

SHUT OUT AGAIN

Seals Fail to Secure a Run From Portland.

SCORE IS THREE TO ZERO

Giants Complete Thirty-Six Consecutive Innings, in Which Their Opponents Fail to Reach the Home Plate.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results. Portland, 1; San Francisco, 0. Tacoma, 2; Seattle, 1. Oakland, 2; Los Angeles, 2.

The habit of shutting out its opponents has taken such a strong hold upon Portland that it is satisfied with nothing short of a victory of the whitewash variety...

Wilson Somewhat at Fault.

Park Wilson was somewhat at blame for the runs scored against Roy Hitt, for the veteran backstop was anything but steady behind the bat.

Portland scored the first run in the second when, with one out, Householder walked and stole second.

The second score came in the third inning on a combination of miscues and wildness on the part of Hitt. Atz was fouled on the funny bone and ambled to first, but was mugged at midstation on Van's attempted bunt.

Householder's single, a sacrifice by McHale, Sweeney's out, and a hit by Cates scored the third and last run of the game.

Will Eschschke will endeavor to score an over victory for the home guard this afternoon, and "Silvers" Henley or Wheeler will slab for the Seals.

Summary of the Game.

The score follows: PORTLAND. AB R H PO A E. Wilson, cf., 3 0 0 2 4 0. Miller, 2b, 3 0 0 1 0 0.

ANGELS LOST ON ERRORS

Ten Innings Necessary to Decide the Game With Oakland.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—Errors by Brashear, an excusable error by Dillon and passed balls by Spies were responsible for Los Angeles' short end of the score in the game with Oakland today.

Oakland scored two runs and held the lead until the seventh. With two out and two men on base, for Los Angeles, Byrnes threw wild to second, permitting Tozier and Spies to cross the plate, thereby tying the score.
