WINS HIS FIRST CASE - In the case of the state against William Saylor, of Troutdale, charged with assault on Hermann Fritz on the night of August 16, 1905, yesterday before Justice Shreve, of the Mount Tabor Court, the defendant was found guilty. It was James Craig's maiden case, he representing the state in the prosecution. The result was an aggravated one. Fritz, who is a small man, was terribly beaten. Two teeth were knocked out and another loosened. His eyes were already blackened. He was bruised about his body. On the witness stand Saylor declared that he never saw the complaining witness before in his life until he met him in the courtroom, but the evidence pointed to him as the man who committed the assault. Justice Shreve imposed a fine of $15. Defendant had no attorney. Mr. Craig is clerk of the Easy Side Court.

COMPLAINS OF EXPECTORATION - An indignant woman called up The Oregonian office by telephone yesterday afternoon and wanted to register a protest against the thoughtless persons who persist in expectorating on the sidewalks. She said her gown had just been ruined by a man who turned round quickly and squirted tobacco juice all over it. This incident occurred at noon on Third and Washington streets. It was the second time she had experienced the same thing, she said, and she wished that she had some means to punish the men who had wrought such mischief. There is a city ordinance against expectoration on sidewalks.

SPECIAL MEETING OF FEDERATION - A special meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. L. Samuel, 36 1/2 Twelfth street, for transaction of general business and to make arrangements for a general reception to clubwomen in the Oregon building on the Exposition grounds. As there has been no regular meeting of the Federation for several months, considerable business is on hand. Mrs. Rose Hoyt, president of the Federation, who had been absent from the city for several months, will be present.

MATHEW CARIN, N. S. COMINO - Matthew Carin, No. 12, Native Sons of Oregon, has accepted the invitation to attend the celebration at the Exposition September 15 in honor of St. X. Matheo. Secretary A. E. Com, of the Club, writes Joseph Buchtel that the members will attend as far as possible. He asks that the time of the celebration be changed, but this cannot be done, as the announcement that the celebration will take place September 15 have gone broadcast and cannot now be recalled.

BRIDGEWOMEN ASSAULTED - While reconstrating with a driver for the Union Laundry Company on the Morrison-street bridge, yesterday afternoon, J. K. Frye, who lives at Twenty-third and Savier streets, was assaulted and rendered unconscious by being knocked against an iron railing. Frye is the bridge tender, and in endeavoring to prevent the driver from going on the movable portion of the structure, he was assaulted. Frye was taken to the hospital where he is said to be in a precarious condition.

BOUGHT TO PORTLAND FOR BURIAL - The funeral of Paul Fuller, who died at South Prairie, Wash., was held yesterday morning at Dunsmuir's undertaking chapel, East Sixth street, and the interment was in Riverview cemetery. Rev. J. E. Simpson conducted the service. The funeral of A. M. N. Hays, who died near Oregon City, was held yesterday afternoon from his late home, and the interment was in Lone Fir cemetery. He died at the home of his in-law, Mr. Wilcox. He was 72 years old.

FRAME BUILDING DAMAGED BY FIRE - The two-story frame building at Grand avenue and East Clay street caught fire yesterday morning, at the back end, between the ceiling and the roof. The firemen were called out, and the fire was extinguished. The damage was small. As the second floor is occupied as a lodging-house, the roomers were taken to a place for a time. By prompt action the fire did not spread. The building is the property of Ross, Bodman and Kissling, carpenter and roofer, yesterday succeeded in recovering a trunk belonging to Mrs. Margaret Sillars, of Centerville, Ia. It was stolen from the Union Depot baggage-room last week by two men, taken to the corner, and G. W. Griffith, of Spokane, delivered the sermon.

DEATH OF O. T. GLIDDEN - O. T. Glidden died yesterday at Good Samaritan Hospital, after a short illness. He lived in East Portland eight years ago, but moved to Spokane, returning here two years ago. He left a widow. Arrangements for his funeral were made by his mother, who lives in the East.

