About 100,000 persons gathered out-side the Independence Club tonight and gave a great ovation to the coalition leaders. Francis Kossuth and Count Apponyl made speeches, in which they exhorted the people to not pru-dently, impressing upon them that the struggle must be fought within the limits of the law.

The Socialists attempted to interrupt the speakers, and this led to a free fight, which necessitated the interference of the police.

RELATIONS GROW STRAINED

Hungarians Begin to Despair of Peaceful Settlement.

LONDON, Sept. 36.—Special dispatches from Buda Pest to this morning's London newspapers indicate that the excitement nt on the strained relations between the crown and the united opposi-tion in the Hungarian Diet is increasing and that, while the leaders of the Coalition parties are counselling the people to refrain from violating the law, inflammatory speeches are being made by promi-nent persons in various sections of the country and that, probably for the first time, the personal popularity of the King-Emperor is being assalled. At the meeting of the executive comaltee of the coalition parties at Buda best yesterday, according to the dis-atches, several sharp speeches were made, and the conviction was expressed that a praceable settlement was impos-sible, though there was no reference to other than a local legal fight over the differences between the two parts of the

It is said that the Coalition leaders ence in Vienna Sunday, a compromise of the difficulties arising from the question of the language to be used in the army in Hungary, by the introduction of Hun-garian words of command for 18 Hussar regiments only. It is understood that this proposition was carried to His Malesty, whose failure to reply indicates that his ultimatum is unchangeable.

The committee further indignantly censures those who advised His Majesty to take such a course, and approves the action of the coalition leaders in refusing to negotiate with Count Goluchowski and in declining the memorandum presented by the King-Emper-or as a violation of the constitution and unsuitable for the settlement of the present constitutional conflict.

WILL STICK TO INSURANCE Morton Says Equitable Will Sell Its

Restaurant. NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, made a statement today with reference to the society's ownership of the Cafe Savarin, the restaurant lo-cated in the Equitable building, this city. The statement follows:

"There is nothing new nor sensational about the Cafe Savarin. There has been no change in its relation to the Equitable ociety, which now owns and operates it, do not like the idea of the society being in the restaurant business, but it is a condition that I found, and we will have to continue in the business until I can make other arrangements. It will be my effort to get the society out of the business, although in lieu of rent the Cafe Savarin is now netting to the society profits which approximate what the rent No officer, director or employe of this
