

of a successful decorative scheme is the carpet. Beautiful rooms have been spoiled by a poorly chosen carpet or rug. Unless the floor covering is right, nothing is right.

We are specialists in carpets. Our Fall stock is an immense and splendid exhibit of what is correct in design and coloring. If you have a room to furnish, let us help you. If you are particular so much the better, for our stock is selected and our workrooms managed to suit particular people.

YANKEES TO BE IN FORCE

NEW ENGLAND DAY AND MAINE DAY TOMORROW.

Pleasant Exercises Will Draw Great Throngs to Massachusetts and New York Buildings.

Yankees of the good old Yankee stock of the Far East will dominate at the Lewis and Clark Exposition tomorrow, as the day has been set aside as New England day. It is also Maine State day, and Yankees are expected to make things hum at the Fair. There are many tourists from the New England States in Portland, and thousands of Oregonians at one time bailed from those states.

Yankees are an informal luncheon, and a reception will be held at the Massachusetts building from 1 o'clock until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The exercises will consist of music by the Administration Band and addresses by Theodore B. Wilcox, representing the Governor of Massachusetts; President H. W. Good; Rev. E. L. House; Judge H. H. Northrup, president of the New England Society; Rev. A. E. Dunning, of Boston; Rev. P. S. Maxon, of Springfield, Mass; and Rev. S. B. Capen, of Boston. The last three speakers are members of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. Commissioner Wilson H. Fairbank will preside. The invocation will be pronounced by Rev. H. W. Boyde, of Forest Grove.

The Maine day exercises will be held in the pavilion annex of the New York building following the reception in the Massachusetts building. Music will be furnished by the Administration Band, and the DeMoss Orchestra, besides other instrumental and vocal music. It is expected that Governor Chamberlain, ex-Governor Moody, ex-Governor George, ex-Governor Lord, Mayor Lane, ex-Mayor George H. Williams, President Jefferson Myers and other prominent speakers, including members of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, will take part.
