

CIVIL CONFLICT
TEARS CAUCASUSTartars and Armenians Fight
One Another, Soldiers Fight Both.

CITY OF BAKU IS BURNING

Rioters Put Torch to Huge Oil Tanks and Burn Factory Quarter.
Anarchy Reigns Throughout the Province.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 5.—(Special.)—The revolt in the Caucasus is growing and the troops seem powerless to hold in check the fighting Armenians and Tartars. The dispatches from Tiflis during the night state that the whole eastern part of the Caucasus is being terrorized by Tartar refugees from Baku, Elizabetopol and Shusha districts.

The official account of the casualties during the outbreak is 200, but private advices place the number much higher and it is said that at least 5000 have lost their lives in the revolt since its inception several weeks ago.

News from Baku is more alarming every hour. The factory quarter is aflame and innumerable other incendiaries keep the troops on the constant move to put out fires. The troops are acting with the utmost vigor, but seem unsuccessful in restoring order.

Armed rioters attacked the oil wells in Palakhan, a suburb of Baku, yesterday and forced the soldiers to retire after several hours of hot fighting. The torch was then applied to the huge oil tanks and they have been burning throughout the night.

Tartar bands are scouring the country, murdering and robbing farmers. Many cottages and farmhouses have been abandoned. Famine is adding its horror to the situation throughout the Caucasus.

TARTARS TERRORIZE COUNTRY
They Drive Armenians Into Tiflis
and Burn City of Shusha.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 5.—A dispatch from Tiflis, received today, says:

"The whole of the Southeast Caucasus is now terrorized by Tartars. Refugees are pouring in here from Baku, Elizabetopol and Shusha."

"Details from Shusha show that several engagements were fought between Tartars and Armenians behind regular positions, and that a considerable part of the town was soon in flames. According to an official estimate, more than 300 houses were destroyed."

STILL FIGHTING AT BAKU.

Troops Act Vigorously Against Rioters, but Firing Continues.

BAKU, Sept. 5.—Troops under the direction of the Governor are acting with the utmost vigor, but they have not succeeded in restoring order, although there is rather less firing.

Appeal for Peace at Baku.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 5.—The Minister of Finance has received a telegram from the governing member of the Duma at Nizhni Novgorod, urgently appealing to him to adopt measures for the re-establishment of order at Baku.

Nobles and Peasants Fight.

KUTAIK, Caucasus, Sept. 5.—A conflict between nobles and peasants took place today in the village of Grandie. Eleven persons were killed or wounded.

WILL NOT BOYCOTT ASSEMBLY

Zemstvos and Doumas Will Join in Elections.—Warning to Jews.

MOSCOW, Sept. 5.—The executive committee of the Zemstvo and Douma Congress adopted a resolution today not to boycott the National Assembly, but, on the contrary, to take as active a part as possible in the election. The resolution favors common action between Zemstvo and urban authorities in preparation for the elections, which indicates a probable alignment of the two elements in the national college.

Prince Troubetzkoy, Marshal of the Moscow nobility, in an interview, speaks highly of the National Assembly project, saying it is an important step in the historical evolution of Russia and a carefully prepared compromise among the demands of the different parties. The plan, he adds, is open to improvement, but the pledge in the imperial manifesto shows the need thereof.

Discussing the Jewish question, Prince Troubetzkoy says it must be approached with the greatest care. The removal of the restrictions of residence would be dangerous, in view of the backwardness of the Russian peasantry, as the residence of Hebrews among them would menace state interests. He concludes by rebuking the revolutionary activity of the Jews, declaring that it is the duty of every citizen to work for the pacification of Russia.

WELCOME AMERICAN CAPITAL.

Charles R. Flint's Opinion of Russia's Internal Policy.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Charles R. Flint arrived today on the Kaiser Wilhelm II from St. Petersburg. On the day of his departure the Emperor granted him an audience at Peterhof. "I feel confident, now that peace is assured," said Mr. Flint, "that Russia is about to enter upon a period of great industrial activity and I am satisfied that her policy is to encourage Americans to take part in the development of her enormous natural resources, comparable with those of the United States. Russia will undoubtedly reduce the duties on American products, which will probably be the first step in that direction."

