Two games won and the .500-mark again attained was the result of the performances of the tribe of McCredie n the double-header with the Oakland leaders yesterday.

Virgil Garvin, with his fall-away ball, and usual clever tactics on the rubber, proved too much for Van Haltren's crew, and the best it could do with the offerings of the Texan was to annex one lone tally, while the home guard got extremely busy with the offerings of the sorrel-top southpaw, Graham, in the first and fourth innings, when the combined clouts with the passes issued by the wrongsided twirier, came in bunches that netted a total of eight runs.

Graham was hammered unmercifully in the fourth, when Ell Cates started the doings with a two-bagger, after which every man on the team came up and walloped the ball or advanced those who were on the sucks until Garvin, on his second trip to the plate in the inning, sent a long fly to cen-ier that retired the side, when the boy at the scoreboard chalked a big figure 6 as the locals' portion of the swat-

The second game was more exciting, for in this contst Cy Ferry presented the visitors with one run by making a couple of wild pitches after Van Haltren had secured life on an error, which allowed the ancient amble over the register with the Oaks'

With two men out, it looked like a tie game, but Cy Ferry decided otherwise, and caught the Spaulding on the beak and lifted it over the heads of Van Haltren and Kruger, which permitted Cates' traveling all the way from first with the winning run. The game was called at this juncture by previous agree-ment, as both clubs had decided to play only five innings. The Commuters left last night for San Francisco.

BAUM HAS A BAD DAY,

Tigers Given Ten Hits and the Game at Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 15.-Emerse was at his best today and the locals could do nothing with him. They secured but four hits, all of them singles, and a shut-out. Emerson had one bad luning, the seventh, when he walked three men and filled the bases, but he steadled down and the Los Angeles batters were unable to get the ball out of the diamond.

Baum was in poor form and the visitors rapped his delivery for ten hits, totalling two runs. The score would have been much larger on the part of Tacoma, but for Baum's good work after he had got himself into tight places. The score:

Marquam Grand Theater for "Ben Hur," which will be the attraction at this theater from October 19 to 25, inclusive, with matiness Saturday and Wednesday.

"Ben Hur" as a play has often been exploited in these columns, As a römance it is one of might and splendor, which has seemed to gain accumulated strength and glory in dramatization. So masterly is the preservation of the purpose of the work in pictorial magnificence and epiendor by William Young, who made the dramatization, that the original beauties of the theme, so deftly penned by beauties of the theme, so deftly penned by the late General Lew Wallace, are repre-duced with wonderful correctness in every detail. And from the religious standpoint, detail. from which the spectacle is more often viewed than any other, "Ben Riur" is a suc-cession of pictures, which are a form of in-struction; regarding the incidents of the time of Christ upon earth. In fact, it is the beautiful religious sentiment which domi-nates the entire drams, that has made it so popular with the thousands of people who not attend the theater as a rule on acc of religious scruples.

AT 98 COMES TO SEE FAIR

Philip McCusker Makes the Journey From Illinois.

Undaunted by his weight of 98 years, owing to a furious gale in the channel Philip McCusker came all the way from Danville, Ill., to visit his son, Thomas McCusker, and incidentally to witness the closing hours of the Fair, but arrived too for same time the German ship Adolf, late to satisfy this desire, having reached and the British ship Durbridge are still here yesterday morning.

Mr. McCusker was born February 17, 1808, and springs from a long-lived ancestry, his mother having attained the age of 112 years, while his grandmother was even older. In addition, he has a brother yet alive at 100, another 94, while a sister is still young at 91.

The old gentleman was here five years ago, upon which occasion he came unat-tended; but this time, while in full possession of his mental faculties and apparently physically able to travel alone, he has taken the precaution to bring his grandson, Robert McCusker, a youth of 17, along with him. He expects to remain the surrounding country, which he seems here a short time taking in the sights of to enjoy as much as ever.
