

CAPITAL CALLS SENATOR FULTON

Leaves for Washington Friday, but Not to Settle Judge- ship, He Says.

MANY POLITICIANS GATHER

W. J. Furnish, Walter F. Matthews and Judge Ellis Meet the Sen- ator—Peace Conference Is Discussed.

Next Friday's train for the National capital will carry Senator Fulton from Portland and through the Federal Judgeship appointment is supposed in political circles to be the incentive of his going, he says it is not, and explains that he intends an account of his visit to the Imperial Hotel as he has been making plans for departure, and they were so thick that they seemed to be something doing, but all the gentlemen, the Senator included, declared their meeting a mere coincidence and of no political significance whatever.

Among the stalwarts were W. R. Ellis, Circuit Judge of Umatilla and Morrow Counties, sometimes boomed for Congress and sometimes for Governor; W. J. Furnish, of Pendleton, Republican nominee three years ago for Governor; "Jack" Matthews, erstwhile United States Marshal; "Nod" Looney, superintendent of the Reform School; F. I. Dunbar, Secretary of State; James A. Wilson, formerly Deputy Marshal under Matthews; J. S. Cooper, of Independence, State Representative; George C. Brownell, who merely poked his head in the doorway and softly spoke away; and "Bert" Wright, of McMinnville, State Senator, who "sented" emphatically when he almost bumped into a bunch composed of Senator Fulton, Judge Ellis and Mr. Furnish, that he was of their camp, and declared that he had come to town simply to break a country horse.

LOOKED LIKE A CONFERENCE.

From the outside, it looked as if the gathering must have some meaning for the Judgeship appointment. The naming of the new Judge has brought many anxieties on account of its delay. Failure of McBride to land the plum has made the Senator restive, for McBride is Fulton's choice for the job. It was confidently expected that McBride would be the appointee, and all the cannon were loaded for salute when the glad tidings should arrive. But the weeks have oozed and gone and still the job is captured not. The appointment of District Judge has more political importance in Oregon just now than any other impending event. Therefore the inference that Senator Fulton is going to Washington to stir matters up.

THE QUESTION WAS PUT TO THE SENATOR

last night, whether this was not the case. The answer was first a frown and then a smile. "I do not expect to have to take that matter up. I have submitted a list of men for the appointment and do not desire to bother myself further about it. The matter passed away and the Senator resumed."

THE SENATOR ANSWERED.

"I shall, however, take up the Land Office appointments for Roseburg. The situation there is such that nobody can initiate any land business. He added that B. L. Eddy had been agreed on for Register and that for Receiver he had recommended first T. M. Dimmick, of Coos; then George Hawkins, of Polk, and finally G. H. Hazard, the first two of whom had been rejected.

MATTHEWS CALLS ON SENATOR.

In the hotel lobby, Senator Fulton, W. J. Furnish and W. R. Ellis had their heads close together. Mr. Matthews, who, since being dismissed from the office of Marshal, has been laying plans to get even and as some reports go, to be Clerk of the District Court, should McBride be appointed Judge. Matthews drew up to the bunch and engaged in conversation with Senator Fulton, then pulled away but later, when Senator Fulton had passed from Mr. Furnish and Judge Ellis, joined him and accompanied the Senator upstairs.

SENATOR FULTON'S REPLY.

After Matthews had pulled away the first time, the three men were asked whether their meeting was a mere coincidence or something else. "If it wasn't a coincidence," answered Mr. Furnish, "we shouldn't be meeting here," meaning the hotel lobby. "But upstairs where Judge Bennett was," suggested Judge Ellis, with a jocular reference to the famous poker game.

SENATOR FULTON'S REPLY.

"With the door locked," said Senator Fulton. "And the keyhole plugged," added Mr. Furnish.

DO YOU HEAR ANYTHING ABOUT THE PEACE CONFERENCE?

"Do you hear anything about the peace conference?" was asked, referring to the Republican reunion called by Frank C. Baker for October 12.

PEACE CONFERENCE DISCUSSED.

Judge Ellis had heard little or nothing of it in this country and didn't know anybody who was planning to attend.

THE SENATOR'S REPLY.

"The Moorhouse will be there," put in Mr. Furnish, meaning Umatilla County's state committee man.

JUDGE ELLIS SAID HE HIMSELF WOULD NOT ATTEND.

though he wished the reunion all the success in the world. Mr. Furnish said the same for himself, adding that his presence would not help the conference and might do it harm.

"WHEN THEY TALK OF BURYING THE HATCHET," HE REMARKED GRIMLY,

would suggest that they bury it in my political graveyard.

"WITH THE HATCHET END IN FIRST AND THE HANDLE STICKING OUT," ASKED JUDGE ELLIS,

and the two laughed.