BOMB FOR RUSSIAN POLICE

Finnish Dynamiter Smashes Windows With Iron Missiles.

HELENGORF, Finland, Sept. 5.—A bomb exploded at 8 o'clock this morning outside the head police office. No one was hurt, and the persons concerned in the explosion escaped to the darkness. All the windows of the police office, and also those of the adjoining buildings, were smashed.

The bomb was filled with pieces of roughly cut iron an inch long. Chief Policeman Kulita was thrown violently to the floor by the explosion.

The bomb was thrown in front of the police station on Erik street. One person was wounded. The perpetrator of the outrage escaped.

PULLMAN CARS SMASHED

Burlington Freight Kills Four and Injures Twenty Persons.

DENVER, Sept. 5.—More than a score of persons injured in a wreck on the Burlington Railroad late last night at Brush, Colo., 83 miles east of Denver, were brought to this city today and were placed in St. Luke's Hospital. Four persons were killed in the accident and several of those injured may die.

The dead:
ALBERT WHITTAKER, Chillicothe, Mo.
E. L. VAUGHN, colored porter, Philadelphia.
JOHN LINDSAY, colored cook, Philadelphia.

The seriously injured are: A. C. McGrill, Philadelphia, chest crushed; George Manning, Chillicothe, Mo., chest crushed, left shoulder injured; H. P. Scruby, Chillicothe, Mo., scalded all over body; Mrs. A. C. Hentz, Marion, Ill., concussion of head; M. C. Welch, Greenburg, Ind., right arm and right leg broken; L. W. Wainwright, Chicago, spine injured; E. A. McBride, Chillicothe, Mo., index finger right hand cut off; O. V. Newman, Wheeling, Mo., scalded arm, cut on head and wrist; Robert M. Green, Philadelphia, fracture of ribs; Harry B. Cochran, Lancaster, Pa., concussion of back, concussion of head and left ear cut in two; Miss Louise Knapp, Miss Nellie Knapp, Mrs. Harry Dunlap, Ed Penstone, Mrs. Ed Bercher, E. Bercher, Decatur, Ill.

Fast freight No. 77, west bound, running at the rate of about 50 miles an hour, crashed into the rear Pullman car of a section of passenger train No. 13, the "St. Louis Flyer," which had stopped to take water. This car was telescoped and split through the middle. A tourist Pullman car, a chair car and five freight cars were also wrecked. The persons killed were in the rear Pullman, and many of the injured were in the tourist car.

Among the occupants of the rear Pullman were the officers of the Red Mountain Mining Company and capitalists from the East, who were bound for Western Colorado and Utah to inspect mining properties.

E. A. Mellin, engineer of the freight train, stuck to his post until the crash came, but was not seriously injured. The responsibility for the collision has not yet been fixed.

FIELD MARRIES WIDOW.

Aged Chicago Millionaire Takes Mrs.
Caton as Bride.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Marshall Field and Mrs. Arthur Caton, of Chicago, were united in marriage at noon today at St. Margaret's Church, Westminster.

The bride was Miss Hensley Henson, of St. Paul's Cathedral, assisted by the Rev. Samuel Kirshbaum, of St. Margaret's, performed the ceremony. The church was closed to the general public, and only a congregation composed of immediate relatives of the couple and Ambassador and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid and the staff of the American Embassy witnessed the ceremony.

The bride was supported by her son, Marshall Field Jr., arrived at the church promptly at noon, and was followed immediately by the bride. She was accompanied by Augustus Eddy and a large picture hat with ostrich feathers. With the exception of two immense bouquets of lilies on each side of the altar, the church was not decorated. After the simple ceremony of the Church of England, the bride and groom retired to the vestry, where the signing of the register was witnessed by Ambassador Reid, Secretary Carter, of the Embassy, Augustus Eddy and Marshall Field Jr., and where Mr. and Mrs. Field received the congratulations of their relatives and a few friends.

