

GATHER AN ALBANY

Methodist Conference Delegates on the Ground.

M'DOWELL IS TO PRESIDE

Examinations of a Number of Candidates for the Ministry Were Held at the Preliminary Meeting Yesterday.

ALBANY, Or., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—This morning at 9 o'clock the examinations which annually precede the sessions of Oregon's Methodist conference were begun. These examinations are being held today under the supervision of a special committee of churchmen, the Pierce Memorial Church furnishing ample room for the work. Those undergoing the examination are undergraduates in the ministry, men who, although actively engaged in the service, have not yet been promoted. When two of these annual examinations have been successfully passed, the applicant is entitled to be ordained a deacon in the church, and after four years of examinations he is hailed an elder.

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock a temperance meeting was held in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, which will be the meeting place for the conference during the entire week. While the business sessions of the fifty-third annual conference of Oregon Methodists do not commence until tomorrow morning, tonight's meeting was really considered the opening of the conference, as it is attended by a large number of delegates and is given a place on the regular program of the conference. Rev. D. J. Baskin, D. D., delivered an excellent address on the temperance question tonight. Rev. G. L. Tufts, of Portland, president of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon, presided at the meeting.

This is expected to be the most largely attended conference in the history of the church in Oregon. The conference regularly consists of 150 ministers and a large number of laymen, and this year will see the number greatly augmented. It is also noteworthy that many prominent churchmen from the East will be in attendance at the meeting, and many of them will be heard in addresses. Principal among them is Bishop William F. McDowell, of Chicago, who has been selected to preside at the sessions. Bishop McDowell is a popular man in his denomination, and was recently appointed to the Pacific Coast district.

It was announced today that the sessions would probably end near Sunday, instead of Monday. This action is made necessary by the death of Bishop Joyce, of Minnesota. Bishop McDowell has been ordered to take charge of the conference at Manito, Minn., in place of Bishop Joyce, and will be forced to close the Oregon conference early to keep both appointments.

The delegates in attendance at the conference are being cared for by Albany's citizens. Regardless of denominational affiliations, all have joined in extending a welcome. Last evening, at the fourth quarterly meeting of the year for the local church, after hearing reports from the various branches of the church work, the members of the local church unanimously adopted a resolution that the conference return Rev. J. W. McDougal to the Albany church for another year. Great appreciation of the work of the new pastor is expressed by members of the Albany organization.

MUST BE TRIED ALL OVER

Supreme Court Decides in the Sullivan Will Case.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—The noted Sullivan will case, involving the validity of a noncompetitive will, where John Sullivan bequeathed a $50,000 estate in Seattle to a domestic, was reversed by the Supreme Court today and sent back to the lower court for proceedings to be begun anew. Sullivan died in 1900, and the alleged noncompetitive will is admitted to probate in 1901. Subsequently two cousins of Sullivan, Hannah Callahan, now deceased, and Edward Corcoran, residing in Ireland, interposed a petition contesting the probate of the will, alleging fraud, and that Sullivan never uttered the devising words set out in the will. The lower court dismissed the petition and the relatives appealed.

In the meantime the case had been taken into the Federal Courts by the relatives, and the will declared invalid by Judge Hanford. The Supreme Court of the United States reversed this decision, holding that the Federal Courts did not have jurisdiction. The State Supreme Court decides that the lower court erred in dismissing the contest and that the will was not properly admitted to probate. The status of the case now is that the will has been filed in court, citations must be issued, proof must be offered and all proceedings other than the filing of the will must be recommenced.

MARRIED TO TWO MEN.

Young Montana Woman Tries to Lead a Double Life.

BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 19.—Two weeks ago the 25-year-old wife of George Melville, a miner, told her husband she was going out to attend the wedding of a friend. Yesterday it was discovered that she was the bride, and had married Harry Northey, a young man living less than half a mile from her home. Mrs. Melville had told Northey that Melville was her uncle, and she did not want him to know of her marriage "for awhile," as she feared he would cable the news to her mother, who, she said, is an invalid in London. After the wedding she went back to live with Melville for a week, then returned to her younger husband and remained with him until yesterday, when Melville succeeded in finding her. She denied him, declaring him to be her uncle, and nothing more. Northey believed her, notwithstanding the records of the court at Great Falls, which show that she married Melville in August, 1901.

