Standing of the Teams

Was it the first appearance of Mr. Sweeney, or was it the switching of the white for the blue uniform, that brought about the slaughter of Mr. Hogan? Let's hope it was because Mr. Sweeney was there. And what a contrast to Bootem. Droopem, Couldn'thitem Hoffman. There one consolution about Sweeney. He hits at 'em, and if he keeps up his lick of yesterday, he'll biff 'em more often than he'll miss 'em. This new Giant recruft is not a rooky to the baseball game a hallplayer, and no one who ever wore a uniform and joined a new team, ap-

Garvin on Firing Line.

Garvin again stepped to the firing line, and again the scalps of the Commuters are daugling at his belt. Before the game was two innings old, the haze of the fading Summer began falling fast upon the Ancient Mariner Van Haltren and his crew. Those Glants pelled out two bin-gles off Hogan in the opening canto. They didn't score, but It was a sample of the awar-fest that was to follow.

Hogan was kind to Sweeney. When the new Glant stepped to the pan in the sec and inning, two were morgued. This did not feare him. He waited, caught one to his liking and biffed it into jeft field. Duneavy made a gallant try for it, and Sweeney's first appearance on any diaond on the Coast went on record for to bases. Garvin wanted to make Sweeney's debut as glorious as possible, and he also hit one to Dunleavy that he missed. Both were hard chances, and in both instances Dunleavy falled Sweepey scored. Garvin actually stole second, but 21 didn't count, for Atz was an easy out

Get a Half-Nelson.

This one run gave the locals a sort of half-Nelson on the game. In the fifth inning they slipped the hold to a full strangle, and then spent the rest of the strangle, and then spent the rest of the grand circuit meeting at Narrangansett afternoon pestering Hogan and larruping his slants for L bingles. The fifth inning was a mixture of a bingle-fest and a done mation party, with Hogan as the host.

| And then spent the rest of the grand circuit meeting at Narrangansett park was the $1000 match between sweet Marie (2:04%) and Tiverton was Anderson won from Miss Palmetler, two up, by a sensational finish, holing a long Howell Tiverton was a mixture of a bingle-fest and a done the spent the matches are a functionally and the ma Atz. Van Buren, McLean and Sweeney singled. Hogan added his other mite and walked Mitchell, Schlaffy and Houre-holder. The total, when counted, called were 2:06% and 2:06%. Results: for four runs. The sixth was almost a for four runs. The sixth was almost a repetition. Nobody walked, but four biffed the ball safely. Sweeney hit for three stations. Garvin fouled out to Stanicy. Atz singled, accoring Sweeney, making it twice around the circuit for him.

Atz's single was a freak. He and Sweeney were working the squeeze play. Jakey saw the ball was going wild and poked it with his bat. The ball rolled along the line towards first base, hit the sack, squirmed and tried to roll foul, and then settled down to rest on the safe side. Atz in the meantime was tearing into the swiich. Kelly was making for the same siding and as pretty a head-on collision as you would wish to see followed. Both players bit the dust, twisted and squirmed a little and then flatted out. The first aid to the injured was called out, but wasn't needed. Van Buren followed with wasn't needed. Van Buren followed with a two-bagger, scoring Atz. With two down, Schlaffy poked out a safe one, making in all three more runs. This was enough, although McLean singled in the seventh and Mike Mitchell hit the scoreboard in centerfield in the eighth linning. Oakland's one run was the result of Rogan's three-bagger and a wild toss in relaying the ball by Schiafly. It was not s happy day for the visitors.

Nelson Begins Out-Door Work.

SAN PRANCISCO, Sept. 1.-Battling Nelson today began outdoor boxing in preparation for his match with Britt, September 9. A peculiarity of today's boxing was that most of the puglilst's sparring partners were from the Olympic which claims Britt as its own. Next week Nelson proposes to take his boxing exercises in the ring at Colma, where the fight will take place. It is expected that the arena will be completed by Monday. Arrangements have been made to seat between 12,000 and 15,000 people, and the management is looking for a $75,000 house. There are only a few hundred seats left msold, and it is expected that these will be taken up tomorrow.

