

COUNCIL HAS SPLIT IN TWO

Mass Meeting Called by the Business Men of St. Johns.

TWO FACTIONS PRESENT

One Body Meets and Adjourns Until Monday Night and the Other With the Mayor Adjourns to This Evening.

At the adjourned meeting of the St. Johns Council last night, that body split. The majority faction composed of Councilmen Leggett, Shields, Brice and Edwards adjourned until Monday night, while the Council chamber, after passing a resolution suspending Councilman Peterson, Peterson and Lincoln remained. Three Councilmen remained—Thompson, Peterson and Lincoln.

Mayor King called the meeting to order, and immediately following roll call by Recorder Hank C. D. Edwards being recognized as a member, Councilman Shields was elected his feet with a resolution disqualifying Peterson from taking part in any of the proceedings. He moved the adoption of the resolution, which motion was seconded by Councilman Brice. Mayor King hesitated about putting this motion, and Councilman Leggett, president, arose and demanded that the motion be put, intimating that he would put the motion himself if the Mayor did not. Recorder Hanks called the roll, whereupon Councilmen Leggett, Edwards, Brice and Shields voted for the resolution, the opposition against, giving the resolution a majority. It was then moved and carried by the four Councilmen—Leggett, Shields, Edwards and Brice—that the Council stand adjourned until next Monday night, the time for the regular meeting. Theguson the foregoing members left the room. Councilmen Thompson, Lincoln and Peterson remaining, but not constituting a quorum.

Speaks for Mayor King.

Attorney Ogelsby Young, in behalf of the Mayor, submitted an opinion to the effect that C. D. Edwards was not a legal member of the Council, that the recorder persisted in calling his name as a member the Mayor had authority to suspend him and appoint some one to fill his place. Mr. Young said that was not a personal matter, but a question of pure law.

Recorder Hanks made a vigorous statement in which he declared that, in his judgment, Edwards had not been elected from his seat legally, and that he considered it his sworn duty to call Edwards name, and he should not be dictated to by any man as to his duties.

On the advice of Mr. Young, the Council then went ahead, as a matter of form, and balloted for David Brock to succeed Mr. Edwards. As there was no quorum present there was no election, but this action was taken to fulfill the requirements of the charter. It was then moved and carried that this part of the Council adjourn until this evening. And to one part of the Council stands adjourned until next Monday night, and one part until this evening.

Citizens Call Meeting.

There will be a mass meeting of the citizens of St. Johns this evening in the hall of Modern Woodman, on Philadelphia street, under the auspices of the St. Johns Board of Trade, to consider the situation in the Council. A warm time is expected as the municipality is thoroughly aroused over the proceedings of the Council. Just what action will be taken is not known.

There is a suggestion that all the members of the Council be asked to resign, and give the people another opportunity to elect, at a special election, a body of Councilmen who will do business, and not fritter away the time in a personal squabble; but this suggestion has merely been thrown out as a feeler.

The Council itself is hopelessly divided, and there is now a doubt who is the acting Mayor of St. Johns. Some contend that pending the investigation of the charges against Mr. King, Councilman R. T. Leggett is the acting Mayor, and Mayor King is under suspension until he shall have been tried, convicted or acquitted. The articles of impeachment submitted by Councilman Shields demand that he and Councilman Peterson be suspended until the charges be investigated.

What the Charter Says.

On this point the charter is not altogether clear. Section 33, on page 12, of the charter, provides for the trial and removal of the Mayor on charges, "For commission by him of a crime or misdemeanor involving turpitude. In such proceedings the Council shall sit as a court of impeachment, and for that purpose shall have power to subpoena and compel attendance of witnesses. The president of the Council shall preside at all such hearings, and it shall require the affirmative vote of five-sevenths of the members of the Council to remove the Mayor."

The Council consists of seven members. Four of these members—Councilmen Leggett (president), Shields, Edwards and Brice—are united against the Mayor, and there are three on his side—Councilmen Peterson, Lincoln and Thompson—but Peterson is also under charge, and perhaps suspension. At any rate, the opposition to Mayor King, as the Council now stands, has a majority against him. The stands is again firmly seated, no matter what the efforts have been to get him out. The minutes of several meetings, which have been approved, show that Edwards is a member. The preponderance of law and the provisions of the charter seem to indicate that Councilman Leggett is the acting Mayor of St. Johns, pending the investigation of the charges against Mr. King. This is the construction Attorney McGarry and other attorneys place on the charter. On the other hand, Attorneys W. T. Vaughan and Ogelsby Young, counsel for Mr. King, contend that the charges submitted against him, and that he were not sworn to and do not comply with the law, and that Mayor King is still clothed with the full power of his office.