Four years ago she was married to a man named Walbridge, who abused her and was killed by her father near Phillipsburg, Mont., for which crime the father, Carlisle Hunter, is serving a sentence in the state penitentiary. The young woman was arrested on a charge of bigamy.

LIFE ENDS WITH ITS WORK

Attorney-General's Answer Concerning Fair Commission.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—The Lewis and Clark Fair Commission will continue in existence as long as it has duties to perform. This was held by Attorney-General Crawford today in an opinion upon the question whether the State Commission will have authority to spend $25,000 in the erection of a memorial hall after the close of the fair. The opinion says that the purpose for which the memorial hall was authorized are permanent, notwithstanding it was provided incidentally that the hall might be used for a mineral exhibit during the fair. The time of constructing the building was a secondary matter and Mr. Crawford says that if the Lewis and Clark Fair Corporation now provides a site and $20,000 toward the cost of a building, as required by law, the Commission may expend its $25,000 for the same purpose, and will continue in legal existence until its work has been completed.

Owners of the Oriole Sue.

ASTORIA, Or., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—The case of J. F. D'Arcy, B. A. Labbe and H. B. Nicholas, of Portland, vs. the O. R. & N. Co., has been set for trial in the Circuit Court Tuesday, September 20. The suit is an action brought to recover damages in the sum of $145 for the loss of the yacht Oriole during the Astoria regatta in August, 1904. The Oriole was entered in one of the sloop races, and as she was starting in front of the city, she collided with the defendant's steamer T. J. Potter, which was going down the river on route to the Lewis and Clark fair. The complaint alleges that the accident was due to the fact that the Potter was being carelessly and negligently navigated. The case was tried at the February term of court and the jury disagreed.

HARD WORK SAVES LIFE

PULLMAN MAN TRIES TO KILL HIMSELF.

With Sponge Soaked in Chloroform Over His Face, Otis Tethero Discovered in Hotel.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—Otis Tethero attempted to commit suicide in the Palace Hotel here tonight and was apparently dead when discovered, but was brought back to consciousness by an excellent address on the temperance question tonight. Rev. G. L. Tufts, of Portland, president of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon, presided at the meeting. This is expected to be the most largely attended conference in the history of the church in Oregon. The conference regularly consists of 150 ministers and a large number of laymen, and this year will see the number greatly augmented. It is also noteworthy that many prominent churchmen from the East will be in attendance at the meeting, and many of them will be heard in addresses. Principal among them is Bishop William F. McDowell, of Chicago, who has been selected to preside at the sessions. Bishop McDowell is a popular man in his denomination, and was recently appointed to the Pacific Coast district.

LEVY FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES

What Must Be Provided in State of Washington.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—The levy for school purposes to be adopted by the State Board of Equalization should provide a total revenue of about $170,000, according to figures prepared by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The law requires that the state provide a levy for school purposes equivalent to $10 per school capita. The school census as certified by the State Superintendent is 205,000, and the amount to be raised is $2,050,000. Revenue from the state should provide for 12 months has been $300,000, leaving $1,750,000 to be raised by taxation. The law contains a proviso, however, that the levy shall not exceed 5 mills on the value of the property, and heretofore it has never been possible for the State Board to levy a sufficient tax to provide a per capita of $10. Owing to the necessity of increasing the valuation to provide revenue for general state purposes, it is likely that nearly if not quite the maximum amount for school purposes will be provided.

The members of the State Board spent another day in secret conference without officially fixing the levy or valuation.

Voters to Pass on Franchise.

OREGON CITY, Or., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—A special election has been ordered by the City Council to be held Saturday, September 20, on the question of granting the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company a valuable freight and passenger franchise. A majority of the members of the Council have agreed with the street railway corporation as to the terms of the proposed contract, which provides for the payment by the company of annual license fees and various other conditions. The State Fair Board has authorized the president exhibit cases at the Lewis and Clark Fair as they may deem best. The purpose is to take advantage of an opportunity to buy up cases and various other display devices at low cost and make them a part of the permanent equipment of the State Fair pavilion.

The State Fair Board also elected Con. Havermeier, of this city, custodian of the fair grounds at a salary of $500 a year.