OPEN-AIR MEETINGS - Open-air meetings were started last night in Sellwood, at Ninth street and Umatilla avenue. Fred Mosher rendered "The Holy City" on the cornet, and G. W. Griffith, of Spokane, delivered the sermon. The Pullman Palace Inn, Twenty-sixth and Wilson streets, will close September 4. The building and entire contents for sale at once. Apply on premises. MARRY a bartender, William Clark, who failed in his prospective bride at the depot; and after a good position had been secured for her at $10 a week, Bessie Able was arrested last night on a charge of vagrancy. Mrs. Able, who is said to have one husband in Pittsburg besides mother and father who are well off, gave up her home and friends to meet the man she loved in Portland.

After search for Clark in this city she appealed to the Salvation Army Home and was cared for by the matron of that institution. With what little money she had she returned to Portland and the Army people proposed adding to that, that she might return to her husband. Rather than return to Pittsburg, where her husband awaits her, she decided to make her own living. A position was secured for her at Roberts Bros., where she worked a few days. She was given a room gratis, and her board was given her in a private family. But, deserting all these, Mrs. Able left for a different kind of life, and was arrested last night in a house of evil character on Third street. Mrs. Able says that she will not return to her home, but will live as she pleases.

AT THE THEATERS

What the Press Agents Say.

LAST PERFORMANCE "BENSON"

Edna Kendall to Present "Weather-Beaten Benson" for Last Time. Edna Kendall, the comedian you all know, and his excellent supporting company played a crowded house at the Marquan Grand Theater last night, where the comedy-drama, "Weather-Beaten Benson" was given for the second and last time. The last performance of this beautiful drama will be given tonight at 8:20 o'clock. If you have not seen "Weather-Beaten Benson" do not miss the last opportunity of this evening. It is without doubt the best play Mr. Kendall has yet given Portland theatergoers. Beginning tomorrow (Thursday) night, Sidney Rosenthal, "The Boy in the Wood" will be presented by Mr. Kendall for the first time on any stage. This comedy-drama will continue as usual on Friday and Saturday nights, with a special matinee Saturday. Seats are now selling for the entire week.

THE HIT OF THE SEASON

"Alice of Old Vincennes" Proves Most Popular of Belasco Shows. The Belasco management has exceeded all previous achievements in presenting its magnificent spectacular production of the Maurice Thompson historical-romantic drama, "Alice of Old Vincennes." The stage settings are the finest ever seen at the Grand Theater. The novel and costumes and properties are correct reproductions of the Revolutionary period. Most important of all, the play serves to introduce the most talented stock actress in America, Miss Lawrence, who assumes the leadership of the Belasco organization. She and Will Walling comprise a team of leading actors that is unequalled in this country, and in "Alice" they fairly capture their audiences. "The Boy in the Wood" is the best of the dramatized novels, and holds the audience spellbound from the first to the last curtain. It is full of bold adventure, beautiful sentiment and swift, colorful action. The novel had millions of readers, who naturally desired to see a dramatic version of it. Most dramatized novels are disappointing, but not so in the present instance, and the many admirers of the play are delighted to find that the play is even more interesting than the novel. Be sure and see the best stock performance ever given in the West at the Grand Theater this week. There is a great demand for seats, so be in time in securing your reservations for "Alice of Old Vincennes."

BURLESQUE AT THE BAKER

Matinees Today, Tomorrow and Saturday by the Fay Foster Co. If anyone doubts as to whether the new style burlesque is being introduced to Portland theatergoers has proven a success or not, he should stroll down to the Baker any evening after 7 o'clock and watch the crowds of people lined up at the box-offices to secure seats. It has simply taken the form of an innovation at every performance. The stage is a brilliant picture of pretty, daintily formed girls, who know how to dress, sing, dance and throw wisecracks. The comedy being of the burlesque order is quite new to the Coast, but for several seasons has been the principal form of amusement throughout the city. The Fay Foster Company, which opened the season Sunday will continue all the week with matinees today, tomorrow and Saturday. The Saturday matinee will be the closing performance, as there is no performance Saturday nights.

"THE PIT" AND "TRILBY"

Wilton Lackaye to Present Two Plays at Marquan Next Week. Wilton Lackaye comes to the Marquan Grand Theater next week in the dramatization of Frank Norris' famous novel "The Pit," which will be the bill for the first two days of the week. On Thursday and Friday nights and at the matinee on Saturday he will appear in his famous creation of Svenall in "Trilby," which his manager, Wm. A. Brady, has just added to his repertoire. There will be no performance on Saturday night, as the company leaves for San Francisco.

