tion from the thousands of people who witnessed the remarkable exhibition of the Idaho spirit. The Idaho State Band, which played almost incessantly along the line of march, was also heartily cheered. The men of the rank and file were equipped with swagger canes, and many of them carried banners telling of the resources of the particular part of Idaho in which they reside. Nearly all of them had their pockets full of little printed cards, which exploited the resources of Idaho. These were scattered among the spectators to the parade by the thousands.

that has been made of our great resources at this Exposition. I want to thank those in charge of Idaho's exhibit, and the ladies that have had charge of the social part of the Idaho work here at the Fair, for the splendid service they have given their state. I assure you that there are only words of praise for you at home by all those that have visited the Fair.

Much opposition has been aroused among the retail-merchants of the city by the choice of Saturday, September 23, as Portland day at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, and it is probable that steps will be taken towards influencing the Fair management to change the date to some other week day. Saturday is, by far the best business day of the week, and it is the consensus of opinion among

They should not choose some other day. Saturday would not be generally observed and it would simply spoil the day.

John T. McDonnell said that McAllen & McDonnell shared the common opinion. "We would be willing to close any other day and have no special preference. We would not like to close Saturday, but I would not state positively that we would not do so."

IDAHO'S GREAT CELEBRATION.

With the opening of the gates began the celebration of Idaho. As soon as the turnstiles were ready to operate and the ticket sellers in their places at the windows, the Idaho people began to flock through the gates as they were anxious to start the ball-rolling, having only one day and half a night in which to celebrate the participation of their state in the great world-wide exposition. Men and boys paraded the grounds distributing pamphlets and cards, which described the wonderful and marvelous resources and advantages of the great commonwealth of Idaho. The future was painted in printed words of a golden hue, and the past was exploited to substantiate the predictions.

IN A WOMAN'S HEAD STRANGE SENSATIONS CAUSED BY SHATTERED NERVES.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Afford Relief From Distressing Experiences Caused By Overwork.

"Before I began to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills," said Mrs. Mary Reagan, of No. 88 Kilburn street, Fall River, Mass., "recently, I was in and out of bed all the time, but now I stay up all day and do all my own work."

"I was badly run down from overwork. One day noises began in my head and almost made me crazy. My head felt as if a tight band had been put around it, and the pressure and the sounds made me so uneasy that I often had to walk the floor all night when I should have been sleeping."

"My stomach was in bad shape, and I had smothering sensations. At such times my body seemed bloodless, my hands were like chalk and my face turned yellow. The doctor said I had dyspepsia in the worst form. Then my nerves gave way and I was completely prostrated. At night I could not sleep, and in the daytime if I bent over to pick up a rag the smothering sensation would come on at once."

"The first box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I used quieted my nerves so that I could get a good night's sleep, which was a new experience for me. Before I began to use them I was a nervous wreck and trembled at the slightest sound. I was so weak that I had to sit down and rest every few steps when I went up stairs. Now I can run up a whole flight at once. The smothering sensations have gone and the noises in my head have stopped entirely. My appearance has greatly improved, for friends who were alarmed on my account before, now say: 'How well you are looking!' My husband spent over a hundred dollars on treatment for me that was worthless, but a few boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills brought me sound health."

"The pills are guaranteed to be free from stimulating or harmful drugs of any description and may be taken without fear of injury to the most delicate system. They quickly cure nervous disorders of every kind, check wasting diseases and build up strength. They are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $3.50 by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y."

Henry for $50,000 damages, asking that the demurrer filed by Mr. Henry to the complaint be dismissed because the latter and W. J. There is a statute which provides that the evidence of defendants can be taken before a notary.
