

TEACHERS WANT MORE PAY

Taxpayers Voted the Money Months Ago, but Only Few Get the Benefit.

MERIT SYSTEM ON SHELF

Commission to Name the Teachers Who Will Get the Long-Deferred Blessing Leaves Its Report in Pigeon-Hole.

HOW ALLEGED INCREASE IN SALARIES HAS AFFECTED CITY SCHOOLS.

Those Who Have Profited. Superintendent Frank Rigler—$3000 to $4000. T. T. Davis, principal High School—$2000 to $2200. Robert Krohn, superintendent physical training—$1000 to $1200. Ethel Allen, clerk to Superintendent—$100 to $125 monthly. Anna E. Knox, supervisor drawing—$50 to $100. Mrs. May Evans, assistant supervisor drawing—$70 to $80.

Those Who Live in Hope.

The whole body of teachers.

Although the taxpayers' meeting last December provided for an increase in the salaries of teachers in the public schools of this city and a so-called "merit system" to be in force by the beginning of the school year, it is not to be expected that the alleged purpose of enforcing this idea, it does not look to the teachers as if there are any immediate prospects for the wishes of the taxpayers to be carried out.

The School Board held a meeting last night, but nothing was done, the excuse prevailing that a full board was not present. Whichever all the directors are on hand, so say the teachers, the issue is dodged in some other way, so far as the subordinate departments are concerned, but whenever an increase is required by some person who does not need it half so badly as some of the graded teachers, it is charged that the directors are there with bells.

This sort of treated finance is becoming decidedly wearing on the nerves of the long-suffering teachers, and they are crying for a change. The taxpayers' meeting of December 1902, however, provided and provided funds for a general increase in teachers' salaries.

The Board of Education adopted a rule, however, fixing the maximum for salaries in the first, fourth, fifth and sixth grades at $70; in the second and third grades at $60; and in the seventh, eighth and ninth grades at $70, and tacked on the proviso that in order to receive the maximum salary of his grade a teacher must hold a life diploma granted by the City of Portland or by the State of Oregon, and must do satisfactory work.

"In addition to the merit salaries," said Superintendent Frank Rigler yesterday, "the Board adopted a rule providing for a merit system, and a committee, consisting of Professor T. T. Davis, principal of the High School; T. T. Greig, principal of the Hawthorne School; J. Burnham, principal of the Couch School; the last two elected by the other principals—and myself, was appointed to determine the degree of satisfaction in the work of the teachers, while the board itself was to determine the worth of the principals along the same lines.

"This committee has performed its duties, and has had a report ready for several months, embracing a list of teachers who have been recommended as entitled to come within the provisions of the merit system. We have not received this report yet, because it seemed doubtful whether the board intended to put the merit system into effect. It will probably be done at the next regular meeting, when there is a full board present."

MAPS FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Government Grants Temporary Custody to Board of Education.

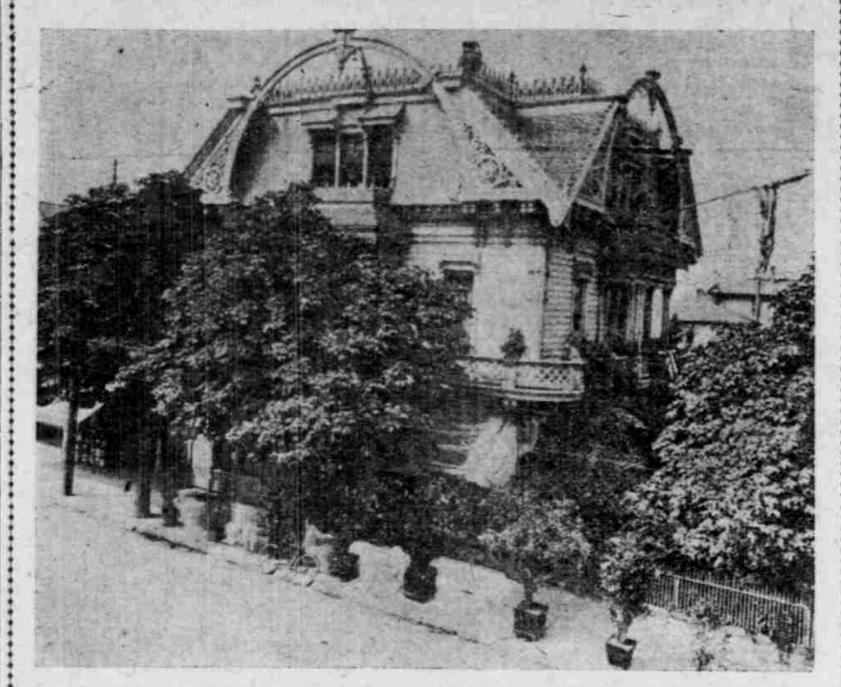

It was announced at the meeting of the City Board of Education last night that the Government had temporarily given the local school department the custody of quite a number of valuable and interesting maps, pictures and documents, forming a part of the exhibit of the General Land Office at the late Exposition.