The police are experiencing trouble in enforcing the ordinance which prohibits bicycle-riding on the sidewalks within certain limits, and each day brings into court an array of violators. It has been the custom of Judge Cameron to fine each $10 for the first offense, and to make it $20 for every one who returns. No one has returned thus far. One brought in and fined $10 each yesterday were M. Morris, R. C. Bradley, W. V. Lindberg, V. M. Wallace, Ray Tracy, G. A. White, Thomas Fredrickson, C. W. Green, Carl Johnson, Ben Termeer, Arthur Foreman, V. O. Dawson. Another ordinance repeatedly violated, which provides for bells on bicycles. Many arrests are being made thus.

WM. THIELMAN'S FRIGHT

"Doc" Coons Declares He Will Break the Backbone of the Police Department, and Is Sent Back to His Cell. A "tough-looking" man walked up to William Thielman, keeper of a saloon at 109 North Fourth street, after 1 A. M. Sunday morning and laid hold of his collar. The man who always closes his establishment promptly, in accordance with the city law, felt his heart rise to his throat, and fluster and jump. It was dark and dreary, and he thought he was about to be held up and robbed, perhaps by some street pigsticker.

IMPORTANT TO MOTHERS

The manufacturers of Castoria have been compelled to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars in facilitating the public with the signature of Charles H. Fletcher. This has been necessitated by reason of pirates counterfeiting the Castoria trademark. This counterfeiting is a crime not only against the proprietors of Castoria, but against the growing generation. All persons should be careful to see that Castoria bears the signature of Charles H. Fletcher, if they would guard the health of their children. Parents and mothers in particular, ought to carefully examine the Castoria advertisements which have been appearing in this paper, and to remember that the wrapper of every bottle of genuine Castoria bears the facsimile signature of Charles H. Fletcher, under whose supervision it has been manufactured continuously for over thirty years. -Philadelphia Bulletin.

Launch Fox leaves foot Morrison street, Merrill boathouse, 2, 4, 6:30, 8:30 P. M. Manslayer Will Not Be Tried. SPOKANE, Aug. 29 - The grand jury CHILD CULTURE. A Pupil of Froebel's Says Things. A well-known woman physician of Chicago, who was in her youth a pupil of Froebel, a constable of the kindergarten, and herself a famous authority on the mind and body culture of children, says of Postum Food Coffee: "I am an advocate of natural foods for the building up and developing of the body and brain and for this reason I have introduced Postum into hundreds of families. Much of my life has been spent in giving lectures to mothers how to bring their children above disease by instructing them what to eat and drink. "I have two of the healthiest, strongest children in America to prove my theories correct. We live perfectly and are able to demonstrate the fact that true knowledge of food opens the gates of sunshine in our home. "Postum Food Coffee given to children enhances their ability to greater achievements in this world of competition. Thousands of constitutions are enfeebled in youth by drinking coffee where otherwise they could have had health and strength. "Oh the foolish mother and father to encourage in their children perverted appetites by indulging the palate for these things which enslave them in after life, cultivating an appetite for still grosser habits of intemperance. "Postum is Nature's wholesome liquid food and drink and when the taste is cultivated for this food drink the individual's path is safe and free from sour and unhealthy stomach action and perverted heart pulse. "There is no doubt coffee causes thousands to suffer all forms of dyspepsia, and heart, brain or nerve troubles and countless other ills depriving them of money, home and comforts of life by the countless outlay of doctors' bills and inability to be useful or conduct the ordinary duties of business. "Advocating Postum Cereal Coffee to insure good health to my patients I have never been disappointed. My pocketbook has suffered that is true, but my conscience is clear and easy for having done my duty." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. "Look in each package for a copy of the famous little book, 'The Road to Wellville.'" has decided to report "not a true bill" in the case of Gus Johnson, charged with killing Frank Robinson in the Amal saloon, in this city, August 20. This ends all chance of prosecution, Johnson was snapping a revolver while talking of what he would do if some one tried to hold him up. The gun went off, killing Robinson.