Situation to Be Considered.

This is the situation that the mass meeting will consider tonight. For several weeks very little municipal business has been transacted, as nearly the entire time of the Council has been taken up with bitter recriminations and personal insinuations. A few items of business that had to be attended to were forced upon the attention of the Council, pertaining to street contracts, by Recorder Hanks. All the members of the Council went into office as close personal friends, but the two factions do not hesitate to make serious charges against each other. This condition has aroused the people to a very high pitch of indignation. As both factions have strong support, and the outcome is hard to predict. The business community and citizens of St. Johns are disgusted over the failure of the Council to do business, and also at the reputation that the place is receiving abroad. There are some who candidly think the row means that the municipality will break up entirely, and will ask to be taken into Portland, as the only escape from the present hopeless complication in which the city finds itself at this time. However, what a mass meeting can do, or suggest, to relieve the situation remains to be developed.

BADLY INJURED BY WAGON

Fred Love Falls From His Wagon Within Block of His Home.

Fred Love, a resident of Arieta district, on the Mount Scott branch of the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company's line, was terribly injured and narrowly escaped death, in an accident which took place Monday evening within a block of his home. He was driving a wagon loaded with shingles, when he lost his balance and plunged off the load to the ground. In falling he struck on his face, and his neck was directly in front of one of the wheels of the heavily loaded wagon. In this position Mr. Love was pushed forward about five feet before the horses were stopped. Had the wheel passed over his neck, Mr. Love, of course, would have been killed instantly, but instead the wheel pushed him ahead. He was picked up in an insensible condition and carried to his home. Drs. Briggs and Voss were called.

It was found, on close examination, that his right ear had been almost torn from his head, his face badly cut and bruised, a serious wound being over his right eye, and also there were numerous cuts on his head, the scalp being cut in several places. His right shoulder was bruised and there appeared to have been some injury to his lungs. How serious this latter injury is could not be determined. With the help of W. A. Schooning, the physician dressed his wounds, and he was made as comfortable as possible. Mr. Schooning remained with the injured man most of the night, and left him when Mr. Love appeared resting comfortably. The cuts on his head are supposed to have been caused by a heavy bunch of shingles falling on him. It took the two physicians several hours to dress his wounds, and over 40 stitches were taken in his scalp. Mr. Love is 65 years old.

TWO LACROSSE GAMES.

Famous Vancouver, B. C., Veterans to Play Portlands.

Lacrosse has suddenly taken on a new lease of life in this city, for the famous Vancouver, B. C., lacrosse club players have taken it into their heads that they must visit the Lewis and Clark Exposition and incidentally play two matches with the Portlands on Multnomah Field, Saturday afternoon and Monday afternoon. When a representative of the Portlands recently visited Vancouver, B. C., looking for a game, there were not wanting those who scoffed at the idea that any Portland player existed who had the faintest chance of being in the same class with the British Columbia vets. But late arrivals from the outer lacrosse world, coupled with the fact that Portland has veteran players who can take care of anything that comes along, have wonderfully strengthened the Portlands. And those who ought to know say the Vancouver will get all that's coming to them when they tackle the Portland boys. These two matches will probably be the last lacrosse games this season, and ought to draw the crowd. The Vancouver are the only rivals on this continent of the great Westminsters, who went East several years ago and wiped up every-thing before them. The Vancouver players are lightning lacrosse, and will eclipse anything seen here previously in combination work.

GETS ARRESTED HIMSELF

Victor Cohen Who Makes Complaint Is in the Toils.

Following the arrest of John Nohoun and Leon Pinot, on a charge of assault and battery, on the complaint of Victor Cohen, the complainant was himself arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of embezzlement preferred against him by Katie Van Hatten, of Seattle, who alleges that Cohen left after selling goods valued at $60.

Cohen is a bruised and battered person, as the result of a conflict at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. After his assailants had been disposed of yesterday, Cohen hung around the station and was packed up at the entrance thereof, when a telegram from the Sheriff at Seattle, authorizing his arrest, was received.
