COURT MAY SETTLE ST. JOHNS TROUBLE.
-Attorney McGarry, for C. D. Edwards,
J. H. Shields and others of that faction, and Attorneys W. T. Vaughn and O. Young, for Mayor King and Councilman P. J. Peterson, are trying to agree on a plan to submit the trouble to the Circuit Court on an agreed statement of facts. If this is agreed on, the Circuit Court will pass on the legality of Edwards' seat in the Council and also the status of Councilman Peterson, who is supposed to be suspended. Meantime, the Council will hold no more meetings until the question is settled one way or the other, it being found that no business can be transacted while this controversy is in progress. This adjudication does not extend to the charges submitted against Councilman Peterson and Mayor King. The former declares that he will make someone pay for defaming his character, and there is hardly a doubt but he will carry his case into court.

MAZAMA PICNIC TODAY .- This aftern at 4 o'clock all Mazamas and their friends will meet at Willamette Heights bridge, where they will take the trail through Macleay Park for Inspiration Knoll, On this commanding height, at 6 o'clock, sup-per will be spread, and after the glories of the sunset have died away a blaxing campfire will be started and the evening spent merrily with music and anecdote of the mountainside. By the light of the moon and gay Chinese lanterns, the long procession of Mazamas will then wend its way homeward. All who participated in the recent outing to Mount Rainler are cordially invited to attend and bring their ends, everyone coming provided with scheon for one, cup, spoon and lantern. The committee in charge are: A. S. Pat-tullo, chairman; Miss Eletnor Gile, Miss Elia E. McBride, Mrs. John Cran and L. L. Hawkins.

RECEPTION TO BISHOP McDowell.-Bishop W. F. McDowell, of Philadelphia, prominent in political reform work as well as in religious work in Pennsylvania, was given an informal reception in the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. last night, at which over 100 members and friends of the Men's Methodist Social Union were present. After an informal dinner the programme of the evening was prefaced by instrumental and vocal music, follow-ing which Bishop McDowell addressed a few words to the Union. Dr. James King, also of Philadelphia, delivered a short address.

ger Agent of Harriman Lines. Paul Shoup, who has arrived in Portland to take the position of assistant general passenger agent of the Harriman lines in Oregon, has done much public-spirited work in his former home in California. Mr. Shoup was active in the work of the Chamher of Commerce of San Jose, and also in that of the California Central Coast Countles Improvement Association. While in charge of the Coast route of the Southern Pacific he assisted materially in popularising the line with the traveling public. As a result of his work in that position he secured a well-deserved promotion.

Sheriff and Dr. Gesner Accused of Trying to Intimidate.

FEW ALLEGED STATEMENTS

C. Sam Smith, Sheriff of Crook County, Is Charged With Pernicious Activity in the Land-Fraud Cases.

The Federal grand jury returned an indictment yesterday afternoon against C. Sam Smith, Sheriff of Crook County, and Dr. Gesner, charging them with intimidating witnesses in the pending land-fraud cases. Section 5399, under which the indictment was returned, provides: "Every person who corruptly, or by threats or force, endeavors to influence, intimidate or impede any witness or offi-cer in any court of the United States, in the discharge of his duty, or corruptly or by threats or force obstructs or impedes. endeavors to obstruct or impede, the se administration of justice therein, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $600, or by imprisonment not more than three months, or both."

It is charged that on August 17 Smith and Gesner endeavored to influence Lark Elliott and John S. Watkins, of Prineville, Crook County, not to appear as witnesses in the Williamson-Gesner-Biggs case, and that the Sheriff offered to seure the acquittal of Elliott from an indictment previously returned by the Crook County grand jury, charging him with the larceny of a horse and a calf. Sheriff Gets Profane.

"If you don't go down there (to Port-land) and do the right thing, they'll cinch you surer than hell up here," Sheriff Smith is said to have told Elitott at Princeville. "You know damned well that I can handle this jury here, and I am the only man who can. I don't want you to think that I am trying to buy you up for Van Gesner."
Statements alleged to have been made by Gesner to Elliott are also set up in the indictment returned yesterday, it be-ing asserted that upon one occasion he aid: "You do the right thing and I'll see that you get out of your trouble." The defendants are accused of having threatened Watson by declaring that they would not only destroy his reputation for veracity and injure him in business, but would, in addition, "get even with him" in case he testified against Williamson, Gesner or Biggs at the land-fraud trials. Conversations alleged to have taken place between Smith and Lark Elliott at the Perkins Hotel in the presence of Doug-las Lawson and John S. Watkins likewise play a prominent part in the indictment, it being set forth that the Crook County Sheriff was loud in his densinciation of those who had testified against Williamson at the former trials, claiming to be able to purchase any of them for six bits.

Sheriff's Pernicious Activity.

It is claimed that Sheriff Smith has been exceedingly active in the defense of the three men in the pending land-fraud trials, and that in furtherance of the alleared conspiracy he came to Portland about August 24 and remained here until September 7. employing his time principally in the attempt to intimidate and coerce Government witnesses.

Special Policeman Dismissed. At a meeting of the Executive Board yesterday the following special police-men were dismissed: J. M. Roberts, H. Smith, C. C. Childers, E. W. Gassett, H. E. Parker, C. J. Andrews, and the 5621; Bechill Bros., $455.50 following specials were appointed for the beats indicated: Paul J. Merrick, Savier, Fourteenth, Twenty-seventh and the river: Michael Quinn. Marshall, Pacific terminal yards; J. K. Object to the Cost.

John Good and many other property-owners affected by the proposed improve-ment of East Salmon street, from the east line of East Thirty-Efth to the east boundary of the city, have remonstrated against it on the ground that it is a suburban street and the contemplated im-provement is more expensive than necessary at the present time.
