Do you want a home in Portland? If so we would advise you to spend about 50 or 75 cents in car fare looking around Portland for homes: we don't claim to have the only nice part, and we don't expect to suit every one. If you want a home close in and are will-ing to pay the prices you can find beautiful jots for sale, in fact we have some. We have lots on Johnson be-tween Twenty-second and Twentythird streets, none nicer in the city, price $2253. We have property in South Portiand, and in Holladay, and there is lots of good property we don't have for sale; but if you want cheap lots and on easy terms we have the best thing to offer in Portland at Vernon, Vernon is nigh and sightly, has sidewalks, Bull Run water, good street-car service. Of all the beautiful places in the it is toe best, and after looking the whole city four out of five that want lots for a home buy in Ver-non, and you will do the same if you