The betting changed today from 10 to 2 to 10 to 7%, with Nelson at the short end. Britt today continued his usual work at the beach, and as usual his work was watched by many visitors.

Three Important Realty Sales.

Three sales were made yesterday by C. K. Henry, the consideration in each case being kept secret. Property on Seventh street, owned by the Portland Consolidated Company, changed bands, but the name of the new owner was not dis-closed. The tract runs through the entire block between Glisan and Hoyt streets alt is just across the street from the Northern Pacific freight depot, and would be a favorable site for a warehouse or other improvement. At present there are no buildings upon these lots. It is supposed that the new owner intends to build, but no announcements have yet been made. The warehouse at Thirteenth and Marshall streets was sold to Spokane investors. It was a part of the Burrell estate. The third sale was of vacant lots owned by A. Catlin, at Fourteenth and Schuyler streets, in Holladay's Addition. Mrs. Boliman, the new owner, will erect a fine residence upon this property.

Funeral of General Compson. Funeral services over the remains of General H. B. Compson, who died Thursday morning, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at Finley's chapel, in the undertaking parlors. Services will be conducted by the Elks, of which order General Compson was a member, and by members of the G. A. R. Judge H. H. Northup will conduct the services, and will be assisted by Rev. H. A. Barton, chaplain for G. A. R. members of Portland. After services at the chapei, the body will be conveyed to the G. A. R. cemetery, where the last rites will be confusion around the railroad offices in the Worcester building. It was the day for the consolidation of the traffic departments of the Southern Pacific and O. R. & N., as previously announced, and the employes were kept busy shifting their belongings from one room to another and getting accustomed to the new order of things. The offices are somewhat small for the large force of clerks employed, but no more changes will be made until the erection of the Wells-Pargo building, in which the railroad men will have new and commodious quarters.

Would Pension Lettercarriers.

I. Z. Wallace, of Fort Worth, Tex., a member of the National Lettercarriers' member of the National Lettercarriers' Association, is agitating a project proposing to get a bill through Congress pensioning retired lettercarriers. The proposition, which is known as the Wallace plan, will come up for consideration at the convention to be held by the organization in Portland beginning next Pridagation. mation in Portland, beginning next Friday. Mr. Wallace sends The Oregonian a communication, urging all delegates to the convention to investigate the plan.

SUMMER COLDS.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY CALLED FOR THIS AFTERNOON

Adjourned to Meet Next Tuesday, but for Some Unexplained Reason Change Is Made.

The Federal grand jury adjourned yesterday until Tuesday morning, but late last night, for some unexplained reason, United States District Attorney Hency resolved to reconvene the body at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and at that hour they will reassemble, presumably to consider certain important contingencies that have

Next Tuesday, the third trial of Congressman Williamson and his partner, Dr. Van Gesner, together with ex-United States Commissioner Marion R. Biggs, will be commenced in the Federal Court before Judge Hunt, of Montana. There will probably be no change in the form of indictment under which the proceedings will be had, as the Government does not desire to risk delays incident to dila-tory tactics under new indictments, unless absolutely necessary, although fur-ther indictments may be found against the trio by the present inquisitorial body.

Reception to Oskar Huber.

President H. W. Goode gave Admiral Oskar Huber, director of works and the naval board of strategy, a six-course luncheon at the New York building yes-terday afternoon. Admiral Oskar Huber presided as master of ceremonies. There were about 20 suests present. President were about 20 guests present. President Goode himself was unable to attend, but he was represented by Theodore Hardee, assistant to the president.

Many speeches were delivered by the officers of the Tenth United States Infantry, stationed on the Government Pen-insula; the Centennial and Oregon Na-tional Guards, and by the other members of the naval strategy board.

Of course the speeches and the general conversation centered almost entirely upon the great sham naval battle to be held at the Exposition Monday night. The plans for the coming battle were talked over in detail, and it was universally over in detail, and it was universally agreed that the naval engagement would exceed all others that have been repro-duced at the Exposition. All of the members of the board of strategy were very enthusiastic over the arrangements that have been made, and are awalting off Coffee 10 days and use Monday night in much anticipati