Indians Must Get Hunters' Licenses.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—The Indians residing on a reservation must secure hunters' licenses if they hunt off the reservation, as asserted by Attorney-General Crawford, in an opinion rendered today. Mr. Crawford says that the law is general in its terms and since no exception has been made in the case of the Indian, the man whose forefathers inhabited this country for a time whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, must pay a license a year for the privilege of joining in the hunt.

Everett Shingle Mill Burns.

EVERETT, Wash., Sept. 19.—Carlson Bros' ten-block and double-block shingle mill was destroyed by fire this afternoon. The origin of the fire is unknown. Apparently the blaze started under the mill near the dynamo. A high wind was prevailing and the flames swept through the mill so quickly that employees were obliged to leap to booms to save their lives. The fire broke out at 11:50 a. m.; insurance, $11,500, covering the entire plant, worth $25,000.

OREGON CITY, Or., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—The remains of Frank E. Casto, who was assassinated in Texas last Friday as the result of a dispute over the ownership of cattle, will arrive here tomorrow, accompanied by the widow of the deceased. Details of the circumstances resulting in Casto's death are meager. The deceased was a son of Dr. J. S. Casto, of Carus, this county.

LOST HIS FOOTING

Salt Lake Fisherman Drowned in the Snake.

BODY IS NOT RECOVERED

S. Branning Plunges In Where the Stream Runs Very Swiftly and Is Lost in the Whirlpools.

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Sept. 19.—(Special.)—S. Branning, of 422 West First street, South, Salt Lake, was drowned in the Snake River Sunday. His body has so far not been recovered.

Branning, with three companions left town Sunday for a fishing trip below Twin Falls. The party separated, and when time came to return home, Branning was missing. A search of the river where he was seen last, located on a rock shelf above the swiftest part of the stream, revealed the fact that he had lost his footing and plunged into the treacherous current. His fishing rod was found lodged a short distance below. A search was made for the body without result. The search still continues, but owing to the fact that considerable time elapsed between the accident and the discovery, but little hope is entertained that the body will be recovered. The river below the dam is a succession of rapids and whirlpools, and the dead man was probably carried far down the stream.

EDITOR DID UP THE PACKAGES

Hines on the Witness-Stand in a Bribery Case.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 19.—Moses Hines took the witness-stand in the trial of ex-Segator E. J. Emmons this morning. Hines is the man to whom Grange is alleged to have paid the bribe money to entrap the quartet of legislators. Hines said he never saw Grange before the money was turned over. When the money was turned over, Hines said, he took it to Fremont Older, managing editor of the San Francisco Bulletin, who retired and returned several minutes later with the money done up in five packages. The witness was then cross-examined by Attorney Johnson, who began to inquire into political conditions in San Francisco, but was stopped by objections. Evidence as to the election of Emmons was then introduced. The trial has been continued until Thursday morning, owing to the death of a sister of one of the jurors.

ELECTRIC ROAD IN LEWIS

CENTRALIA AND CHEHALIS ARE TO BE JOINED.

Right of Way Has Been Secured and Work Is to Begin at Once.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Sept. 19.—An electric railroad between Centralia and Chehalis is to become a reality at last. A company has been organized in Centralia to build a line between the two towns, and the right of way has been secured. A meeting of the directors of the company, which was incorporated some time since, was held in Chehalis today. Work on the grade between Centralia and Chehalis will probably be started within the next 30 days.

The power-house of the company will be located half-way between the two towns, and a park, similar to the one between Aberdeen and Hoquiam, will be built. The new company will apply for a street railway franchise in both towns, and in addition to the inter-urban line will run a street-car line in both towns. The line will start from the extreme north end of Centralia and extend on through Chehalis, following the new grade of the county road between the two towns. Hourly train service will be established. The company will do a general electric business, and expects to furnish power for many new enterprises that will be established in Centralia and Chehalis in the future.

Right of way has already been secured and the company incorporated under the laws of Washington. The promoters say that the road will go through before next Summer.

HONORED LIKE A PRINCESS

Rides From Chemulpo on Imperial Car and Through City on Palanquin to Sound of "Star-Spangled Banner."

