Bat Masterson Doubts Fight is on the Square.

CITES SIGNIFICANT FACTS

Sudden Flop of Corbett and Weedon and $10,000 Side-Bet Cause Suspicion-Nelson's Manager Objects to Jeff.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5 .- (Special.) -- According to Bat Masterson, the Nelson-Britt fight does not look right. Here is his argument on the subject:

"The sudden flopping of Young Corbett on the outcome of the Britt-Nelson battle, which is to take place before the Colma Athletic Club on September 9, has more significance than appears on the surface. Young Corbett now of the opinion that Britt will win and is willing to back up his opinion with his money, Corbett is no fool and sometimes gets in possession of the very best stable information. Now comes his present manager, George Weedon, who also declares that Britt will surely best Nelson. Weedon is an astute chap, who can tell when a chicken is fat as well as the next ing Dane. What pugilist will engage to battle forty-five rounds when he can get as much for fighting twenty? It cannot be that Britt questions Nel-had trouble in making the weight. After son's ability to go a journey. The bat-tier certainly gave no evidence that he could not go as far as Britt when they last met in the ring. "Then, again, how about this $10,000 side bet and winner-take-all clause that is being made so much of in Frisco? Is that Britt or could it possibly be Britt, if everything is right and on the level?

"Why, then, should a person be blamed for having a deep-seated suspicion that everything about this match looks queer and has a fishy odor? I do not for one moment wish it understood that Nelson is in on any crocked deal. The match looks all right, so far as he is concerned, which is just the reverse of Britt's condition."

NOLAN OBJECTS TO JEFFRIES

Will Not Have Jeffries Referee Suspects Tampering With Nelson.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—When James J. Jeffries today telegraphed from Los Angeles that he would accept the offer of $1000 to referee the Britt-Nelson fight next Saturday, it was believed that the last obstacle to holding the match had been removed, but tonight a new trouble arone, or rather an old trouble broke out afresh. Billy Noian, the manager of Nelson, declared that he would not consent in any circumstances to Jeffries' umpiring the fight. Noian strongly opposed Jeffries before the toss of a coin decided the long controversy over the selection of referee and he has ap-parently seized the earlier refusal of Jeffries to act as an opportunity to force a change.

Noisn telephoned from Colma this evening that he would come to San Francisco to consult with Britt's brother and the club managers, and a conference was arranged for a late hour tonight. Britt and the club favor tonight. Britt and the club favor Jeffries and another drawback is a possibility. Nolan, it is said, has lately become excitable and distrustful, and among other things that caused gossip he has installed his wife as cook at Nelson's training quarters. Although little or no explanation has been given for the need of Mrs. Nolan at the camp, rumored that Nolan wishes to be fully assured that there is no likelihood of Nelson's food being tampered with

CUTS THE PRICE IN HALF

Jeffries Finally Comes to His Senses. Will Referee the Fight.

Some one must have whispered to Jim Jeffries that retired champions are not worth $2000 as referees and the intest dispatch from the ex-Los Angeles boiler-maker, is that he will hand down a de-since sen curse all of the big fellows into submission he has feathered himself a financial nest, but he is like the kidney of all those who have gone before him, a few pairry thousand follars have made gilbbering idiots out of them. Jeffries was gind to referee the Root-Hart fight for 1000 which by the way was the for $1900, which, by the way, was just $500 more than he earned. When Nel-son's manager began to stall around for a referee, the big ex-champion was se-lected and he was wired for terms. Jim-Coffroth, who is managing this big show is one of the freest fellows on earth with his money and when he gives a show, money does not stand in the way of its success. Jeffries remained silent. In his usual pedantic way he wanted the fighters share of the receipts and a of what the management would. The big rivet-smasher thought by remaining silent he would get what he was after, $2000, but when the press heran talking about George Siler, Jeffries when the up, and cut the price down to $1000.

to Schreck. SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 5.—After giving his first decision in favor of John Wille, of Chicago, over Mike Schreck, of Cincinnati, the referee, Williard Bean, afterward reversed himself and awarded the match to Schreck, declaring all bets off.

The contest was held in the saucer track in a rain storm. Up to the tenth round Wille had the advantage. Then Wille hit Schreck low and the latter claimed he was unable to continue. It had been agreed that neither was to take a decision on a foul. Accordingly the referee decided in Wille's favor. He was immediately surrounded by backers of Schreck and afterward pronounced Schreck the winner, but canceled the bets had trouble in making the weight. After the first round he did not show to much advantage, although landing many right and left blows on Hanlon's face and head. They were all lacking in force, and did not for a moment stop Hanion in his con-tinual forcing of the pace.

In the seventh and last round Fitzgerald struck very low, and Spider Kelly, Han-lon's second, promptly claimed a foul, which Referee Eyion promptly allowed, and declared Hanlon the winner. In the opinion of those who were seated close to the ringside, there was no doubt that Fitzgerald committed a foul. Fitzgerald strenuously denied that he intend-ed to foul Hanlon, and was very sorry

IN RACE FOR CHARTER OAK

Tragedy Prevents Completion Great Event at Hartford-Angiola and Zephyr Tied for First Place.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 5 .- The openng day of the grand circuit races at Charter Oak Park ended in a tragedy, when Sadie Mac, the Canadian queen dropped dead in the fourth heat of the $10,000 Charter Oak trot, the classic event of the meet. She fell about 200 yards from the finish when making a desperate effort to regain a lead which she gallantly held until rounding the last turn. Sadie Mac seemed to have lost her strength just at the period when her driver was irging her to do her best, but she was exhausted, and, dropping to the track. rolled over dead. A veterinary surgeon attributed death to a broken blood ves sel, and horsemen who had been watching her declared that she had acted strangely all the afternoon. At the tragic climax bundreds of men thronged on the track, and when Miss Katherine Wilkes, of Galt, Ont., the owner, who was in a private box, heard of the horse's death, she was deeply affected and left the city. She refused $30,000 for the mare at the Buffalo meet. The finishes in the Charter Oak event were heartbreaking, and the heavy con-dition of the track made it hard work for the horses. Darkness prevented the finish of the big event, after Anglola and Zephyr had each won two heats. The big crowd of 8000 was keyed up to a high pitch when the fourth heat was finished. Zephyr was in great form in the first two heats, which were won in whipping finishes, but tired under the strain, and Angiola finished in front in the third and fourth in dashing style. Results:

CRAZED SHEEPHERDER TRIES TO COMMIT SUICIDE.

Unable to Hold Himself Under Water, John Dorras Has Recourse to a Rope.

PENDLETON, Or., Sept. 5.—(Special.)

—Crazed from herding sheep and drinking to excess, John Dorras committed suicide this afternoon by hang-ing himself in a stable, a block from Main street. Dorras first attempted to drown himself in the Umatilla River, but the river being low he was unable to hold himself under the water. Some small boys discovered Dorras and frightened him away.

Dorras hid in a barn near the river until the young sleuths disappeared, and then procured a rope which he attached to a beam. After carefully adjusting the rope with the regulation hangman's knot, he mounted a water-ing track he was hy and launched him. ing trough near by and launched himself into eternity. Two little girls happened to enter the barn just as Dorras dropped and they immediately gave the alarm to the police. Dorras is believed to have gone suddenly insane, as he acted queerly upon first arriving in the city this morning from Hilgard. He was a native of England and was a sailor for several years before coming to Umatilla County.
