WORKING GIRLS FIND GOOD HOME-

The home for working girls of Portland established by the Volunteers of America, 333 East Ankeny street, in charge of Captain Arena and wife, is proving a success and a boon to girls working for low wages. They are afforded the comforts of a home and are charged only $2.00 per week, which covers the cost and something over. The only difficulty experienced is that the building occupied is not large enough to accommodate all the girls who are seeking just such a place to live, and many are turned away. Only about 15 are accommodated. In the future a building planned expressly for this work is contemplated. In connection with the home Captain Arena has a free employment agency, and through it he has secured jobs for several girls. Several instances have occurred where young girls have been taken and helped to a place to start, who otherwise would have been turned out in the street.

IMPROVING CAR SERVICE-Four years ago the Oregon Power & Light Railway Company accepted the Mount Scott Railway as a gift, on condition that the company would make it an electric line. At first, cars were run every hour, then every 45 minutes, which covered the route. Now cars are now operated every 15 minutes. Recently the cars morning and evening have been crowded that the public department of the performance. The offering is better than that which began the season a week ago, its principal merit being in the vaudeville numbers which make up a considerable portion of the performance. This week's skit is "A Wise Guy," reasonably witty and reasonably musical. There are a dozen principals in the cast and a chorus which danced and sang to the extent of winning favor with the audience.

FARMERS' SONS HAVE "BLIND PIG."-Russellville seem to think that a "blind pig" has been established somewhere in the brush in that neighborhood, and farmers' sons are being sought with a view to the capture of the animal. It is said to be located near the Section Line road in the brush, but so well concealed is it that the state farmers have not been able to find it. One man, a farmer, reports by this time. One man, a farmer, reports that his son came home intoxicated more than once last week.

WAGON SNEEDS FOR MILWAUKEE-Milwaukee Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, has started a movement to make Milwaukee a farmers' center. It proposes to build a public place and $100,000, for use of farmers of Clatsop County who go to Portland, usually by wagon. With such quarters for their horses and vehicles they can leave their teams in Milwaukee and come to Portland by the electric car, the same as is done at Monteville. Subscription papers are being circulated to raise money with which to build the farmers' quarters.

CAR BLOCKADES TRAFFIC-Car 109, on the Sixteenth-street line, blockaded the service for a few minutes yesterday afternoon as the crowds were returning from the ball game. The fuse blew out a couple of times, but the break was repaired, when the armature burned out, scattering fire in every direction. A small panic reigned among the passengers for a moment, until the cause was ascertained. The "dead" car blockaded the track at Sixteenth and Washington streets for a short time, until it was pulled out of the way.

WILL DEDICATE NEW CHURCH-The new Methodist Episcopal Church in University Park will be dedicated next Sunday morning by Bishop W. F. McDowell, who comes to preside at the annual conference. He will preach in the morning and dedicate the building. Rev. J. Coleman, president of Willamette university, will preach in the evening. The new church, with the furniture, represents an expenditure of about $500. Rev. D. A. Waters is the pastor.

CHURCH HAS NEW Pews-New and handsome pews have been received from the East, and are now being placed in the auditorium of the Central Baptist Church, East Third and Ankeny streets. The new pews will also be laid this week, and the new church will be dedicated next Sunday. No services were held yesterday because of the improvements being made.

WANTED AS WITNESS TO SHOOTING OF VAN DRAN.
Portland detectives are in a quandary to know what has become of F. R. Chase, night bartender for Kaspar Van Dran, and the most important witness for the prosecution in the case of Van Dran against Joe Young, which will be tried in the Superior Court Tuesday. Young will be tried on a charge of shooting Van Dran. Not a trace so far has been found of where Chase has gone.

CHILD SUFFERS FROM FATAL ACCIDENT-The skull of Nina Hayward, a 10-year-old girl, was fractured Saturday afternoon when she fell from the bank near the O. R. C. ferry. She was playing with a companion when the accident occurred. She was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital, where the bones in her skull were raised. Although she was resting quietly yesterday, it is thought that she cannot recover.

