

But Most of Them in New York Only Talk and Mean Nothing by It.

TAMMANY MAY INDORSE IT

Tim Sullivan Returns From Glasgow With Visions of Eternal Tammany Control--Republican Defeat Is Assured.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8-(Special.)-Municipal ownership is certainly going to cut considerable figure in the coming city campaign. That is, it will figure in talk. revise Roosevelt's famous saying. "It will be words, not deeds, that will count." For to be a municipal owner, you naturally must have something municipal to own. And where are they going to get wine can control at the most eight votes.

"Take the gas plants and the traction lines," say the advocates of the new

If they do, however, they are liable to be arrested for burgiary, because the about the other. gas companies and the street-car companies are the proud possessors of extremely long and well-drawn leases. But, of course, this does not make the slightest bit of difference. The Republicans have agreed to make their fight on a municipal ownership platform, the please Hearst forces naturally are joyfully for it, and the Citizens' Union says it is all right.

Jerome's Delphic Utterance.

District Attorney Jerome, taunted as a traitor, says through his friends that "he firmly believes in municipal ownership. but does not favor municipal operation except as a last resort." Which, being exceedingly incomprehensible to the average layman, is consequently excessively satisfactory, and is believed to have strengthened him with the voters.

It would surprise no one if Tammany formally indorsed municipal ownership, too. It does not cost anything, and would not mean anything, and would be a sad blow to the opposition.

One Tammany man who is an ardent advocate of municipal ownership is Representative Timothy D. Sullivan, fresh from a tour of Etirope. And he is really in earnest about it, too.

Sullivan is one of the strongest men in the organization, and, it is admitted, could be leader if he wanted to. As it is he generally has his own way about things

Sullivan's Idea of Ownership.

This municipal ownership game is one of the finest things in the world," said Sullivan to me the other day. "I don't know exactly how it is expected to carry it out, but the possibilities are simply grand. I got wise to it over in Glasgow. where they have it going in full swing Municipal ownership controls all the car lines, and the conductors and motormen. have to vote just as they are told. If Tammany Hall could put through municipal ownership, the reformers could howl plantation, 29 miles below New Orleans, all they pleased, but we would not be beaten in 8,000,000 years. "I don't remember what they call their political parties over there, but the one in power has got the traction boys all right. Why, a conductor don't dark to knock down a fare unless his district leader gives the word, and they vote as they are told. If they don't, they lose their jobs, and are often convicted of stealing into the bargain." "I'd like to see municipal ownership put through; and mean to do all I can in the matter.

cept the name. In Brooklyn it is con trolled in every district except one -by the Republicans. It has, however, the ability to raise more money than any of the rest of us, which gives it its sole standing. I am not speaking against a complete fusion, but am telling what I know to be true!" Finherty and his organization represented in the Fusion conferences. They have applied for admission, but have been told in diplomatic language to run away and play. The parties who are "conferring" on the subject of fusion are the Republicans, Citizens' Union, Municipal Ownership League (as represented by Hearst), and the German-American League, the lastnamed representing, or rather claiming to represent, 10,000 independent voters in Brooklyn.

Rival German-American Leagues. The head of this last organization is Bels. Tokaji. This is his name; the pronunciation is another matter, and he is a Hungarian. He claims he has a perfect right to represent the "League," for he organized it himself. His enemies say that is true, and that the "League" consists of himself and "another," the other being Henry Hartzheim, who really is a German.

There is a German-American Municipal Lengue in Brooklyn also, with 10,000 members, but they are shut out from the joy of conference, because the league with the Hungarian leader won't let them in, whereupon they say that every German in the city will yote against Fusion. The outsiders claim that the gentleman whose name sounds like a brand of rare Mr. Beia Tokaji retorts that his enemies are limited to seven. Conservative Brooklynites, who never heard of either organization before the present campaign, are inclined to believe what each leader says

Republicans Have No Hope.

It looks very much as if the Republicans had no hope of success and are perfectly willing to allow the Fusionists to name any ticket and platform they

Mayor McClellan does not expect to move at the end of the year, and nobody believes that he will be compelled to 0 80.

