AT THE THEATERS

What the Press Agents Saj.

"The Pit" Matinee and Night.

At last it has been definitely settled. Wilten Lackaye will present the great American dirama. 'The Pit.' at the Marquam Grand Theater this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and Ineater this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and tenught at 8:20. The Marquam was crowded scale last night from the orchestra railing
to the top of the gallery with a big audience, who enloyed every minute of Mr. Lackaye and his excellent company of players in one of the most finished performances Fortland has witnessed for many a day. Seats are selling for both performances.

"Honeymoon" Matinee Today.

The Belasco's Saturday matiness have be-come recognized society events and are patronized extensively by the most arieto-cratic families in the city. Youth, beauty, fashion and wealth meet there and make the access attending a Saturday afternoon per-formance an unusually striking one. If you termance an unusually striking one. If you can't attend the matines today, there will be one tomorrow and performances both to-night and tomorrow night. Then the run of "Harriet's Moneymoon" will close,

Brigadiers Tonight at the Baker.

So great has been the success of "The Brig-noiser Burlesque Company" at the Baker this week that instead of leaving on the regular train at 8:30 for San Francisco, a special train has been chartered, which will not leave till after the evening performance. This will enable the company to give a per-formance this evening and give opportunity to all those who have not been able to see the clever burlesquers so far this week to do se tonight. There will also be the usual matines today at 2:15.

At the Empire.

"Escaped From the Harem," being played the Empire this week by the Taylor Com-any, nightly demonstrates the fact that here are more admirers of melodrama when properly presented than in any other class of entertainment and that it arouses a better sentiment in the human heart than either tragedy, music or other elements of the drama. Souvent matines this afternoon. Last time tonight,

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Josephine Deffry Monday.

"A Broken Heart" will be the attraction at the Marquem Grand Theater near Monday night, when the Josephine Defiry Company comes for an engagement of two performances. Mass Defirs is supported by a strong company, her leading man being Tom B. Leftus, who made himself a favorite in Portland in past seasons. There will be but one performance of "A Broken Heart." Tuesday night the engagement will closs with another emotional drama, entitled "A Wicked Woman." In each of these plays Miss Defiry will have roles which have been favorities with some of the greatest actresses in America.

Advance Sale for "Mrs. Wiggs." The advance sale of seats for "Mrs. Wiggs The advance sale of seats for 'arn wiges of the Cabbage Patch' will open next Mon-day morning at 10 o'clock, This great drama will be presented at the Marquam Grand. Theater next Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. September 13, 14, 15 and 16, with special matinees Thursday and

"Judah" at the Belasco Next Week.

Commencing Monday night the Belasco Stock Company will present for the following week a magnificent production of Henry Arthur Jones' famous drama of present-day eschal life, "Judah." It will be produced with absolute fidelity to the London production, which was one of the finest ever made. All the members will be cast in roles especially adapted to them. Ellaborate stage effects and hundsome gowns.

Next Week at the Baker.

"Kentucky Belles," which will open the week at the Baker tomorrow afternoon, has a list of raudeville acts alone that make it worth the price of admission. As a starter there are the Melom Brothers, America's foremost acromats; the Century Comedy Four, Reid and Gilbert, Hendricks and Presectt, in a refined singing and dancing act, and Miss Lillie Crawford, a charming and dashing assistants. The howling farce, entitled "Murphys Mistake," forms the principal theme of "Kentucky Belles," and it is sutrounded by all the brilliancy and novel effects that modern stage facilities afford.

Next Week at Empire.

Starting temorrow afternoon for the first five nights of next week, the Taylor Com-pany at the Empire presents "Queen of the Highway," a play that is said to be Charles A. Taylor's masterpiece and one in which the company excels. The play contains pathos, comedy and aplendid vein of sentiment. Three thoroughbred horses and a large Dane hound are valuable auxiliaries in making the play a success.

HAVE YOU SEEN Holladay Park ADDITION?

It is the one up-to-date modern addition, the choicest and most select residence district Harriet's As Played by Many Mannering on the east side.

Less than three years ago Holladay Park Addition was a wilderness of stumps and cordwood; today It presents the attractive appearance which comes with modern Improvements and modern homes.

Its growth has been remarkable. Ninety first-class residences mostly of the colonial type have been built during the last two years, of which thirty have been built this year. It will thus be seen that there are no old houses in Holladay Park Addition. All street improvements are made in Holladay Park Addition In advance of building-sewers, water, gas, electric lights, concrete sidewalks and curbs besides a wide parking between the curb and the sidewalk.

The price of lots in Holladay Park Addition ranges from $550 to $1400 a lot. These prices include all existing street Improvements.

Direct and frequent car service from 5th and Morrison streets opposite the Post-Office, on 5th street going north to Burnside, thence over the Burnside street bridge to the center of Holladay Park Addl-

Irvington cars passing north on 3rd street go within three blocks of Holladay Park Addition. Parties wishing to see this beautiful addition are invited to call at our office. We will give you full information and take you out and show you the property.
