FILE LIBEL CHARGE

St. Johns Town Troubles Up to District Attorney.

SEEKING AN INDICTMENT

Mayor King and Councilman Peter son Give Evidence-Want Councilman J. H. Black Indicted on Libel.

The quarrel between residents of St. Johns, Mayor King and members of the Council of that place regarding the granting of a license for a saloon has reached the District Attorney's office, and Mr. Manning is now investigating a charge of criminal libel preferred by Mayor King and Councilman Peterson against Joseph H. Black. Mr. Black is alleged to have stated that Mayor King said if he could get Councilman J. H. Shields to resign his seat the license for a saloon would be granted. Black is further alleged to have made the statement that Mayor King said in the presence of others. ers that a certain amount of money would be given if Shields could be gotten out of office, and this statement was said have been made in the presence of City Recorder Hanks, and further that Coun-cilman Peterson had arranged to be a silent partner with Tom Cochran in a saloon if the license was secured. Black is also alleged to have stated that Mr. Laggett asserted that these charges were true. Mayor King and Councilman Peterson pronounce all these charges as false, and want District Attorney Man-ning to indict those guilty of circulating such stories.

LAND TITLE MUCH CONFUSED

Daisy B. Knapp Seeks Clearing of Property Conflict.

To quiet title to two acres of land in City View Park Addition, Daisy B. Kuapp has sucd the Savings & Loan Society, of San Francisco, in the State Circuit Court. In her complaint, the plaintiff recites that on November 29, 1898, the land was deeded to her, Richard B. and Minnie Knapp, in consideration of $500, and by inadvertence the headless increases a present the secondary lines were incorrectly desundary lines were incorrectly des-This, she says, was corrected by second deed executed October 30, 1900 Mrs. Knapp further alleged that the Savings & Loan Society, in 1896, fore-closed a merigage against Richard B. Knapp for $186,488, and the property men-tioned in the mortgage was sold for only $174,887, leaving a deficiency judgment. Taking advantage of the wrong descrip-tion in her deed for the two acres of land, she avers the Savings & Loan Soclety caused an execution to be levied against it on the deficiency judgment held against Richard B. Knapp, and bid in the two acres for $6 at Sheriff's sale. She subsequently redcemed the property. but says the company still claims title to it, and she asks the court to cancel any such claim

Sam Green and Pete Whitehead, who are wanted in Cheyenne, Boger Mills County, Okla., for the murder of Sher-iff Bullard and Deputy Sheriff Cogburn, in June, 1962, have been arrested at Baker City, by Chief of Police Jackson, assisted by Officers Boyd and Merrill and Deputy Sheriff Snow. Sheriff Word and Deputy Sheriffs Downey and Grussi had been engaged in running down the fagitives for some time past, and information given to the Baker City officers finally led to the capture. A reward of $1000 is out for the apprehension of the men.

Wants Damages for Injuries.

Richard H. Keogan says four of his ribs were broken, his body badly bruised and his buck, spine and internal organs infured in an accident at the University ber & Shingle Mills, May 8, 196, and he has sued the company for $10,000 damages, in the State Circuit Court. Keogan alleges that he was employed as nightwatchman, and it was his duty to inspect the shing e mill, dry klin and platforms connected therewith, and while in the performance of his duties he alleges he started to cross over a plank connecting the platforms, when the plank slipped, and he was precipitated 30 feet to some rocks below.

Mary Williams Acquitted.
