Oregon surely h out constition. The Fair will be one big with performances in the morning, afternoon and night.

Yesterday morning the official programms of special events for the celebra-tion of Portland day at the Lewis and clara Exposition was formulated and decides upon. There may be several addi-tions to the programme as it now stands. Other special days at the Fair have had cally two or three noteworthy events, but on "the" big day there will be a score or more of them. The programme so carefully and consistently arranged that the 190,900 or more visitors will have an opportunity of seeing nearly all the special events, as they will be in regular order and will not come in a bunch. Of course, the dally events at the Fair, such as the hand concerts, life-saying exhibition, etc., will be given just the same us on any other day.

A Municipal Salute.

Pertland people will be reminded of their own day at the Lewis and Clark Expesition at 7 o'clock Saturday morn-ing, when 55 guns will be fired by Battery A. of the Oregon National Guard. It will be known as the municipal salute, in honor of the fifty-fifth year of the incorporation of the City of Portland. The gates will open at 7 o'clock sharp, whereas heretofore visitors have not been admitted until an hour later. Many persons will go to the Exposition very early, so as to avoid the crowds. At 10 A. M., De Caprio's Administration Band, greatly en-larged for the occasion, will give a grand concert in the stand at the foot of the Lakestew Terrace.

Something never attempted before in the history of the world will be tried at II A M. when the City of Portland, Captain Baldwin's airship, and George T. Tomiluson's Gelatine will race over a designated course. Lincoln Beaches will sail the City of Portland and Tomlinson will be at the helm of the Gelatine. The same time. Several improvements have been made on the Gelatine, and it is all in readiness for the flight of next Pri-

Parade of the Regulars.

At noon Battery A, of the Oregon Na-tional Guard, will fire a 34-gun salute in honor of the State of Oregon, which was the thirty-fourth state to be admitted to the Union. At the same time there will be a full dress parade of the United States troops from the Vancouver Sarracks. The City of Portland will again ascend into the heavens at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, carrying Lincoln Beachey, who will take a message to the Vancouver Barracks and return. At 2 o'clock there will be a boomerang-throwing ex-hibition at the foot of the Lakeview Terrate by a celebrated Australian expert Ellery's Band, so popular with the Ex-position visitors, will give a grand con-cert in the bandstand on Gray boulevard

'A special concert will be rendered by Ellery's Band in the bandstand at 7.20
P. M., and at 9 o'clock the great sham naval battle will be the grandest spectacle of the entire Exposition. It will be known as "The Battle of Manila." Nearly 1000 soldiers, recruited from the Oregon National and Centennial Guard and the United States regular troops, will take United States regular troops, will take part in jt. It will be produced at an expenditure of several thousands of dollars, and will be a fitting climax to the other great sham battles that have been given at the Exposition. It will be followed by a magnificent display of fireworks. At 10:20 o'clock will come the distribution of the $1000 in cash prizes, and it is thought by that time that the 100,000 visitors will be ready to decart for home

BAND GIVES FINE CONCERT.

Ellery's Organization Heard to Advantage at Auditorium.

Ellery's Band drew a full house at the Exposition Auditorium last night. The outdoor concerns of this organization have already attracted unusual attention, and few of the music-lovers of Portland missed the opportunity afforded last night to hear the band under conditions more in harmony with its artistic standing. The programme prepared for last night prominence to the artistic side on and that is almost impossible out ors. Much of Ferullo's personal mag netism is lost under open-air conditions, a loss the importance of which cannot be appreciated until the influence of the fiery Neapolitan is felt within four walls

The ultra-dramatic numbers on the proramme were Mascagni's supendous, "Hymn to the Sun," and Baliste's cele-brated "Organ Offertory," both proving as effective as "Carmen" in delighting the audience. The reed section of the band was heard to advantage in the delicate prelude to Perosi's "Resurrection of Lazarus," a number which received its first rendition in Portland.

Clatsop Float for Portland Day.

ASTORIA, Or., Sept. M .- (Special.)-A call was issued last evening by Mayor Surprenant. President Weich, of the Chamber of Commerce, and County Judge Trenchard, for a mass meeting to be held at the Courthouse tomorrow evening, to arrange for a float representing the manufacturing interests of the county, to be placed in the parade at the Lewis and Clark Fair on Portland day, September

Beatrice Wilson's Recital.

Beatrice Evelyn Wilson, who will give a plane recital this afternoon in the Audi-torium at the Lewis and Clark Exposition at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, is but 8 years of age. The wonderful interpretation of the many pieces memorized by her and her exceptionally fine technique have attracted flattering comments wherever she has appeared. In her recttal Miss Wilson will be assisted by Mary Adele Case and S. H. Allen-Goodwyn.

