WEATHER CONDITIONS.

T trace.

WEATHER CONDITIONS. The disturbance noted last night off the south Oregon coast moved rapidly north to Vancouver Island and thence east to West-ern Montana. It caused light rains in ex-treme Northwestern California, Western Oregon and Washington and a moderate outhwest gale along the Washington coast. The conditions continued unsettled in the North Facilic States, but without any mark-ed disturbance in evidence. It is much cooler in the interior of North-ern California, Southern and Eastern Ore-gon and Southwestern Idaho, and warmer in the Willamette Valley and the Sound Coun-try.
