GIVES HOPE TO THE JEWS

Final Interview With American Jewish Committee Shows He Will Favor Equal Rights-His Praise for Papers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.-The Russian Commissioners, who successfully con-cluded a treaty of peace with the envoys of Japan at Portsmouth, N. H., started the return to St. Petersburg today. The party, headed by Count Witte, sailed on the steamer Kalser Wilhelm II at 2 s'clock this afternoon.

Before leaving the city Count Witte and Baron Rosen made a farewell call upon the Japanese diplomats, who expect to leave for home later in the week.

Baron Komura was unable to see the Russians because of his illness, but through Minister Takahira he sent them a cordial message of farewell. Mr. Takahira and other members of the Japanese party entertained the Russians for half

In addition to Mr. Witte, the party sailing on the Kalser Wilhelm II included Gregory Wilekin, financial agent of the Russian Government to the United States. Before leaving the hotel, Mr. Witte shook hands with some of the hotel attaches, with whom he had been brought into Parting Tribute to Newspapers.

A big crowd had gathered at the dock of the Kaiser Wilhelm, in order to see Mr. Witte, and there was much cheering and handclapping as he went up the gangplank, to which he bowed acknowledgments. He received the newspaper men cordially in his rooms on board the steamer and, through Baron Rosen, made a statement to those whom he had met, thanking them and saying that never in his life before had it been so forcibly impressed upon him that the "pen is mightier than the sword."

He then shook hands with all of them and said good-by

Shortly before the ship sailed, Major Lynch, of the United Societies of New York, and 40 members of the Irish Club of New York were received by Mr. Witte. Each member of the Irish Club presented Russian American and Irish flags. Major Lynch said to Mr. Witte:

"We take this opportunity of thanking a country which has been a friend of our adopted country in time of need."
When the bugle sounded for all visitors to go ashore, Mr. Witte and Baron Rosen embraced and kissed each other goodbye. As the ship drew out into the stream the Irish delegation and others on the dock cheered lustily and Mr. Witte lifted his Jews Look for Emancipation.

Before Mr. Witte left his hotel for the steamer today, he had a conference with Isaac N. Seligman and Oscar Strause of this city and Adolph Kraus of Chicago.

Mr. Seligman said after the conference:

"Mr. Witte allowed us to foresee the emancipation of the Jews in Russia and their participation in the government of the empire in the same degree and proportion that other Russian subjects are allowed to participate.

"Mr. Witte made no piedges; he spoke for himself as an individual, but it is well known that while not in power now, he will be soon. The Jews in Russia will again enjoy civil rights. Discrimination prejudicial to the Jews, the injustice of which Mr. Witte admits freely, will be ended and they will be placed on an equal footing with the rest of the Emperor's subjects'

Mr. Seligman was asked if the subject of a loan to Russia, to be made by a syndicate of Jewish financiers, had been broached, but he replied in the negative.

Witte Favors Equal Rights.

"The matter of a loan," he said, "was not even suggested. Mr. Witte at the time of our first conference with him at Portsmouth had expressed a desire to confer with us further on the question of the persecution of Jews in Russia, and the visit Messra. Straus, Kraus and I paid him this morning was in compliance with the expressed wish of Mr. Witte. We continued the discussion of economical conditions in Russia where we had left off, citing inequalities in the law and re-strictions particularly affecting the Jews and suggested their abolition or repeal. I may say that we left Mr. Witte impressed with the belief that the reforms urged by us will be in effect and that at no very distant date the Jews of Russia will enjoy equal rights with all other

TOK10, Sept. 12 (10:20 A. M.)—The resignation of Tsunayubi Adachi, chief of the metropolisan police, is hafted with delight here as showing the conciliatory attitude of the government. The Jiji and other local papers advocate the abolition of the metropolitan police and the transfer of its authority to the municipality. The use of such an inde-pendent institution has, it is believed, died out long ago, under the constitutional form of government which now exists. This peculiar institution was originated at a time when rebellion against the early Melil government was apprehended.

A sweeping reform of the police system is now deemed necessary by citizens of the more thoughtful class.

Dangers and Pain of This Critical Period Avoided by the Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many wo men realize that the most critical period in a woman's existence is the change of life, and that the anxiety felt by women as this time draws near is not without
