

PLAN TO 'KIDNAP' J.P. ROCKEFELLER

Pat Crowe Expected to Get Two Millions Ransom for the Oil King.

PARTNER BECAME SCARED

Elated Over Success in the Cudahy Affair—the Omaha Man Looked on Projected Venture as a Rich Jest.

PAT CROWE IDENTIFIED. Captain of Detectives Henry Dunn and Officer Henry Hattisen, of Omaha, accompanied by several Omaha newspapermen reached Butte yesterday afternoon and positively identified Pat Crowe.

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—"If my partner had not got cold feet at the critical moment, we would have secured old John D. Rockefeller up in a bag and grabbed off $2,000,000 in cold cash before we let him out," said Pat Crowe, in the jail today, in giving the details of a scheme hatched in Chicago to kidnap the Standard Oil magnate and hold him for heavy ransom.

"I guess if we had pulled the thing off on time and according to plan, it would have made the newspapers sit up and take notice," continued Crowe, who thinks it would have been a rare joke to make the son of Rockefeller pay back some of the tribute his father has exacted of oil consumers.

"It was immediately after the Cudahy affair that my partner and I, never mind his name, were going low in Chicago, laughing at the excitement over the Cudahy affair. It was so easy that I suggested we go after bigger game, and the result was that within a week we took the train to Cleveland to kidnap old Rockefeller and get the big bunch from the boy."

Such a Snap It Was. "Well, we got down there, went out to his place at Forest Hill, six miles east of Cleveland, and sized up the place. It was dead easy. The old man was there. It is a quiet country place; it was a snap, I tell you.

"We fixed the thing for Wednesday night. About 6 o'clock my partner said he was not feeling well, and he asked me to put it off until the next night. Well, I put it off, and at noon the next day, Thursday, he broke down and got cold feet and said he thought we were being watched right then. That settled it. I began to fear he was going to give the whole snap away about the Cudahy affair, so I lit out for New York, from there to South Africa, and that was all there was to it.

"Rockefeller is holding up the world and getting his ransom, too," he added. "Why should not I make him some ransom, if I have the chance?"

Kidnapers in History. "I'm not the originator of the ransom business. Did you ever read any Roman history? Caesar was the boss kidnapper of the world. When he was running the world he used to send old Brutus and some of his generals over to Carthage, grab the money, and then in that country, and make them put up several millions before they gave him back. History is full of the same. They call it kidnaping now-a-days; in those days it was statecraft.

"Rockefeller is the oldest kid I ever had designs on, and if I only had a fellow with me that would go the route I would have made John D. Jr. give me two or even three millions, if I wanted it. If I once had the money, don't you worry that I would ever be pinched for it. The Rockefeller wouldn't miss it, and I wouldn't be jumping sideways for a meal today.

Donahue Sends Personal Reward. OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 5.—Chief of Police Donahue today sent a check for $200 to Butte, Mont., to cover the reward offered by the Chief personally for the capture of Pat Crowe.

Chief Donahue expressed gratification at Crowe being taken into custody, and said that extra precautions would be taken to forestall any attempt Crowe might make to escape. He will be brought back handcuffed to two detectives.

PACKERS TO PLEAD MONDAY NOT GUILTY OF CONSPIRACY AND RESTRAINING TRADE.

Will Demur to All Other Counts, but Are Ready to Stand Trial on Two.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—The packers, whose recent attempt to abate the indictment found against them charging conspiracy to monopolize the meat industry of the country ended in failure, will go before Judge Humphrey today to all other counts in the indictment against them demurrers will be filed tomorrow morning.

The demurrers are general and charge ambiguity, vagueness and uncertainty against seven of the counts and charge that in two of the remaining counts double charges are contained. The demurrers for the five indicted corporations will be filed separately, and the officers will demur as a unit. Men who have been indicted as agents will in each case file separate demurrers. All of the processes are similar, setting up the same facts.

WE STAND ON OUR STOCKS—When the aristocrat opposing him for parliament loftily declared that he "stood on his family name and broad acres," Disraeli replied: "I stand on my head." In like manner many a merchant, seems to rest his appeal mainly on the size of his store and the perfection of its appointments—both excellent features, as far as they go. We rest our case on the merits of our merchandise; in other words, "we stand on our stocks." Wherever else this store may be deficient, you may depend on one thing, 'twill never be lacking in great values.
