

FOUND A MISSING MAN

Rogers, Deserter of Children, Is in Providence.

HE CONFESSES FORGERY

Man and Wife Who Fled From Albany Obtain Aid From Doctor and Tell of Misdeeds—Detectives Seek Him.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 29.—John W. Rogers, deserter of children from San Francisco, and his wife, who disappeared from the Hotel Ten Eyck at Albany, N. Y., last Friday night, leaving behind two young children, were in Providence today. The missing man was identified in the office of Dr. M. W. Houghton, the government physician of this port, to whom he applied for employment and related a story of ill luck.

According to Rogers' statement, he and his wife arrived here yesterday from Boston, having walked the distance in three days. Dr. Houghton secured a position for the man. The physician says that later he was informed by Rogers that the latter, when in New York last Friday, wrongfully made out a check on a southern California bank for $1500, which was cashed for a portion of the face value. Dr. Houghton did not learn the name of the institution. Rogers shortly afterward left Dr. Houghton's office, and when last seen by the physician was waiting for his wife on a street corner.

As an excuse for his actions Rogers said he had been in bad company in Washington and in New York and had arrived at the end of his credit when he decided to make out a check on a California bank. The local detective bureau was advised of Rogers' presence in this city and officers were looking for him during the afternoon. Dr. Houghton stated that he had met Rogers and his wife in Washington last November, when he attended Mrs. Rogers at the time she was employed by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs as a stenographer. Since then Rogers has been out of employment. The man told Dr. Houghton that he was penniless.

Charged With Abandoning Children.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. John W. Rogers will be brought back to Albany on the charge of abandoning their children.

DOOR TO CHINA IS OPEN

of the conference from the Associated Press telegram sent me here, but I must decline to comment thereon until I receive an official announcement from my government. A long dispatch was received at the Japanese legation later in the evening and was forwarded to Baron Hayashi. In all official circles, in the clubs and elsewhere, the announcement of the terms came as a complete surprise and responsible persons refused to express definite opinions until more information regarding the terms had been received. The morning papers, while sharing the astonishment of the public at the unexpected nature of the peace terms, accord the greatest praise to Japan for having chosen so magnanimous a course. It is contended that, by waiving the question of indemnity, Japan might justly claim the whole of the island of Sakhalin, and that therefore the concession of the island is a concession made entirely in the interest of peace. All the papers express gratitude to President Roosevelt and admiration of his statesmanship, giving him full credit for being "the one man who made peace possible."

English papers which have been strongly pro-Japanese throughout the negotiations express disappointment at Japan's failure to be reimbursed for the expenses of the war. At the same time, several of them admit that she perhaps has chosen the wiser and more businesslike course.

The Daily Graphic, commenting on Japan's "extraordinary magnanimity," considers that, "coming from a victorious power on the eve of further victories, such concessions point to a higher code of ethics than that which prevails in any of the European nations, and to a deeper appreciation of the cause that makes nations really great. Whether her magnanimity will prove costly in the future it is impossible to say, but in any case Japan secures the respect of the world, and that is an asset which may perhaps prove more valuable than many fortresses."

The Morning Post pays a splendid tribute to President Roosevelt and says: "The entire civilized world will join in offering to President Roosevelt congratulations on the success which has attended his courageous efforts in the cause of humanity. We were allies of Japan before the war. We today are no longer enemies, but a power which has known in the hour of her victory over a foreign foe how to achieve a victory over her enemy in our interests that peace should be concluded, so that Russia might again resume her place in Europe. But she was undecided we could not utter a word which might be interpreted to mean that we desired Japan to withdraw one iota of her just claims in consideration of the interests of her ally in Europe."

The Daily Telegraph says, with reference to the waiving of the question of indemnity: "Grave as the disappointment will be, the Emperor of Japan and his council probably came to the right decision, containing all the hazards of a conflict with an enemy whose vitals were practically unassailable. Caution and wisdom might be interpreted to mean that we desired Japan to withdraw one iota of her just claims in consideration of the interests of her ally in Europe."

ROOSEVELT HAS HIS REWARD

France Rejoices at His Success, Wonders at Japan's Action.

PARIS, Aug. 29.—The unwavering conviction of France that President Roosevelt's noble initiative would culminate in peace has received its reward. The news of the successful termination of the conference at Portsmouth, which was first made known through the Associated Press bulletin, produced a profound impression when it was communicated to the members of the diplomatic corps and the high officials of the government, who unanimously expressed the keenest satisfaction that the heavy strain and anxiety had been removed, and President Roosevelt's unrelenting persistency was generally considered to have been the main factor in bringing about the happy results. American, Russian and French officials displayed jubilation, while Japanese diplomats maintained their usual imperturbability regarding the event as a thing that had been expected. All, however, rejoiced that the disastrous war had been brought to a close with undoubted benefit, not only to Russia and Japan, but to the whole world.

Wine of Cardui

For Girls, Mothers, Grandmothers

It is a pure, healthful, medicinal, female tonic, non-intoxicating and harmless to old and young. Just as good for the young girl as for the mother, or grandmother, of a family. Just as good for the society leader as for the working girl or farmer's wife. Sold at every drug store in $1.00 bottles.

COMPLETE RELIEF. "I have suffered with female troubles," writes Miss Mollie Lay, of Bowl, Tenn., "ever since I was 14 years old, but Wine of Cardui gave me complete relief."

THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

June 2—President Roosevelt at interview with Russian Ambassador advises that Russia make peace. June 3—Roosevelt confers with Japanese Minister on peace. June 7—Russia inquires terms through Roosevelt. June 9—Roosevelt sends identical note to Russia and Japan advising peace. June 10—Both nations accept. June 13—Russia publishes her formal acceptance. June 15—Washington chosen as meeting-place. June 20—Russia names as envoys Nelidoff and Rosen, but afterwards substitutes White for Nelidoff. August 2—Japan names Komura and Takahira as her envoys. August 3—Envoys introduced to one another by Roosevelt on yacht Mayflower at Oyster Bay. August 9—First meeting of conference at Portsmouth, N. H. August 10—Japan presents her demands. August 12—Russia replies, refusing to pay indemnity, cede Sakhalin, give up interned warships or limit naval forces in Orient. Discussion of other articles begins. August 16—Agreement reached on evacuation of Manchuria, recognition of Japan's control of Korea. August 17—Agreement on open door in Manchuria, recognition of China's integrity and cessation of leases of Liaoting Peninsula. August 18—Agreement on cessation of Chinese Eastern Railroad to Japan for transfer to China, Russia retaining main line. August 17—Conference reaches disputed points and adjourns to August 22. August 18—After interview with Komura, Roosevelt summons Rosen to Oyster Bay. August 18—Roosevelt proposes compromise to Russia. August 21—Japan accepts Roosevelt's compromise plan to withdraw indemnity demand and offer to sell North Sakhalin to Russia, but modifies it by stating price instead of leaving amount to be fixed by commission. August 22—Russia rejects new proposition and refuses to pay any money. August 23—Roosevelt reaches to czar and Mikado and envoys await instructions. August 26—Conference meets again, White holds back czar's ultimatum, Japan asks for meeting on August 28. August 27—Japan asks adjournment from August 28 to August 29. August 28—Japanese cabinet instructs envoys to withdraw indemnity demand and cede North Sakhalin for nothing if Russia will not agree to pay. August 29—Agreement reached, Japan withdrawing demand for interned warships and limit to naval power.

CONSUL AIBA IS REJOICING

Only Regret Is That Russia Retains Foothold on Sakhalin.

Tsunji Aiba, Japanese Consul located at Portland, expressed great pleasure last night at the successful conclusion of the peace negotiations. While reluctant to discuss the details of the settlement until they shall be officially announced, Mr. Aiba was of the opinion that the provisions agreed upon, as announced in the press reports, will be fairly satisfactory to his countrymen. "Japan," he said, "is very anxious for peace, although our press has been very stubborn in its opposition to the concession of any of our original demands from Russia. The fear has been that terms might be agreed upon which would assure only temporary peace. We desire the present conflict to be a final settlement of all our long-standing difficulties with Russia. Rather than submit to terms which would assure only a temporary cessation of hostilities, we would see the fight continued now. I believe that the resources of Japan are sufficient to sustain our armies during at least two years more of war. "I would rather not discuss the details of the agreement until they have been officially given out. It seems, though, that Japan has gained all the vital points for which she was fighting. Sakhalin was originally demanded, but the Japanese regret to see Russia get a foothold there."

GLOUCESTER, MASS., Aug. 29.—Andrew D. White, ex-United States Ambassador to Russia, said concerning peace: "I am glad that peace has come. I am glad that the Japanese seemed so very magnanimous. I expected that it

Proposal of Permanent Inter-Parliament Astounds Europeans.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 29.—The Inter-Parliamentary Congress today resumed discussion of the American proposition for the establishment of a permanent inter-parliament. Count Apponyi, representing Austria-Hungary, spoke in support of the principle of the American plan, but pointed out that the magnitude of the scheme required mature consideration. Messrs. Moon, of Pennsylvania, and Waldo and Goldfoyle, of New York, strongly supported the American project. Philip Stanhope, in behalf of the members of the British House of Commons, approved the reference of the proposition to a committee, saying that Europe was not sufficiently advanced to accept the American plan without consideration.

New Orleans Recovering Steadily From Epidemic, but Many Scattered Cases Cause Quarantine on River.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 29.—The most important development of the yellow fever situation today was the report of Dr. C. Milo Brady, who had been sent by the State Board of Health on a tour of inspection of the bayous and lakes in Jefferson Parish, where there are many settlements of fishermen in constant communication with New Orleans. Dr. Brady made the trip with Dr. Shanley, of North Dakota. After Dr. Brady had made his report the State Board decided to organize immediately a relief party consisting of a physician and two nurses. Medicines and provisions also will be forwarded. The local situation continues to be most hopeful. On August 18 there were estimated to be 459 cases under treatment, but since then there has been a steady diminution until today there were reported only 181 sick. 74.5 per cent of the total of 1758 cases having been discharged as cured or convalescent. Showers continued here throughout the day, succeeding a heavy rain yesterday and there was a great moderation in temperature. Owing to the fact that the total number of foci which have been printed from day to day is misleading and that the number of cases reported under treatment is inaccurate on account of a defect in the formula on which they were figured, these figures hereafter will be dropped. Reports of new cases from the country are: Lake Providence, 3; Amelia, 4; Bayou Boucuf, 2; Ardoyne, 2; Houma, 1; Kenner, 3; Hanson City, 2; Ninth Ward of Jefferson Parish, 1; St. Rose Y. Patterson, 3; Waveland Plantation, 5; Port Barrow, 1.

Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.
