

CONGRESSIONARIES

Trail Attractions for the Most Part Prove Financially Unprofitable.

AMERICAN INN'S DEFICIT

Big Hostelry Runs Behind a Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars, Leading the List of the Losers.

SUCCESSFUL FAIR CONCESSIONS.

The following concessions were financially successful at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, and, with the exception of possibly one or two minor concessions, the list is complete:

Now that the smoke has blown over from the brilliant closing scenes of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, a little more can be learned of the extent of the losses of the concessioners at the Fair.

Tired of Amusement Trips.

Some people contend that the Trails, the Midways and the Pikes are a thing of the past, the American people having become tired of them, and that within a few years they will be Expositions with no amusement streets.

Failure to Patronize the Shows.

The Trail has been visited by plenty of people, situated, as it is, between the Government Island and the other buildings, but they could not be enticed or driven into the shows.

American Inn's Big Loss.

The American Inn, the largest concession at the Exposition, also the greatest loser, being fully $150,000 behind the cost of installation and the operating expenses.

Igorrotes Get Out Even.

The Igorrotes have pulled out about even, but it is not thought that they have made any money to speak of.

Princess Trixie and the Diving Elks made more money than any of the very few successful concessioners.

ITALIAN BAND'S FAREWELL

Audience Shows its Appreciation at Auditorium Concert.

Music-lovers of Portland packed and jammed the Auditorium at the Lewis and Clark Exposition yesterday afternoon to bid farewell to the Ellery Royal Italian Band, which has made the musical hit of the Fair.

300 people were unable to obtain seats or standing-room in the building.

The Lewis and Clark Exposition, the first number on the programme, Sig. Ferullo, one of the most popular directors ever in Portland, was presented with a beautiful silver loving-cup as a gift from his many admirers in this city.

FAIR A GOOD INVESTMENT

Eyes of Eastern Home-seekers Directed to the Northwest.

PENDELTON, Or., Oct. 15.—(To the Editor.)—I believe that I voice the sentiment of the community when I say that the people of Oregon are to be congratulated for the success of the Lewis and Clark Fair.

It is true that the Fair has taken some money out of the rural districts, but I look for great benefits to come to Oregon in return for this expenditure.

OREGON HAS MADE GOOD

Bounteous Harvest to Follow From the Seed Sown.

DALLAS, Or., October 15.—(To the Editor.)—It is with the greatest pleasure that I congratulate the management of the Lewis and Clark Exposition and the people of the entire Pacific Northwest on the happy inauguration and the successful conclusion of the Exposition.

The Delineator for November.

With its introduction of color through the fashion and advertising sections, the November Delineator presents a most attractive appearance.

Igorrotes Get Out Even.

The Igorrotes have pulled out about even, but it is not thought that they have made any money to speak of.

Princess Trixie and the Diving Elks made more money than any of the very few successful concessioners.

MEMORIAL OF A BEAUTIFUL PARK

favor of this expenditure for the benefit of any particular society or organization of any character.

Monument to Exposition.

H. C. Wortman, of Olds, Wortman & King, says that, as far as he is concerned individually, he would be more than willing to contribute his share of the dividend to a suitable monument of the great Exposition just ended.

Likes the Park Idea.

W. P. Olds, another member of the firm, expressed himself as individually in favor of expending the fund in the purchase of the grounds for parking purposes.

Would Pay the Stockholders.

Henry Reed, secretary of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, has already been asked to pay the stockholders.

RECEIVES THE SANCTION OF BOTH BODIES.

Methodist Church and Methodist Church South Indorse It

Through Their Bishops.

A meeting will be held in the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church this morning at 10:30 to consider the advisability of the adoption of a common hymnal by the different Methodist Churches of Portland.

Does Mayor Hold Over?

Question Affecting the December Election in Milwaukee.

A legal question has come up as to whether Mayor William Schindler, of Milwaukee, will hold over for another year under the provisions of the new charter.

Not Decided as to What is Best.

Jacob Kamm holds stock to the extent of $200, but would not say what he would be willing to do until he had looked into the matter thoroughly.

Printers on Sympathetic Strike.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 15.—The composers of St. Petersburg today decided to engage in a three days' strike in sympathy with the Moscow strikers.

TERSE CHRONOLOGY OF PORTLAND EXPOSITION

Table listing key events of the Portland Exposition from Dec 4, 1893, to May 29, 1904, including the opening of the exposition, the Lewis and Clark monument, and the closing of the fair.

Some Purpose of Public Benefit.

"Personally, I am in favor of expending this money for any worthy purpose which will be of general public benefit," he said.

300 people were unable to obtain seats or standing-room in the building.

TERSE CHRONOLOGY OF PORTLAND EXPOSITION

Table listing key events of the Portland Exposition from Dec 4, 1893, to May 29, 1904, including the opening of the exposition, the Lewis and Clark monument, and the closing of the fair.

Some Purpose of Public Benefit.

"Personally, I am in favor of expending this money for any worthy purpose which will be of general public benefit," he said.

How many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood!

MISS EMMA COLE

How many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood! How many irregularities or displacements have been developed at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

Miss Emma Cole

Girls' modesty and oversensitiveness often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians, because they withhold their confidence at this critical period.