"WELL," REMARKED MR. FURNISH SIGNIFICANTLY,

"if there are to be boilers on the ticket, there may be others."

There is no reason why the Republican ticket should not win," said Judge Ellis. "If good, straight Republicans shall be put on the ticket."

To this Mr. Furnish assented and said that his part of the state had no favorites for any Republican nomination, and that if Republicans would support Republican nominees who had not been boilers.

PERSONAL MENTION.

H. H. Emmons, attorney, has returned from a business trip to Astoria.

C. B. Hurtt, of Boise, Idaho, the man who directed the management of the Twin Falls Irrigation project, is a Portland visitor.

Mrs. R. P. Scherwin, of San Francisco, wife of the general manager of the Pacific Mail Steamship Line, is a guest at the Portland.

SCHOOL BOARD IN TANGLE

FREEMAN'S BID ON EAST SIDE HIGH SCHOOL HELD UP.

Many Teachers Assigned and Everything Is in Readiness for School Work Next Monday.

There were all kinds of features connected with the special meeting of the City Board of Education yesterday afternoon and last night, chief among which were the shifting around of teachers, the election of new ones for various positions in the department, and the award of bids for the excavation and construction of the basement of the new East Side High School. The proposals for this work were opened at 2 P. M., Bingham & McClelland, 612 Zenaslo, Palmer & Ellis, W. B. Steele & Son, M. E. Freeman, John Bingham, George Langford, Friberg Brothers and P. Holbrook being the contenders. It was found upon examination that Freeman's bid of $21,900 for Tenno stone was the lowest, and at the evening session of the board it was agreed that he should have the contract.

Soon after the award was made, however, Freeman put in an appearance and made a statement to the effect that a local stonemason upon whom he had relied to perform certain work connected with the contract, had backed out upon the proposition, consequently he was in no position to go ahead unless the board would permit him to bid additional, which he claimed to be the amount he would lose if the contract was taken at the figures submitted by him.

The following transfers of teachers were made, to be accommodated to their employment to suit their convenience in regard to residence:

Miss Gertrude Yager, from Woodlawn to the High School; Miss Dornan, from Holladay to High School; Miss Margaret Dunham, from North Central to Woodlawn; Miss Margaret Protzman, from Alameda to Woodlawn; Miss Alice Taylor, from Woodlawn to North Central; Miss Myrtle Reed, from Thompson to Holladay; Miss Burdine Merrill, from Peninsular to Thompson; Miss Lotie Calk, from North Central to Shattuck; Miss Hallie Thomas, from Williams Avenue to North Central; Miss May Shofner, from Falling to Williams Avenue; Miss Mabel Boyd, from South Central to Chapman; Miss Addie Finnegan, from Midway to North Central; Miss Rachel Hallingby, from Highland to Hawthorne; Miss Fern Stout, from Central to Stephens; Miss Charlotte Lucas, from Highland to Sellwood; Mrs. A. B. Stone, from Chapman to Oakley Green; Miss Valeria Greenhouse, from Oakley Green to Chapman.

The following unassigned teachers were given positions: Miss Frances Val, Shattuck School; Miss Mary Armstrong, Thompson; Miss Myrtle Shookwiler, Couch.

New teachers were elected to the following schools: Miss Lucille Dooley, from North Central; Miss Pearl Goulet, from Highland to Sellwood; Miss Jane Fargo, Holman; Miss Ester Hawthorne; Miss Ethel Wakeman, Highland; Miss Irene Smith, Hawthorne; Miss Pearl Goulet, Highland; Miss Cora M. Shaver, Highland; and Miss Minnie Butler, Shattuck.

Addie Finnegan and May Shofner, formerly half-pay teachers, were promoted to the full-paid department, the other promotions being where High School positions were given in the rooms that have been provided in the Atkinson School to accommodate the overflow of the High School. All new appointments were made for the purpose of filling vacancies caused by recent resignations.

Everything is now in readiness for the opening of the public schools next Monday morning.

IS WANTED IN NEW YORK

Walter Bolz Arrested Here on a Charge of Embezzlement.

Walter Bolz, on a telegraphic description from the chief of detectives of New York City, was arrested at 10:20 o'clock last night at the depot by Detectives Day and Vaughn charged with embezzling $1045 from the wholesale grocery house of Henry Eggers, Bolz, who had been traveling solicitor for the grocery house, left New York 18 months ago, leaving a security company, which was on his bond, to settle his accounts. Day and Vaughn located the man in Portland and arrested him at the depot as he was leaving the city.

Bolz denied last night that he was ever a solicitor for the New York firm and declared he was entirely innocent of the charge. The description from New York tallies with that of Bolz in every particular. An officer will be sent to Portland by the New York police department with requisition papers.
