ELECTRICITY DAMAGES WATER PIPES.—Property-owners in Stephens' Addition and Brooklyn are interested in the efforts Councilman Rushlight is making to prevent electrolysis of private water pipes. For several years, or since the power plant was established in Brooklyn, the pipes running from the mains to houses have suffered frequent perforations, and Mr. Rushlight says that it had been due to electrolysis. At the home of a resident in Brooklyn, a short section of half-inch pipe was perforated with nine small holes, which have the appearance of having been drilled. Frequently plumbers find pipes charged with electricity when they make repairs.

IRON WORKS FOR ST. JOHN'S.—N. E. Franklin, owner of the Central Lumber Company plant and grounds at Johnson's, announces that Smith Bros. & Watson Company will establish a large foundry and iron works on the land occupied by the former company. It is necessary to vacate some unimportant streets, and this will come before the Council next Monday evening. If the concessions asked for are granted, work will be started on the big plant at once. City Attorney Greene said yesterday that the new plant would be a large one and employ a considerable number of men.

INJURED IN A ROLLOVER.—Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, who live some distance out on the Section Line road, drove into the city yesterday, and when at East Morrison and First streets their horses were frightened by a automobile and ran away. Mrs. Anderson was thrown out and severely bruised. As the horses turned sharply the buggy was upset and Anderson caught underneath, but before they could drag the vehicle the horses were caught and held by some men. Anderson received some bruises, but no bones were broken.

TALKING MACHINES.—Are you one of the many to take advantage of the exceptional offer of The Oregonian by receiving a $5 talking machine free. If not, call at the premium department of The Oregonian, at the Elmers Piano House, Park and Washington streets. All old or new subscribers are entitled to one free. For entertainment and as an educator for children, it cannot be equaled. You all know the value of the latest vocal and instrumental music. All are cordially invited.

ROBBERED IN POSTOFFICE.—C. Benedict Franklin, a Californian, was robbed in the Postoffice building yesterday afternoon of $2. In a report to the police Franklin claims to have had the money in a purse, and that, after leaving the building, he noticed that it had disappeared. He said that he was unable to say whether it had been taken from his pocket inside the building at the entrance. Franklin is stopping at the Deutsches Haus.

JAPANESE ARRESTED FOR GAMBLING.—Charged with gambling, M. Aono, M. Suta and Yo Shigie, three Japanese, were arrested by Policemen Thronon and Layle at 10 o'clock last night. The officers broke down the doors to gain entrance to the place, and gathered chips and other gambling paraphernalia as evidence. The Japanese are accused of playing poker.

WHITE MEN PLAY CHINESE LOTTERY.—Three white men, charged with playing Chinese lottery, were arrested in a Chinese store at Fourth and Pine streets last night by Patrolmen Evans and Wade. The lottery tickets were seized and will be held as evidence. The men arrested are: Robert McNulty, F. Jorgensen and W. Boyce.

TO HAVE COLONIAL DAY.—Oswego Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, will have a "Colonial day" in their hall today, to take the place of the annual fair. There will be a display of fruits and vegetables, and a dinner served by women dressed in the style of colonial days. Mrs. Clara Waldo, state lecturer, will deliver an address.

AT THE THEATERS. What the Press Agents Say.

THIS AFTERNOON AND TONIGHT. Florence Roberts in "Ann La Mont" at the Marquam Theater.

Portland's favorite actress, Florence Roberts, and her excellent company of players will present Paul Armstrong's drama, "Ann La Mont," this afternoon at 2:15 o'clock and tonight at 8:15, at the Marquam Grand Theater on Morrison street, between Sixth and Seventh. Miss Roberts is surrounded this season with the best supporting company she has ever had, which, together with the sumptuous production, John Carr has given Mr. Armstrong's interesting play, it is easily Miss Roberts' greatest triumph. Seats are now selling for both performances.

Whittles Matinee Today. The crowning event of the opening week of the White Whittles engagement at the Belasco will be the matinee this afternoon. Those who have seen this popular young romantic star in the glorious historical drama, "The Fortunes of a King," are unanimous in pronouncing it one of the finest performances ever given in Portland, and the enthusiasm that has been aroused in connection with the history of local theatricals. This afternoon another opportunity will be given those who have not so far seen him to witness the finest romantic production ever given at a popular-price theater in the United States. The splendid Belasco Stock Company appears in the support of Mr. Whittles, and each member of the famous organization is supplied with a splendid place in the cast. Lillian Lawrence and Effie Bond, the most legitimate, are supplied with magnificent roles and all the other are chosen to the best possible advantage. The scenery and costumes are magnificent in the extreme, this being the most production ever made at a stock theater in America. Do not forget the matinee this afternoon. There will also be a performance tonight and a matinee and night performance tomorrow.