TOAST DRUNK TO GOODE.

Almost immediately afterwards, a standing toast was drunk to President H. W. Goode, and those present also united in a toast to the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

What Mr. Goode Said.

"Special attention should be paid to the fact that this Fair has been a financial success. I do not wish to be thought arrogant, but in this materialistic day success usually means financial success.

Fire Record for Day.

Fire at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at 101 East Washington street, caused by a defective fuse, did a slight amount of damage to the T. J. Kreider collar factory.

Small Light Fire at 25 Mead Street.

A small chimney fire at 25 Mead street, at 7:30 last night, called out the fire department. The building, a two-story structure, was occupied by several families.

Fire Caused by the Burning of a Pair of Curtains in a Room at 715 Fourth Street.

Fire caused by the burning of a pair of curtains in a room at 715 Fourth street, at 10:45 o'clock last night, was quickly extinguished by the department.

The Trustees of the British Museum have expressed their willingness to receive carefully selected photographic records of the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

Wise is he who heeds the warning cry against heels of hard, clacking leather and the voice of common sense which calls for heels of new rubber.

They are comfort givers, health preservers and money savers. Be sure to ask for O'Sullivan's, the heel of New Rubber, and avoid dangerous substitution.

50c attached at any dealers'. O'SULLIVAN RUBBER CO. Lowell, Mass.

WOMAN ORIENTAL

Fitting Testimonial to Those Who Made the Fair a Success.

BANQUET ON LAST DAY

Given in Honor of H. W. Goode in the New York Building, at Which the Best of Good Fellowship is Shown.

There have probably been more brilliant banquets at the Lewis and Clark Exposition this Summer than all the others given in Portland for several scores of years.

Closing Social Function.

No less fitting than the grand celebration of the closing day was the ending of the social functions of the Exposition late Saturday night, when the directors of the Fair gave a banquet in the New York Building in honor of President H. W. Goode.

Touch of Pathos at Close.

However there was a touch of pathos to the holding of the banquet, inasmuch as the late Henry W. Corbett, the first president of the Fair, to whom rightly belongs the title of "Father of the Exposition," was among the missing members.

Governor Chamberlain's Address.

He then introduced Governor Chamberlain, who made a very neat address on the Exposition, saying that the people of the Northwest would always have the credit of the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

Talk by Mayor Lane.

Mayor Lane was the next speaker, and delivered a very appropriate address. He advocated the proposition of the city taking a part of the Fair grounds and retaining it as a field for roses in order that the annual exhibition might be held.

Hard Fight Before Congress.

Mr. Scott, to whom is directly due the credit for securing the desired recognition and aid for the Lewis and Clark Exposition from the Government, told of the hard fight he had to give when the Congressional appropriation passed the two houses of the National body.

Wise is he who heeds the warning cry against heels of hard, clacking leather and the voice of common sense which calls for heels of new rubber.

They are comfort givers, health preservers and money savers. Be sure to ask for O'Sullivan's, the heel of New Rubber, and avoid dangerous substitution.

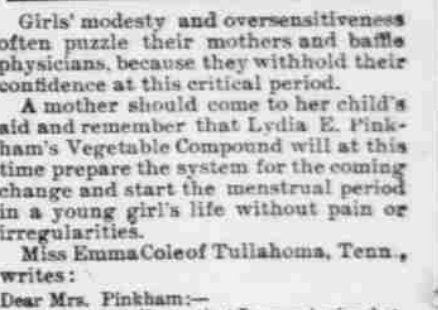

50c attached at any dealers'. O'SULLIVAN RUBBER CO. Lowell, Mass.

CRISIS OF GIRLHOOD

A TIME OF PAIN AND PERIL

How many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood!

How many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood! How many irregularities or displacements have been developed at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

Miss Emma Cole

Girls' modesty and oversensitiveness often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians, because they withhold their confidence at this critical period.

TOAST DRUNK TO GOODE.

Almost immediately afterwards, a standing toast was drunk to President H. W. Goode, and those present also united in a toast to the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

What Mr. Goode Said.

"Special attention should be paid to the fact that this Fair has been a financial success. I do not wish to be thought arrogant, but in this materialistic day success usually means financial success.

Fire Record for Day.

Fire at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at 101 East Washington street, caused by a defective fuse, did a slight amount of damage to the T. J. Kreider collar factory.

Small Light Fire at 25 Mead Street.

A small chimney fire at 25 Mead street, at 7:30 last night, called out the fire department. The building, a two-story structure, was occupied by several families.

Fire Caused by the Burning of a Pair of Curtains in a Room at 715 Fourth Street.

Fire caused by the burning of a pair of curtains in a room at 715 Fourth street, at 10:45 o'clock last night, was quickly extinguished by the department.

The Trustees of the British Museum have expressed their willingness to receive carefully selected photographic records of the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

Wise is he who heeds the warning cry against heels of hard, clacking leather and the voice of common sense which calls for heels of new rubber.

They are comfort givers, health preservers and money savers. Be sure to ask for O'Sullivan's, the heel of New Rubber, and avoid dangerous substitution.

50c attached at any dealers'. O'SULLIVAN RUBBER CO. Lowell, Mass.