But the Fusionists are as happy as lit. tle children who build sand forts on the beach. It might be mentioned in closing that the political tide seems to be coming in very strong, and the Fusion sand fort was built at low water.

Sullivan, by the way, will resign and go back to the State Senate. He does not like Washington.

"A Congressman is a dead one, unless he has been there a hundred years," he said. "I was a dead one. But just watch me lead the band at Albany."

The municipal ownership crowd, having induced the Republicans to adopt them, are now involved in a fight as to who are the real things.

Flaherty, Coroner and Musician.

Coroner Finherty, of Brooklyn, is the leader of the anti-Hearst Municipal Leaguers. Mr. Figherty is a musician by trade, and was elected on the fusion ticket four years ago. Brooklyn is very proud of him, because the citizens believe he is the only musician in the United States who is also a Coroner. As to his qualifications as an officeholder, it might be said that Mr. Flaherty is an excellent musician, and can play "Oh, Promise Me" on a trompone. Mr. Flaherty has been an ordent single-tax man, and is a radical Democrat. The radicals are a little band in New York State who believe in Bryan, and still talk of free silver.

Hearst League a Myth.

"The Hearst Municipal Ownership League is largely a myth." declares the Coroner in the tones he uses in announcing the versitet of one of his juries "There is practically no organization of existence in Manhattan, I understand Mr. Hearst's friends have a large number of signatures of persons expressing themselves as favorable to the principle of municipal ownership, but that is not an organization. In fact, the league is practically made up of some half dozen of Mr. Hearst's employes.

"In Brooklyn we have a Municipal Ownership League of over $000 members fully organized by Assembly districts and a representative county committee. There is nothing of that sort in Manhattan, though 1 have asked Mr. Hearst to organize one. Our organization has no connection with the Hearst movement, which has for a basis the influence of the Hearst newspapers.

"The way for the anti-Tammany forces to win this year is for the Bryan or radical Democrats throughout the city to get together. The friends of Bryan are naturally opposed to McCarren and Murphy. McClellan and Cram, who are controlled by the corporations, and at heart opposed to the idea of municipal owner-

He commented on their faithfulness to the Government, and how hard they worked. He said that never had a malicarrier misplaced any of the letters with which hehad intrusted him. Governor Chamberlain said the letter-carriers were underpaid, and that, considering the valuable services they rendered Uncle Sam, they should receive a much higher wage. Music was furnished for the exercises by the Denver and the St. Louis LetterCarriers' Bands, which were grouped on either side of the Auditorium platform.

Guests of Equal Suffragists.

From 3 o'clock to 4 o'clock in the afternoon the letter-carriers were received in the Oregon building by the Equal Suffrage Association. Tea, punch and fruit were served. Hundreds of roses were distributed among the letter-carriers by the women of the Rose Society. Tea was served by young Japanese girls in cos-tume. The Oregon counties which have exhibits in the Agricultural building contributed the fruit. Those who had in charge the reception given by the Equal Suffrage Association were: Mrs. Dr. Hen-ry Coc, president; Dr. Annice Jenreys Myers, vice-president; Miss Frances E. Gotshall, secretary, and Mrs. Abble C. French, treasurer. Miss Laura Clay, of Kentucky, and Miss Kent, of Nebraska, National constitution of the second National representatives of the organiza-tion, were also present. At one of the sessions of their association in Portland the letter-carriers adopted a resolution favoring woman suffrage. This primarily was the reason why the Equal Suffrage Association received the letter-carriers yesterday afternoon.

statement. The theory of a crime is concurred in by all the surgeons at the hospital, the entire staff agreeing in the statement that Mr. Thompson had been beaten. There is, however, no known motive for a mur-derous attack upon the editor. The police, who earlier in the day had held the crime theory, switched around tonight and agreed with the Obroner as against the opinion held by the doctors. The final police report on the case, record-ing the death of Thompson, attributes the statility to a fall from a stroke of apo-plexy. Thompson was found unconscious and
