of a sarge plant. POLICEMAN OBJECTS TO WHISTLES.-Policeman Galbraith is worried about the whistles used by many of the street-car employes, and in a report made to the Chief yesterday morning, declared em-phatically that the company ought to make the men quit using the shrill calls. "It is very annoying to an officer to have to run several blocks, thinking he is wanted, only to find at the end of this run that some street-car conductor is merely signalling his motorman to go ahead," complains Policeman Galbraith. "The whistles used are just like those in service in the Police Department, and the practice of the conductors should be immediately stopped by the company."

JOHNS STREET-IMPROVEMENTS .-Work on the improvement of Jersey street, through the business section of St. Johns, is being pushed forward. The grading is finished and the gravel is being put on. Boy ARRESTED FOR STEALING.-Charles lyle, 15 years old, of 301 East Washington street, was arrested at his home last night by Detectives Carpenter and Resing, charged with larceny. Ivie is accused of stealing and seiling bicycles to a second-hand dealer at 68 North Third street. The boy was arrested Thuraday on the same charge, but when taken before Chief Gritzmacher he told such a straight story that he was permitted to go. He was caught again yesterday in the act of seiling a wheel that was known not to belom to him. The boy is thought to be one of several who have been making a practice of stealing wheels and selling them for a few dollars. Ivie was arrested one year ago on a charge of stealing $11 from an East Side store. His father is in the pen-itentiary at Walla Walla.

DEPUTY SHERIFF ACCURED.-Charged with malicious destruction of property. Deputy Sheriff J. S. Downey was served with a warrant from the Dast Side Jus-tice Court Thursday afternoon. The Dep-uly Sheriff gave himself up to Justice Seton and was permitted to go on his own recognizance. Downey was charged by Louis Trummer, a saloonkeeper, with tearing down a petition in a cigar store at Fifth and Washington streets. The case is said to have been settled out of Declares That He Is President of Four Italian Societies in City of Portland.

"When Italian Consul Candiani makes the statement in this morning's Oregonian," said John Cordano jast night, "that I was not elected president of the four local Italian societies, he gives expression to a deliberate falsehood, which I can prove by the committee appointed by the four socie-ties. At an open meeting in Eagle Hall on the night of September 3, I was likewise elected by acclamation as presi-dent of the Italian colony.

"Relative to Dr. Candiani calling a meeting on September 10, he never en gaged either the Foresters' or Eagle Hail, the former being engaged by the Mazzini Society, and Eagle Hall by the Italian colony every Sunday until Sep-tember 20, for the purpose of making errangements for Italian day at the

ing Tonight.

Erickson's Cafe, the largest and most palatial resort on the Pacific Coast, has ust been the scene of many substantial improvements, and the event will be cele-brated by a grand opening tonight to which the public and the many friends of Mr. August Erickson, the genial pro-prietor and host, are cordially invited.

The Bohemian Ladies' Orchestra will ccupy the magnificent grand bandstand, and discourse delightful music? Refreshments of all kinds, including roast chicken and a sumptous repast of many varieties will be served.

There is a beautiful balcony surround-ing the music stand, with furnishings of the most elaborate kind for ladies and their escorts, and the entertainment pro-vided is of the highest class, such as may be enjoyed by all, entirely free from any objectionable feature. Erickson's Cafe is, without doubt, a dream of brilliancy, and must be seen to be appreciated. Decorated art glass is everywhere present, myriads of electric lights dot the celling, the pictures are the finest the artist can produce, and the attendants are polite and competent. Here is the largest hall, the largest orchestron ever made, mirrors that dazzle the beholder, the floors of tiling and the decorations are gorgeous. Not to have visited Erickson's Cafe is to have missed one of the sights of Portland. Entrances are numerous, 26 North Third, 21, 23 and 25 North Second, and 245, 245 and Finest wines and liquors and all brands