On leaving the church, the party went to Claridge's, where the wedding breakfast was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, Ridgely Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Field Jr., Mrs. Eddy, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus N. Eddy, Katherine Eddy, Spencer Eddy, Helen Birch, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Field, Mr. and Mrs. Dibble and Mr. and Mrs. Crossley.

Mr. and Mrs. Field will spend a short honeymoon in Europe, returning to America in a month's time.

BUTTERWORTH IS DEAD.

Editor of Youth's Companion, Poet and Author.

WARREN, R. I., Sept. 5.—Hesekiah Butterworth, author and historian, died here today of diabetes, aged 65 years.

Hesekiah Butterworth was born in Warren, Bristol County, R. I., December 22, 1838, his father being Gardner M. Butterworth, and his mother Susan Ritchie. He studied in the High School and took a special course under a professor at Brown University. Having a natural taste for journalism, he soon became editor of a local paper, then a contributor to the Independent, Congregationalist and Youth's Companion. He became assistant editor of the last-named paper in 1870, and has ever since been identified with it. He wrote 12 volumes of "Zigzag Books," which had a circulation of nearly 400,000 volumes. He wrote "Poems for Christmas, Eastern and New Year," and "Songs of History," which gained favor and won the George Wood gold medal for his "Story of the Hymns," written for the American Tract Society. A book of great interest was his "Log Schoolhouse on the Columbia," giving a view of the heroic period of early Oregon. He has contributed many stories, articles and poems to leading newspapers and magazines, librettos of operas, and other volumes besides those named. A bachelor, he has made many long journeys in the United States and other parts of the world, his home being in Boston. Under his direction the Youth's Companion has grown to an enormous circulation.

IT ENCIRCLES THE GLOBE

Y. M. C. A. International Committee Records Great Progress.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—One hundred members of the international committee of the Young Men's Christian Association of North America, and their 45 employed secretaries, 15 foreign secretaries at home, are here today to take part in a conference at Bronxville, a New York suburb. The number of secretaries in foreign branches is equal to that in American, and 150,000 was raised last year for foreign work, twice as much as three years ago. New buildings are rapidly being erected in the larger centers of the Far East, three being promised by John

These Goods You Need!

NEEDN'T be—not in this store. First thing done in selecting merchandise for our great chain of shops is to make sure of quality, correct and authoritative style and workmanship. We won't risk a reputation representing twenty-seven years of BUSINESS BUILDING by selling poor stuffs of questionable character. The low prices we make mainly from low prices made us on account of the magnitude of purchases only made possible by tremendous outlet. This store is the mighty Mississippi of Western retailing, along whose current is borne thousands of merchandise streams, representing the product of the world's best factories, to the vast ocean of buyers who comprise its clientele. Nothing stagnant here. An everlasting torrent of merchandise is always passing through, so fashions are always newest and from best sources. Yesterday's bargains haven't all passed the "locks"—there's more coming down stream today. Watch out!

Bunkers Said to Have Confessed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—State Senator Bunkers, under indictment for bribetaking, is said to have written District Attorney Arthur Seymour a written confession, accusing 12 members of the Senate of 1905 of bribetaking. The allegedconfession tells the amount given to each Senator by a great corporation, and specifies bills in aid of which the money was paid. Incidentally, it gives names and methods of the professional briber employed by corporations needing "protection" to corrupt Legislators.Details of the fight between the Southern Pacific and Western Pacific, of defeat of labor-union legislation, of the telephone company's lobbying and of other scandals are also given.Confession as to the Clarence Grange-Cochin bribery of last winter is complete. The arrest of Arthur Lee, a negro porter, grew out of that confession, for Lee's story was needed in way of corroboration.

Catch Suspected Dynamiter.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—A dispatch to the Herald from Barcelona says: A man named Emilio Carceas has been arrested here on suspicion of having thrown the bomb which caused such havoc on Sunday. He has made two contradictory statements, and was unable to explain his presence on the Rambla, where he was recognized by witnesses. He was wounded by the explosion, but his condition is not very grave, and he has been placed in solitary confinement. He is 25 years old, un-married and works in a business house.
Another witness, however, declared he saw two workmen place a large bundle near a tree just before the explosion occurred.Hood's Pills
