The 125th Grand Friday "Economy Sale"

This Store is Full to the Bursting Point of Good Things for its Patrons

A good story is told of General W. W. Blackmar, well-known in Grand Army circles. The General was very fond of walking and very democratic by nature. He might be seen any morning taking long tramps along the country roads about Hingham, his Summer home. One day in July while he was on one of his daily "hikes" he fell in with an Irishman who was going in the same direction. As they passed an apple orchard, the trees heavily laden with green fruit, the General remarked how the trees seemingly groaned under their burden, to which the Irishman replied: "Yes, sor; and sure, sor, if you was as full of green apples as those trees are, you'd be groaning, too."

This store is just as full as its capacity will hold of the newest, grandest and best merchandise the world produces, and we're so enthusiastic over it we want to proclaim from the house-tops. If you will but take time enough to look thro' the store these days—whether you have buying in mind or not—we're sure you'll catch the spirit and feel like going out and "proclaiming," too. The best advertisers we have are the folk who come in and look 'round, not hurriedly, but leisurely, so that the eye can feast on the beauty of the new and the mind enjoy to the full its remarkable GOODNESS. AN ATTRACTIVE LIST OF FRIDAY BARGAINS ADDS TO THE DAY'S IMPORTANCE AS A SHOPPING DAY FOR THRIFTY FOLK.

Grand Salons—Second Floor.

No store can give bargains—honest bargains—on everything in every department all the time. But a store like OLDS, WORTMAN & KING'S may so concentrate its efforts that the various sections may become sub-offices of extraordinary values the year 'round. We have established an entente cordiale between the great Salons of Dress on Second Floor (to use the language of diplomacy) and the leading great makers of women's garments in the Eastern style centers. Our immense purchases from them and our complete control of the entire Northwestern market enable a modus vivendi of low prices. It is one of the fortunate trade chances which came to us through the favor of a leading manufacturer that allows of our making the following price on the handsome Pedestrian Skirts which we place on special sale today for the day only at the advertised price. The lot is too large and varied for detailed description. Suffice to say, every skirt is cut in the very latest design, all made up in exquisite and masterly workmanship, with every late and popular idea in trimmings, including plaits, strappings, buttons, etc., and plain tailored effects. Materials in the lot embrace chevots, Panamas, homespuns, etamines, serges, worsteds, herringbone effects and fancy manish mixed tweedish effects. All are in the newest round-cut styles, and not more than one or two of a kind in the lot. Some cravenetted materials are included. These latter are especially adapted for wear in this climate. The greatest bargain ever offered in America in Walking Skirts. Values to $15.00. Special today only at a choice of the lot for..... $5.87