Today Ends Successful Engagement. There are just two more opportunities to see the much-talked-of May Howard Company, which has been drawing capacity crowds to the Baker Theater this week. The usual matinee will be given this afternoon and a farewell performance tonight. The concerted pieces are pretty tonight, and a pleasing chorus is the life of both, with the principals doing excellent work in keeping them going.

Good-Bye Hiram. With the two performances today, one this afternoon and one tonight, "Uncle Joe Perkins" will close one of the most successful engagements it has played this season. The company presenting this rural drama is the grandest average organization, it being selected for "Down East" characters. The hayseed hand furnishes no end of amusement.

"BEN HUR" SEATS. Advance Sale Opens This Morning in Marquam Theater Lobby. This morning at 10 o'clock the advance sale of seats will open for the Klaw & Biance Co. (Inc.) stupendous production of General Lew Wallace's great drama of "Ben Hur" in the lobby of the Marquam Grand Theater. This great play will be the attraction at the theater beginning next Thursday night, October 19, and continuing until the following Wednesday night, October 25, inclusive, with matinee Saturday and Wednesday.

Sheridan Next Week. Commencing Monday night, White Whittles, the splendid young romantic star, will begin his second week of the stock star engagement at the Belasco, appearing in a stupendous production of the famous comedy, "Sheridan; or, the Maid of Bath." It will be a red-letter event in local theatricals. Do not miss it. There is a great demand for seats, so the wise ones will secure seats in advance.

"The Tenderfoot" Next Monday. W. P. Collins will present Oscar L. Fagan and Ruth White at the Marquam Grand Theater next Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday nights, October 16, 17, 18, special matinee Wednesday afternoon, in that delightful western operatic comedy, "The Tenderfoot." These two stars have made many friends by their fine work in "The Burgomaster" under the same management. The music of "The Tenderfoot" is of a high class. H. L. Heertz, who wrote the music, is a composer of no mean ability. He seemed to catch the outdoor spirit of "The Tenderfoot" and the result has been a number of particularly swinging airs. The best remembered songs in "The Tenderfoot" are "I Met My Love on the Alamo," "Adios," "I'm a Peasable Party," "Fascinating Venus" and "Only a Kiss," two particularly fine numbers, which are sung by Miss White, "The Soldiers," the finale of the second act, "To Arms." There is a singing company of nearly 70 people presenting this enjoyable opera, including the famous "Dolly" chorus.

In the Lead. Fun, frolic and fantastic features new novelty and original, catchy music are a few of the elements which, it is claimed, has brought "The Star Show Girls," the latest burlesque and all-round vaudeville organization, into the limelight and which has been crowned with public approval wherever the company has appeared. This aggregation of lovely ingenues, bewitching beauties, captivating chorus girls, headline vaudeville performers, comical comedians, with a new and elaborate scenic equipment, will be seen for the first time, commencing with the usual matinee tomorrow, at the Baker Theater. Although a new candidate, "The Star Show Girls" has already made great strides on the highway of public popularity and is at the present writing several lengths in the lead of a number of veterans in the race.

"Honest Hearts" Twice Tomorrow. An elaborate production of a new play is promised next week at the Empire Theater, starting with the usual Sunday matinee, when Klum & Gassolo, of "On the Bridge at Midnight" fame, will present "Honest Hearts" with a metropolitan company, headed by a constellation of National reputation. Alina Hearn, the barn scene in this comedy is a masterpiece and contains a dance, Virginia Reid, that is the source of great laughter. The title refers to the honest country folks in whose midst the incidents occur, and the central figure of the romance is the only daughter of a farmer who falls in love with a young city engineer employed on Government work in the Cumberland River. The plot develops with the climax of this part of revenue vice a melodrama (due to the plot of the comedy), but avoids the cheap, sensational effect and leaves "Honest Hearts" an entirely admirable comedy overflowing with good fun and quaint character.

FINE CONCERT TODAY. Final Programme at Oregon Building at 11 o'clock This Morning. President Meyers is determined that the closing day at the Fair shall be as full of pleasure for the guests of the Oregon building as was the opening one. He has accordingly arranged with Ellers Piano House for a grand final concert, which will be given this morning at 11 o'clock. Programme is as follows: Violin solo—(a) Transcendental—Schumann (b) Cradle Song—Hauer (c) Allegretto—Brahms. Piano solo—(a) Transcendental—Schumann (b) Cradle Song—Hauer (c) Allegretto—Brahms. Chattering piano used.

Eloping Girl Arrested. Beagle Barker, an 18-year-old girl, was prevented from eloping with Edward Ross, her sweetheart, last night, by Acting Detectives Kay and Jones, who, acting on complaint of the mother of the girl, took her to police headquarters. Miss Barker in the presence of officers refuted a statement that she had been hypnotized by Ross, which her mother said was the marks about the conduct of her mother. Miss Barker accused her mother of endeavoring to put her in a house of ill fame and of conducting herself in a manner becoming a mother. The police refused to keep the girl at the police station and refused to follow her to prevent elopement. The mother and daughter left the station in high rage.