Neither showers nor mud could keep the visitors away from the stockyards at the Exposition yesterday, and 2000 persons watched the horse purade, while at the same time the cattle-yards were filled with enthusiastic men and women who patted the gentle animals and wondered at their beauty

Oregon surely has reason to be proud of its stock, for in every branch of and adjacent to East Ankeny and Ash the industry, with the exception of the patrolmen in various parts of the city streets for a considerable distance east of Union avenue has been formed to force the Council to reopen these streets, now occupied by the Standard Box Factory plant. There are no have brought their stock to the Expo-with the Oregon product, and one man from Missouri has been shown. Last week he paid $500 for a $-year-old shorthorn buil that was bred and born on the hills of Heppner, and will take the animal back to improve his herds.

Blooded Horses From East.

Oregon falls in horses alone, but that fact is argued away by the loyal stock-men of the state. The time has not come, they say, when the Oregon farmer will not go forth to plow unless European blood runs in the veins of his team. Oregon horses are good, but they are not blooded, as a rule. There are many horses in the state as fine as can be found, but the great majority have in them the sturdy stock of the Eastern Oregon ranges, rather than the patrician pedigrees of the East. They are good horses, ready and willing and capable, but of plebeian origin.

The present stock show, with the large exhibits of blooded coach and draught horces brought here from the East, has already aroused in the minds of every farmer who has seen the show a desire to raise the standard of his stables. The show, then, will bear fruit, and a few years from now it will be a harder and more difficult task for Eastern men to bear away the prizes in that line, even as it now is in all

LODGING-HOUSES RAIDED

Early Morning Arrests in Stark-Street Places.

Orders presumably from the Mayor caused a raid on two lodging-houses in the central part of the city early yesterday morning. Eighteen men and women were taken to police headquarters and locked up on various charges of misdemeanor. The raids are said to have followed complaints from women in the city who made allegations that their spouses were in the habit of not returning home at respectable hours in the morning. The Acting Chief of Poadopted, probably coming from higher authority, refused to make any state-ment as to the cause of the raids.

At 4 o'clock yesterday morning a squad of patroimen under Sergeant Taylor, of the second night relief. roused occupants of rooms in the Tacoma lodging-house, at 25512 Stark street, and compelled them to march to headquarters. The raid resulted in 12

An hour later the Capital lodginghouse, at 2014 Stark street, was en-tered, and six occupants of rooms were compelled to dress and march to the station. The patrolmen under sergeant Taylor who made the raids were Foster, Hellyer, Kay and Jones.

From a police standpoint, the raid was not so successful as had been expected. Plain-clothes men under orders have been watching down-town lodging houses for the clothest ing-houses for ten nights, and at head-quarters it was expected that, it being Sunday morning, many more would be captured than was the case. Whether the raids will continue is not given out by the Acting Chief of Police, but from

AGRICULTURAL DAYS

Five Carloads to Be Distributed Next Thursday and Friday Among Visitors to the Exposition.

Oregon fruit will be distributed in quantity at the Lewis and Clark Exposition next Thursday and Friday, which have been officially set aside as Agricultural days. Many novel features are being planned by the Agricultural Club for the celebration, among which is the distribution of five carloads of the finest fruit procurable. The best orchards and vineyards of Oregon are now being scoured, and only the most excellent fruit is to be used. Every famous fruit-raising district in the state will contribute

The exhibitors and county commisstoners in the Agricultural building will also distribute 6000 valuable prizes to the visitors on these days. All Ore-Agricultural building will give away fruit from their booths. It will be heaped upon tables, and the visitors invited to help themselves. If five caroads of these famous products prove to be insufficient, more will be secured.

Agricultural Parade.

The feature of the first Agricultural day will be a mammoth parade, in which will participate all those connected with the Agricultural building. It will begin at 19:30 A. M., and will demonstrate the evolution of agriculture 1984 to the property than the second secon ture from 1804 to the present time. The parade will be headed by the original and only Si Perkins' Farmers' Band. The second day's parade will be on the night of September 29. It will be headed by floats decorated with flowers and agricultural products of Oregon, and will contain the godesses Ceres, Pomona and Flora, with their maids of honor, attendants and guards. There will be many other decorated floats and vehicles. In order to attmulate the display, cash prizes amounting to $100 will be awarded. For the best-decorated vehicle $50 will be given, $30 for the second best, and $20 as the third

'LONG 'BOUT FAIR TIME

The Harvest Is Past and the Summer Ended.

McClure's.

