The annual meeting of the Spokane Union Depot Company was also held yesterday, immediately following the election of O. R. & N. directors, and the following officers were elected to guide affairs of that corporation: President, E. H. Harriman; vice-president, William D. Cornish; secretary, W. R. Litzenberg; as-sistant secretary, Alex Millar; treasurer, F. V. S. Crosby, general auditor, Erastus Young; auditor, H. J. Stirling. The direc-tors are Mr. Harriman, Mr. Cornish, Mr. O'Brien, Mr. Lovett, Mr. Conner, Mr. Cot-ton, Colonel William Crooks and J. G. Should candidates for state offices at-tend the Republican "love feast" in Portland a fortinght bence, a big bunch of that gentry will be treading the pave-ments on October 12. The invitation issued by Frank C. Baker, chairman of the State Central Committee, goes out to candi-dates, as well as to the rank and file members of the party. At the annual meeting of the Multnomah County Women's Christian Temperance Union, Mrs. Edith Whiteside was unanimously re-elected president for the coming year, Miss Frances Gottshall, vice-president; Mrs. E. J. Himes, recording secretary: Mrs. M. E. Fulton, corre-sponding secretary: Mrs. S. M. Peake, treasurer. The session instead all day with lunch and a social hour at noon. Eleven usions reported, three newly organized. The presidents and superintendents of featurents made interesting reports. Good work has been carried on during the year. The president reported on the exercises at the Fair grounds on W. C. T. U. day. Mothers' meetings, presswork, lecture bu-rran, labor and capital and flower mis-sion work were all reported on. Mrs. William Tyne was elected delogate to the state convention, which meets at The Dalles next week.

A suit to determine who is entitled to $1300 life insurance money was filed in the State Circuit Court yesterday by Grand Lodge Degree, of Honor against Lillian C. Parrish, guardian of Perry W. Kerr, Hazel Brannan, Wini-fred Paine, Leonora Paine and E. L. Butler, heirs of Dora B. Davis, de-ceased. Mrs. Davis was the wife of Dr. William H. Davis, Mayor of Albany. He obtained a divorce from her because of dissolute habits. She moved to Portland and adopted Perry W. Kerr as son, and Mrs. Parrish was subsequently appointed his legal guardian. The other defendants in the case are nieces and an uncle. Mrs. Davis left $4500 worth of property, which these same persons are contesting for in the County Court.

Altkin, of State Circuit Court by Samantha Sheldon sgainst Judge J. B. Cleiand and Course Tetz. Each is alleged to assert George Fetz. Each is alleged to assert title to a strip of ground Sex163 fest. 11134 and Mrs. Sheldon, who was the original owner of the property, seeks to recover it. She alleges that the street was never platted and that she never parted with ownership. The contention of the defendants is that the land was never delicated for street purposes, and the Council recently vacated the part of East Yamhili street. The question is if it belongs to Mrs. Sheldon or owners of lots adjoining.

Would Adopt Nephew.

John Singer and wife petitioned the County Court yesterday for leave to adopt Paul Ernest Hettwee, a nephew of Mr. Singer, 7 years old. The parents reside in Germany and have six other children, and decided they could part with this one.
