DRIVEN FROM THE PULPIT Nebraska Methodist Conference Expels Minister for Immorality.

LINCOLN. Neb., Sept. 36-(Special.)-At the annual conference of the Nebraska Methodists, in session at Falls City, the Rev. F. E. Blackmoor was today expelled in the church. Blackmoor lived in Kansas before coming to Nebraska, and had been preacher only two years, having the church at Tecumseh, Neb. While there it was charged that he was guilty of immoral conduct, that he used profanity in public, and that he had been caught in many lies. On all these charges he was and guilty, and the conference verdict against him was unanimous. Rev. A. M. Perry, accused of drink-ing while a proofreader in the Nebranka Legislature jast Winter, was permitted to withdraw from the conference