The harvest is past, the Summer is had for three or four months past, the men to oust the St. Johns Council and strawberry shortcake, and cherry pies, city government has come to nothing. had for three or four months past, the strawberry shortcake, and cherry pies, and green peas, and new potatoes, and string beans, and roasting-ears, and all such garden stuff, and the fresh eggs, broken into the skillet before Speckie gets done cackling, and the cockereis we pick off the roost Saturday even ings (you see, we're thinning 'em out; no sense in keeping all of 'em over Winter)—as a result, I say, of all this good eating, and the outdoor life, and the necessity of stirring around a little lively these days we feel pretty good. And yet we get kind of low in our minds, too. The harvest is past, the Summer is ended. It's gone, the good playtime when we didn't have to go to school, when the only foot-covering we wore was a rag around one hig too of the other; the days when we could stay in swimming all day long except mealtimes. The days of Sabbeth school meeting was held the first of last week, and a committee appointed which week, and a committee appointed which was to report at another meeting Saturday evening. The Board of Trade was to take a "shot at the shuation" Wednesday night, but only Secretary W. L. Thorndyke and four members were present. It appears that the business men do not want to be mixed up too much in this movement, as the two factions in the Council represent the whole population of St. Johns. Councilmen Leggett, Brice. Shields and Edwards stand for the anti-saloun and church element, while Mayor king and Councilmen Peterson, Thompson and Linquest are supposed to favor the other; the days when we could stay in swimming all day long except wore was a rag around one big toe or the other; the days when we could stay in swimming all day long except mealtimes; the days of Sabbath school niceies and exemptions to the Sabbath school niceies and exemptions to the Sabbath school mealtimes; the days of Sabbath school plenies and excursions to the Soldiers' Home—it's gone. The green and leafy things have heard the word, and most things have heard the word, and most of them are taking it pretty seriously, judging by their looks. But the maples and some more of them particular, and some more of them particular. ples and some more of them, particularly the maples, with dare-devil reckless-ness have resolved, as it were, to die with their boots on, and flame out in such violent and unbelievable colors that we feel obliged to take testimony in certain outrageous cases and file away the exhibits in the family Bible, where nabody will bother them. Rainy days, you can see how played-out and foriern the whole world looks. But at, fair time, when the sun shines bright, it looks right cheerful.

With such a feeling as to my duty, I take great pleasure in saying to the public that in my own experience, and also from personal observation, I have found no food to equal Grape-Nuts, and that I find there is almost no limit to the great benefit this food will bring when used in all cases of sickness and

'It is my, experience that no physical condition forbids the use of Grape-Nuts. To persons in health there is nothing so nourishing and acceptable to the stomach, especially at breakfast, to start the machinery of the human system on the day's work. In cases of indigestion I know that a complete breakfast can be made of Grape-Nuts and cream, and I think it is necessary not to overload the stomach at the morning meal. I also know the great value of Grape-Nuts when the stomach is too weak to digest

COUNCIL HOLDS THE FORT

Some Humors of the East Side Situation-Councilman Leggett as Assistant Mayor.

Whether from timidity, failure to find government hesitates is because the investigating committee was not able to ceedings, there is a disposition to allow the matter to take its course without in terference

The Council has begun to do business and at the regular meeting Monday night put in several hours hard work. there is any legal cloud on the proceed-ings it will show itself in the future. The Mayor says that no business can legally be transacted as long as Edwards sits as a member and votes, while the opposition says Edwards is a legal member until he is shown to be otherwise. The lawyers for the factions radically differ on this question. St. Johns has not been ma-

Mayor Is Trapped.

In connection with the squabble in the Council there have been some very amus-ing and ridiculous incidents at the recent meetings held. The seven members— Leggett, Thompson, Brice, Linguist, Ed-wards, Peterson and Shields—went into the Council as close personal friends, but now the opposing factions do not heal-tate to apply the words "boodiers" and "grafters" to their opponents. At a re-cent meeting Councilman Shields an-nounced that it was "very painful to be ended. As a result of all the good grounds or for some other reason, the such a character as his dear friend Counfeeding and the outdoor air we have movement among some of the business cilman Peterson." whereupon the latter roplied that it "gave him on to be so close to a man of Councilman Shields' standing." But perhaps the most humorous situation that has during the sitting of the opposing factions was the trap that W. R. McGarry, attorney for Councilman Edwards, fixed up to compel Mayor King to recognize Ed-wards as a member. The astute counsei-or sat behind Edwards rendy to prompt him at the right time to apring the trap. Immediately following the calling of the roll a lot of petitions for street in ments were read. Attorney McGarry punched Edwards and at once the latter arose and moved that the petitions be referred to the proper committee. Mayor King saw he was in for it, and hesitated. Finally he said: "Gentlemen, this places me in a very critical condition."

Councilman Leggett, president of the Council, who always stands ready to assume the functions of Mayor, when Mayor King shows any disposition to balk, de mands that the motion be put, and the Mayor has to obey the order, for he knows that "Assistant Mayor" Leggett would do it for him. The very best of the fun occurred when night after night the Council met to hear the lawyers roar and quote law from the time of Queen Ann down through the ages, as if the Councilmen were members of the Supreme Court instead of ordinary citizens who could not understand a word of the arguments flung at them from the learned attorneys. The assumption of the powers of Mayor of St. Johns at times by Coun-cilman Leggett by virtue of his being president of the Council, is something new in municipal government, and is suspected to be a clear case of buildowing right along. Buildings are being put up right along. Buildings are knocking for admis-
