terday at Red House Park, near Cahokia. III. Every bone in his body was broken ns Williams struck the ground with fearful force. The tragedy was the result of the victim's determination to make a balloon ascension. As the aeronaut prepared to make the ascension Williams is said to have rushed forward and seized the trapeze bar, calling to his friends, "Good-bye." As he clasped the bar the balloon rose into space, carrying both the aero-naut and Williams.

As the parachute commenced to fill in the wind and the rapid descent of the canvas was suddenly checked Williams, whose strength was exhausted, was jarred loose from the bar and his body shot downward. The aeronaut was uninjured and alighted a few yards away from the scene where Williams met his death.

Two Ohio Farmers Accused of Attempted Dynamiting.

ST. MARYS, O., Aug. 28.-As a result of an investigation of the two attempts to blow up the immense reservoir near here during the past year, two arrests were made today, and more are expected tomorrow. Those against whom warrants were issued were farmers living near the reservoir. Riley Colton, of Ceilna, charged with having blown up the bulkhead in an attempt to destroy the reservoir, and Parker Wright, whose home is on the south side of the reservoir, accused of being an accomplice, were arrested today and taken before the prosecuting attorney at Wapakoneta.

The reason for the attempt to blow out the bulkhead lock is said to be the fact that the farmers living in the vicinity are constantly subjected to great damage by reason of the overflow during seasons of
