Portland, 3-2; San Francisco, 6-6. Seattle, 4-0; Oakland, 3-3. Los Angeles, 2; Tacoma, 1. Standing of the Clubs,

About 2000 fans assembled at the ball grounds yesterday and witnessed Mc-Credie's men wind up their home series n a blaze of glory by administering two outs of whitewash to the tribe of Uncle leary. Portland was all the goods in each game and the way they played to win was in decided contrast to the per-fermances of the two previous days. With Garein in the box the local club seems unbeatable and all they have to do is to acquire a run or two and the engthy twirler will do the rest.

The feat performed by the home team yesterday marks the third performance resterday marks the third performance of the kind pulled off on the local grounds this season. On the Fourth of July they shut Tacoma out in both games played that day, and on Labor they they blanked the Oakland team twice, which makes three in all, and less that the control is decisive the Day they blanked the Oakland team twice, which makes three in all and last Sunday they succeeded in defeating the Oaklanders in both games.

Ed Rankin put in his appearance at the ball grounds and informed the managers of the contending teams that he would not officiate, so they started skirmishing for an umpire. Desired to the ball good to score the winning run.

Umpire's Job Goes Begging.

Joe Reilly was called upon to help out Keith says that, in his opinion, the youngster is one of the cleverest pitchers he has ever seen. "I have seen a great number in my day," said Keith after yesterday's game, "but for coolness and reserve the young fellow produced by McCredle, takes the bakery. He gurekt to but respectfully declined, claiming that he was not in condition. A search was then made for Do: Anderson, but the amiable friend of the umpires was not in evidence, and things commenced to look as though the Seal twirler would have to go it alone, when some one called attention to the genial countenance of Buck Keith beaming on the proceedings from the top row of the stand. Buck is a gent of portly form, and has had some experience in the game, although he acired it all in the neighborhood of Nebraska City, (wherever that is) and as the locals were hard pressed for a man, the former Omahog was impressed into

Buck made a hit with the crowd right off the roel, for when he bawled "Str-r-1-lee Un." the fans immediately became impressed with the idea that he knew his business and regretted the recessity of his switching off with Whalen after each alternate inning.

With two officials in harness the first was finally gotten under way, and it soon became manifest that Virgil Gar-vin was out for blood and although he was somewhat wild there never was a partner, McLean, who was easily the hero of the afternoon, for Big Mac handled nineteen chances in the two sames in the cleverest manner. Among the more important buildings is the Klamath County High School building, which will be completed by January first at a cost of $22,000; Klamath Falls Public School building, to be completed about the same time, at a cost of $30,000; a four-story brick business block being erected by Judge George T Baldwin, on Main street at a cost of $20,000. This is also nearing completion. The two-story stone structure being built by Fred Melrose on the corner of Main and Second streets, costing $5000 is receiving the finishing touches and Chas. E. Worden has two new two-story brick business houses under course of construction on opposite sides of Main street between Fourth and Fifth.

There are numerous frame business houses just completed or under course of construction beside several other large husiness houses being contemplated. New dwelling houses have sprung up all over town and all told Klamath Falls has never in her history experienced so healthy a building boom as she is today.