SEOUL, Sept. 19.—Through streets crowded with white-robed Coreans and lined by the imperial bodyguard, standing at "present arms," Miss Althea Roosevelt, riding in the imperial yellow palanquin, this evening triumphantly progressed from the railroad station to the American Legation. The roadways had been freshly paved and the shops draped with Corban and hastily hand-painted American flags. Miss Roosevelt, Rear-Admiral Train, Senator and Mrs. Newlands, the Misses Boardman and McMillen, Representatives Longworth and Gillette, arrived at Chemulpo this afternoon. American Minister Morgan and staff and a number of high Coreans greeted the party, which proceeded to Seoul by a special train. The imperial car, which is only furnished to royalty, was placed at Miss Roosevelt's disposal.

The Court Chamberlain met the party at a half-way station and the Emperor with inquiries as to Miss Roosevelt's health. On arrival at Seoul, the party was hailed by a Corean band which played the "Star-Spangled Banner." Corean policemen and Japanese gendarmes guarded the roadway and grotesquely clad retainers bore long lanterns. The passage of the party along the streets was everywhere heralded by the bugle of troops. Miss Roosevelt and Mrs. Newlands are guests of the American Minister, and the remainder of the party are stopping at the imperial palace.

The ladies' garments are complete, latest style, up to date and ready to wear. This is done at this, our Fall Opening Sale of men's to-order garments, as an advertisement of our great line of ladies' garments, and that we are and maintain a manufacturing plant for the making of Ladies' Suits, Coats and Skirts, and by reason of the same are enabled to make this great offer. You will actually get a lady's garment worth nearly as much as the men's garments you order. No deception or underhand work is permitted, and garments must be satisfactory, or it shall not cost you one cent. That is our same old motto, and it is still in force in our store. The practicing of that motto has been the means of building up our men's tailoring department, until it by far eclipses any tailoring store in this city for amount of business done, stock carried and satisfaction given. It has built up and expanded our ladies' garment department, until today it stands the peer of any in this city, and in some respects, such as its appointments and facilities for handling of ladies' trade, is far superior to any ladies' garment store in this city. The motto, "It shall not cost you one cent if you are not satisfied," has doubled the floor space of the ladies' department within the last six months, and at this opening sale we throw open to the ladies of Portland our new annex room, which is half as large as our entire store, and it is fitted up in first-class drawing-room style, suitable for the handling of the finest of ladies' garments. The systematic and thorough electric lighting of our store makes it by all odds the best-lighted store in this city. It is well worth your while to call during the evenings this week and see for yourself. At night it is as light as day—you can select your garments in the evening, just as well as daytime. SEE OUR WINDOWS There are eight large show windows. See the prices. All our goods are marked in plain figures—no guesswork. Ask your neighbors—they are customers of ours. They will tell you that what J. M. Acheson says he means, and that no misrepresentations are used in his advertisements. Thousands of our customers in this city will tell you to see and take advantage of this opening sale offer. It takes a thoroughly equipped establishment to handle such offers as this. We have such a place. This method of advertising is the most expensive known, but is also the best. The tremendous business we will do during these four days will barely, and maybe not pay expenses, yet hundreds and, yes, thousands, will learn and know that the J. M. Acheson Co. is able, capable and does what none have dared to even to attempt to do. RULES AND CONDITIONS The margins are so close on an offer of this kind—especially this season, when the style of ladies' garments are so extravagant—that we will adhere strictly to the following conditions: When a payment is made on a gentleman's suit and the goods must be selected before Oct. 1. During our previous semi-annual opening sales many advance payments in order to be in on the free offer. After goods are selected the same will be made up any time before November 1. Ladies' garments free with a gentleman's suit order—must be selected this week; no later—except out-of-town mail orders, in whose favor we will waive this rule until gentleman's suit is selected. Linings, trimmings, etc., used in men's to-order garments will be exhibited. EXTRA SIZE LADIES' SUITS AND SKIRTS We have a large line of these extra size garments. We made them especially for large ladies. They are designed and gotten up for large ladies, and will be right just what extra-size women want. These garments will be on sale this week at special prices. Our old customers will remember our previous sales, and if possible come as early in the day as possible to avoid the busy part of the day. In the evening, our brilliant lights will serve you well. MERCHANT THE J. M. ACHESON CO. TAILORS Manufacturers and Dealers in LADIES' GARMENTS Store Open This Week Until 8 P. M., Saturday, 10 P. M.
