RALLY FOR YOUNG WOMEN

Y. W. C. A. RECEPTION FOR THOSE EMPLOYED AT FAIR. Two Hundred Workers for Exposition's Success Gather at the Association Building.

Nearly 200 of the young women employed at the Lewis and Clark Exposition held a farewell rally at the Young Women's Christian Association building last night.

The Senator while in Washington met President Roosevelt, but did not discuss the Federal judgeship question with him as neither had the time just then to take the question up for discussion.

SILLIMAN'S GOOD LUCK.

Has to Have Identity to Secure Civil War Pension. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Oct. 7.—A pension of $5 a month has just been granted to Lawrence Silliman, of Hood River, and the recipient is extremely fortunate in securing recognition before the pension office in the closing year of the Civil War, when Silliman was but 18 years old.

PERNICIOUS ACTIVITY IS CHARGED.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 8.—Written charges against Collector of Customs Charles F. Leach have been filed with the Secretary of the Treasury at Washington by Captain C. E. Benham, a former Deputy Collector of Customs under Collector Leach and whom Collector Leach discharged 18 months ago. Among the charges made by Captain Benham is that of "pernicious political activity in using the Government office for the transaction of political instead of Government business."
