LIVELY SCRAP AMONG DEMS

Hot Fight Is Brewing Over the Party's Nomination for Sheriff.

OPPOSITION TO TOM WORD

New Man, Probably John Montag. Likely to Be Put in Field Because Word Is Not Good Enough Democrat.

War is brewing in the Democratic camp over the nomination for Sheriff, which is FIGHTERS STRIKE FAST GAIT to take place next April in the primaries. One bunch of stalwarts will adhere to Tom Word, incumbent. Another is planrom word, incumbent. Another is plan-ping to revolt from the present regime and to take up with a new man, prob-ably John Moniag, now a member of the Mayor's Executive Board, and for many years a foremost warhorse of Portland.

The array on the one side will consist of what is called the "reform" element and on the other, of the "old-school and on the other, of the "old-school" democracy. The reform contingent, say the old-liners, has gone off after false gods, suffered the party standards to trail in the dust and has put Republicans in Democratic offices and "renegade" Democratic offices and "renegade" Democratic in jobe that belong to the fatthful. And it is had blood for sure that separates the two factions of the marty.

Opposed to Sheriff Word.

The Anti-Word Camp has many men of might, such as C. B. Williams, Prestdent of the Multnomah Democratic Club; Alex Sweek, chairman of the State Cen-tral Committee; John B. Ryan, secretary the State Central Committee; John Van Zante, chairman, and Bert E. Honey, of the county central commit tee; John Manning, District Attorney; R. D. Inman, L. T. Peery, John Montag, Joe Malley, Bob Phillips, Pat Powers, General Kilfenther, Jim Foley and "Citi-zen" Parker: S. C. Armitage, recretary of the Young Men's Democratic Club. G. Allen, president of that organization also claimed by these who wish to re-

All these pairiots think that the reform faction has used the Democratic party as a footwipe and, while they don't object to reform, they say that it is only the tall of the party and should not be permitted to wag the whole animal. They desire to build up a political party, and to found it on what they consider true Democratic doctrine, a corollary of which is "To the victors belong the spoils"—not that they themselves care especially for the spoils, but they hold to the reduies that to the opinion that a Democratic office should be in Democratic hands. They should be in Democratic hands. They point out that Word has a big bunch of Republicans in his office, such as G. P. sportsmen. Morden, at $150 a month; Harvey More-land, John Cordano, S. B. Martin and W. scores folio W. McIntosh, at $20 a month. As for Sam Downey, Deputy, reputed to be a Dem-ocrat, they say that he fought Imman for Downey, Deputy, reputed to be a Democrat, they say that he fought Inman for Mayor three years ago, and for his reward, was appointed to the police force by Mayor Williams.

Philiple, when Bob, who comes from Missourt, called Word a "renegade Democrat," and said that the only real Democrat," and said that the only real Democrat he had yet seen in office in Oregon was Pennoyer. "but," said the Sheriff,
"all my men are good men."

Whereunto responded Bob as fellows.

Whereunto responded Bob as follows: "I hope so, but they are mighty poor Democrats.

So strong is the crowd Word will have to encounter in the primaries that it has been said he might not run for the primary nomination, but would run as an independent candidate and stand on his record. In this way he would fuse both Democratic and Republican elements.

Democratic and Republican elements.

Montag's boomers say he is willing to run for the nomination, and they express strong confidence in his power to win the nomination from Word. That Montag is willing to run seems altogether probable from reports that have leaked out of his.

Montag's boomers say he is willing to expected that the team will consist of the players of the 1867 aggregation, though in all something like 20 men are expected. Among those who have signified a purpose to take part are Gault. McBride, Edwards, Kruse, Johnson, Thursten both Garden, Signals have been sent out, and in large part it is expected that the team will consist of the players of the 1867 aggregation, though in all something to once. Signals have been sent out, and in large part it. willing to run seems altogether probable from reports that have leaked out of his interview with his admirers. He is reported to have said he would welcome a three-cornered fight in the June election, between the Republican nominec, Word and himself; and his friends point to the strong run he made for Mayor against W. S. Mason, and for Sheriff against William Frazier, Montag was chairman of Pennoyer's police commission and made a reputation for integrity and efficiency in that office. He has a large following in the rank and file of the party and with party leaders, because of his being a 'straigh' Democrat."

strong show, with just enough variety to make it highly entertaining. The Great White Fogt, a magician with a hig reputation, will have the featured place on the bill, and will show a number of new and original tricks in magic. The art is hand-somely costumed, and every trick excites the keenest interest. Richards and Richards, two very clever people, will precent an original sketch, in which they have been very successful. The Stetaou Trio are singers and dancers who come with splendid recommendations and promise new things. Wilbur, a comedy hicyolist, will show his latest tricks on the wheel. "Way Down East Among the Shady Naples" is the song, and is very pretty with heaultful pictures. The Staroncope will show "Lifting the Ltd."

Commencing this afternoon, the Grand will offer a complete change of bill. The head-liner is the Great Leon, one of the heat liquidon workers in the country and a performer who has appeared in every leading vaudeville theater in the East. Walsh and Ligon have a refined musical act. Free-man and Mack are comedy people, with a lively farcelet that is filled with infirth. A good monologue man is also on the programme. Fred Purinton will render the new ballind, "Nothody Beems to Love Me Now." and the Grandiscope will flash a series of comical pictures.
