Contend the Law Should Be Wiped From the Statute Books.

WAGE AN ETERNAL WAR

Association Would Blacklist All Bartenders Selling Liquor to Minors and See That They Secured No Positions.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 17.—(Special)—In their final address to the Washington Liquor Dealers' Association convention at Everett today...

Another resolution to be reported in the morning is one forbidding the officers of the association to commit the organization to any political candidate...

Mayor Headlee, of Everett, welcomed the association at this morning's meeting and in the afternoon attended a banquet with association members...

In his annual address, President Gill said in part: Before our thoroughly organized and confident foe the Anti-Saloon League...

As it is, the tables were completely turned; not only were the local option and all other hostile bills defeated, but the war was carried into Africa, and the iniquitous lander's liability law was amended as to take the injustice out of it.

I would especially warn the trade of Washington that this is no time to rest content with the laurels we have won...

And, in addition to this inherent objection to local option, its advocates had up their sleeves...

VANCOUVER, Wash., Oct. 17.—(Special)—A deed was filed at the office of recorder Auditt today which conveys the title of the estate of C. H. Ricker, deceased, to the Northwestern Improvement Company.

While there does not seem to be the usual hostile stir among the railroad officials as was prevalent some time ago, yet there seems to be work going on all the time which tends towards the north-bank road building project.

COUNCIL ENTERS KICK

SAYS GENERAL CONSTANT WILLIAMS IS UNJUST.

Vancouver City Fathers Pass Resolutions Censuring Report on Moral Conditions.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Oct. 17.—The Vancouver City Council today passed resolutions censuring the report of the annual report recently published, of General Constant Williams, commanding the Department of the Columbia, to the War Department.

In Vancouver with a population of about 4000 there are 22 saloons, all situated as near the harbor as possible.

The preamble of the resolutions states that this portion of General Williams' report in many particulars is so at variance with the facts that the Council believes that it is necessary to issue a well-intentioned desire to emphasize the argument in favor of the re-establishment of the Army canteen.

EYES ARE OPENED

Deschutes Settlers' Association Before Land Board.

ARE DEPRIVED OF RIGHTS

State Land Board Has Lively Session in Which Methods of Deschutes Irrigation and Power Company Are Discussed.

SALEM, Oct. 17.—(Special)—Their eyes opened to the conditions surrounding their settlement in the Deschutes irrigation district through publication of the proceedings held before the State Land Board.

The difficulty arises between the settlers and the irrigation company because of the fact that, through the alleged misrepresentation of the company's representatives in submitting that the form of application for the purchase of land which they were required to sign...

The attorney for the settlers, Chester G. Murphy, also represented by Chairman E. D. Hendrickson and A. M. Drake, of Bend, suggested that this case be referred to the State Land Board.

The forms of applications for lands required by the company, it is alleged, contain other matter and agreement for the settler in sign which are deemed objectionable and embody provisions which being in rule, and which have heretofore been rejected by the board as such.

The board took a decided stand that the company had no right to collect interest prior to the date of reclamation, which was shown to have been the practice of the company for several years.

BOYS GET ROBBER

Two College Students Turn the Tables on a Highwayman.

STUN HIM WITH A WHIP

High Sparks and James Ward, of Pacific University, Save Their Money and Display Their Ready Nerve.

ECHO, Or., Oct. 17.—(Special)—Hugh Sparks and James Ward, two students at Pacific University, had an exciting experience with a masked robber near this city today.

The boys obeyed, but Sparks had his eye on the highwayman, and as he turned to leave dealt him a stunning blow over the head with the butt end of the wagon whip.

The highwayman, stunned for a minute, was overpowered after a struggle by the boys and put in the wagon. He was then brought to Echo and put in jail.
