Moulten Is Visiting Hero, While Fenton Plays Brilliant Game-One of the Fastest Contests Ever Held on Field.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Oct. 17 .- (Special.) -- In a game replete with brilliant kicking, star individual plays and fast team work, the University of Oregon and Stanford University this afternoon fought out their annual football match on the 'varsity oval, the Webfoot-ers going down before the more experienced Southern team by a score of 10 to 4. A touchdown and goal in the first half, and a drop kick in the second made Stanford's score, while a place kick in the second half of the game turned the trick for Oregon. Today's game was by far the fastest and most evenly matched con-test seen on the Stanford field this sea-son. Friesell's fumbles in the back field lost Oregon the game, but the Northern-ers in turn gained their score by terrible line smashing, fast end running and good offensive work. Late in the second half they carried the ball half the length of the field to a point of vantage, where Moullen executed a beautiful place kick. For Oregon every man was a star. The remainder of the half was a kicking contest, the ball surging back and forth across the field. Stanford received the pigakin in the second half. A sharp exchange of punts followed, Oregon losing the ball on a fumble on her own ten-yard

Two bucks netted Stanford a first down. Another and the ball was directly in front of the posts. Here the Oregon line railled and threw the opposing backs for a loss. Not wishing to risk another buck, Quarter-back Fenton dropped back and neatly placed the ball over the bar by a drop kick. This ended Stanford's scoring.

luncheon time rain storm headed off the ball game between San Francisco and the Giants. This is the last week of baseball and the fans are anxious to have the locals climb out of the .500 bole and begin their Southern trip with something to spare on the other side of that mark. By taking the fead-ers down the line for the double header Sunday, the Giants, for so many times that the fans have lost count, are in the half-thousand division. The Seals should not be a hard bunch to take down the line. By taking the series from Uncle Hank Harris the locals still have a chance for the locals still have a chance for the pennant. Oakland is a hard team to beat at home and it may again get a comfortable lead before it takes the road again. There will be a game this afternoon if the weather man is good.

Music was furnished by the club musicians, good old-fashioned corn cob pipes and plenty of tobacco were handed out by the club and wrestiing and boxing members of the club helped make the evening pass quickly. Dr. A. A. Morrison, rector of Trinity church, endeared himself to the Multnoham Club members by a clever address which he delivered. Dr. Morrison is a lover of good, clean sports, and he did not mince matters when he told of his likes and dislikes in sports. Dr. Mor-rison has no more use for a lady-like football game than he has for the stugging, brutalizing kind. It was the snap and enthusiasm that the players put into a game that made it worth while. The speaker also had something to say about club spirit and his talk throughout was pleasing and will make him a favorite with the club men, for he plainly stated that he was one of them. President W. H. Chapin, Prof. Hugh Herdman and others spoke briefly! The club yell which will be heard on Saturday, when the club men play the soldiers from For; Stevens, was given

Makes Perfect Tenpin Score.

A perfect tenpin score of 300 was rolled by C. J. McMenomy on the Portland cowling alleys Sunday afternoon. This the second perfect score ever bowled Portland. The first was made by C. Ball, also on the Portland alleys, A perfect score at tenpins is a very rare thing, comparatively few having been made in the history of the game.

In addition to this score, McMenomy established a new city record of a 270 1-3 average for three games. The former record of a 253 pin average was held by Mr. Ball. McMenomy continued his series for five games, raising his own average from 255 pins to 240. His scores has been continued to the continued of the c for the five consecutive games were: 300 255, 246, 175 and 214, giving a total of 1200

From City or Suffer Imprisonment.

After repeated attempts to clean the ity of immeral characters, District Attorney Manning has taken up the matter personally; and will see that all men who are known to have associated with certain women shall be run out of Portland. John Doe warrants have been placed in the hands of Detective Paddy Maher by Mr. Manning, with instructions to serve them on all those who are known to have violated the law in this particular. Detective Maher is assisted in his work by Acting Detectives Kay and Jones, of the headquarters force. The clean-up yes-terday and last night netted the efforts of the detectives with only five persons.

Other arrests will follow as quickly as those who are under suspicion can be found. Wararnts were served and arrests made yesterday of G. Hagen and E. Wacker, of the Doctor saloon, at Fifth and Stark streets; Charles Raymond, Richard Anderson, aged 18 years, and his mother, Mrs. Alice Davenport. Anderson is a student at Chemawa, and came to the city to visit his mother, and was arrested with her in an immoral Repeated efforts have been made by the police to clean the city of this class of characters. Only small fines, although the crime is a felony, have been assessed in all cases. Although the lowest penalty in each case is a year in the penitentiary or a fine of $1000, two prisoners, Hagen and Wacker, were released on a $250 bail. The detectives are hindered in making arrests by the fact that evidence is no essary to convict in each case. A system whereby those under suspicion become aware of the liability of arrest seems to exist, and the word is passed along the line to all who may be implicated.

The law against such characters is a stringent one. It provides that on each conviction a fine of not less than $1000, and not more than $5000, or a penitentiary sentence of one year to five years shall be imposed. The crime is a felony in Oregon under a statute passed by the last State hours behind her schedule.

The first trip of the Costa Rica to this port was marked by a stormy passage. Immediately after leaving San Francisco she bucked into strong head winds and fought against them all the way up the coast. Arriving off the mouth of the river at 7 o'clock on Monday night, the condition of the bar was such as to pre-vent her entering and she had to lie to until yesterday morning. Her troubles were not ended then even, for while mak-ing a landing at the O. R. & N. wharf in Astoria a strong northwest wind drove the ship against the dock with a hard bump, breaking several deadlights on th starboard side forward. During the night spent off the bar a succession of severe squalls caused discomfort to the pas-sengers, but the vessel rode them out safely enough.

Captain William Kitson, well known on the river in former years, is in command of the Costa Rica. Included in the ship's present list of officers are several who were on the St. Paul when she was wrecked. These are: Chief Engineer Houghton, Third Assistant Engineer Bates, First Mate Mason, Second Mate Johnson, Chief Steward Cooper, Steward Jones and Stewardess E. Brown. Mrs. Brown has had the unusual experience of having been in the last three wrecks of this line. She was on the Oregon when it burned and then on the Elder and St.

These officers repeat practically what has been already told regarding the wrock, and none seem to be the worse for their experience nor show any inclination to give up the dangers of the sea.

The Inspectors' investigation of the wreck of the St. Paul is to be held in San Francisco next Monday, and it is for this reason that Captain Clem Randall and Third Officer W. Holmes are remaining in San Francisco