FRANK THREATS AND HAS MAN ARRESTED-Fearing that her life was in danger, Mrs. Miller, of 694 Grand avenue, caused the arrest of George Hallowsen yesterday afternoon. Hallowsen had two revolvers in his possession, and it is alleged by Mrs. Miller that he repeatedly threatened to blow her brains out with them. Hallowsen was arrested by John Lee.

TRAMPLED TO DEATH BY TRAM-John Carlson, a trapper for Contractor Charles Cook, was fatally injured in an accident on Calhoun street Saturday morning, by being thrown from his seat on a wagon. He was trampled by the horses and dragged on the street for several yards. He died several hours after being taken to Good Samaritan Hospital.

CHILD RUN OVER BY BROGGY-A 5-year-old child of G. A. Lindell, of 32 Sacramento street, was run over by a horse and buggy yesterday afternoon near the child's home. It sustained many bruises, none of which are serious. Ray Barker and Dora Keener occupied the buggy.

RIBBONVILLE SCHOOL OPENS SEPTEMBER 11-The Russellville School, on the Hase Line road, will open Monday, September 11, with the following teachers: Principal, Professor Deville, of Brownsville, Or.; assistants, Miss Stewart, Miss Powell and Miss Perkins.

LAWNS AND FLOWERS BURNED UP-The summer is closing at Mount Tabor, this year, with the beautiful lawns at most of the homes in that suburb scorched and brown with the heat of the sun, from lack of water.

PORTLAND ACADEMY-On and after September 4, the principals will be at the academy from 5 to 12 A. M. and from 2 to 4 P. M., for the enrollment of students, old and new. Fall term will open September 11.

The second week of burlesque at the Baker commenced yesterday. The Brigadiers' being the attraction. The offering is better than that which began the season a week ago, its principal merit being in the vaudeville numbers which make up a considerable portion of the performance.

By A. A. G.
It is safe to venture that "Escaped From the Harem," which opened for a week at the Empire yesterday is about the swiftest melodrama that ever scudded by. The action of the piece is so rapid that the thrilling machine is slow as a Dutch windmill by comparison.

By A. A. G.
The last rites over the body of General H. B. Compton were held in the chapel of Finley's undertaking parlors yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The room was completely filled with the friends who came to pay their parting tribute to the old soldier, who had lived a life characterized by many noble and brave deeds.

By A. A. G.
The company knows the melodrama business by heart and is capable away beyond the average. Laurette Taylor and Alleen May share the twin leading roles. They are attractive young actresses, and in some of their scenes display splendid emotional power.

By A. A. G.
Those who are of the liben cult will not care particularly for "Escaped From the Harem," but those who want action for their money and want it quick will fairly revel in the Empire show. There will be a special Labor Day matinee this afternoon, with the usual performances during the rest of the week.

The State Spiritualists' Association was formed at the meeting of the members of that denomination from various parts of the state, four of the six societies in Oregon being represented. The organization elected the following officers: President, Benjamin F. Atherton; Vice-president, Mrs. Sophie B. Seip; Secretary, Henry W. Behnke; Treasurer, Mrs. Deane; delegate to the National Association, Rev. J. E. Love. Dr. Love is the retiring president of the order, having served two terms in that capacity.

By A. A. G.
The afternoon session was taken up with short lectures by Ira Taylor, Roscoe Coover, Mrs. Jessie Coover, and Dr. N. F. Ravlin, after which several demonstrations by mediums in attendance were given. The members of this organization emphatically state that they will not countenance anything resembling fraudulent experiments in the work at their spiritualistic meetings.

By A. A. G.
The evening was taken up with Dr. N. F. Ravlin's distinction in his "Approach of a Great Spiritual Awakening Such as Has Never Been Known on This Planet." Dr. Ravlin's sermon lasted about an hour, during which he exhorted his hearers to "awaken" to the fact that a "carnival" is shortly to befall mankind, during which those who are rich and hold exalted positions shall be lowered, and those who are meek and lowly shall be elevated, and great or small shall be placed on an equal plane.

On September 11, the Great Northern Railway will sell tickets to Chicago and return, $17.50; St. Louis and return, $17.50; St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth and return, $16.00; and going passage for 15 days; final return limit, 30 days; good going via Great Northern Railway, however, has dropped back to routine business and outside of the worst theories, nothing new has been advanced.