Included therein were a set of pictures representing the "evolution of the book," namely: "The Cuneiform," "Oral Traditions," "Egyptian Hieroglyphics," "Pictorial Writing," "Manuscript Book," and "Printing Press."

The maps embrace one large map of the United States, 18 feet 8 inches in width by 16 feet high, worth $150, and said to be the largest map of this country in existence; two maps of Mexico, two of Colorado, one of Costa Rica, two of Guatemala and one of Cuba.

In addition, H. A. Schmolli, who has had charge of the staff construction of the Government building in the Fair grounds, appeared before the board and stated that the Government had made an outright donation to the public schools of this city of the four immense memorial tablets standing in the corridors of the main structures. Two will be installed in each of the High School buildings. These tablets are 13 feet high by 6 feet 6 inches wide, including frames.

COUNCILMEN STUDY MAPS

BIG SAWMILL COMPANY ASKS VACATION OF STREETS.

Large Modern Plant Will Rise on Ruins of Burned Mills if Certain Concessions Are Made.

For nearly two hours last night the St. Johns Council studied maps and examined the records to ascertain if there were any streets left to vacate on the Water front, where a big sawmill, to take the place of the two small ones recently destroyed by fire, will be built. The new combination, with a capital stock of $100,000, proposes to put up one of the largest modern plants of the many that line the Willamette River if it can get continuous land on which to construct the buildings. The maps examined show that not so very many of the streets on the water front are left, but the Council wants to encourage this new concern that has already started to clear away the debris, preparatory to carting the front street tracks to the water.

Dismiss Old Liquor Cases.

Two old cases against William Grimes, of selling liquor without license, were dismissed in the State Circuit Court by Judge Frazer yesterday, on motion of Deputy District Attorney Moser. The court was informed that about the time these indictments were drawn, Grimes paid a fine of $500, which was sufficient to cover the offenses he had committed. Grimes was convicted six weeks ago of violating the Prohibition law. The land is holding sentence in suspense until he ascertains if Grimes has gone out of business or is continuing to violate the law. Grimes has been before the court at different times for 11 years past for violating the liquor laws.

Asks Damages for Injuries.

Joseph Adams, who was knocked down by a car at Third and Pine streets August 25, 1902, yesterday commenced suit in the State Circuit Court against the Portland Consolidated Railway Company for $170 damages. At the time of the accident Adams was about to transfer from an Albino to a Mt. Scott car, and was struck by a car which was close behind the car he alighted from and on the same track. This was made possible because Adams crossed the track behind the car on which he had been riding, having gotten off on the right side. He says he was cut and bruised severely and paid a hospital bill of $170.

Murphy Brothers Victorious.

The suit of The Puritan Manufacturing Company of Iowa City, Ia., against J. E. and E. N. Murphy, doing business as Murphy Bros., to recover $350 for a quantity of cheap jewelry sold under contract, was heard by Judge George yesterday, and a decision for the plaintiffs was rendered. G. Heitkemper examined the goods and testified that the whole lot was not worth $50. The jewelry was known to the trade as "phony" jewelry, in which the defendants were guilty of misrepresentation. The suit was unsalable and not what the company's agent represented it would be.

Decide Hulme Case Soon.

Stipulations in the case of Thomas E. Hulme, the Plumbing Inspector who was forcibly removed from office by Mayor Lane, will probably be filed in the State Circuit Court today by John F. Logan, representing Hulme, and Thomas G. Greene and R. W. Montague, for the Mayor. The case may be submitted to Judge Frazer on Wednesday on an agreed statement of facts. The decision of the court will decide the question whether Hulme was legally removed.

Terminal Company Files Answer.

In answer to the damage suit of Aldy Tyeer, administrator of the estate of Emmons Tyeer, who was killed by a car killed on May 16, 1904, on Seventh street, the Northern Pacific Terminal Company denies that an engine collided with the wagon Tyeer was in. The answer recites that Tyeer's horse ran away and that he was thrown from the wagon, which passed over him, causing injuries which resulted in his death. It is alleged that a train or engine had nothing whatever to do with the accident, and that the company is not liable for any damages.

Court Brevities.

Not a true bill was filed in the State Circuit Court by District Attorney Manning in the case of Eugene Wakaron, who was charged with placing his wife in an immoral house. J. F. Clark has sued Kahn Brothers for $885 alleged due on wages earned between November, 1904, and May, 1905. Clark says he was employed as salesman at a salary of $125 per month. The complaint was filed in the State Circuit Court in May last, and was only served by the Sheriff yesterday.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before Winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by all druggists.

Virgil W. Earp Dead

Well-Known Frontiersman Passes Away at Goldfields.

BURIAL TO BE IN PORTLAND

Man With Adventurous Career Held Office of Chief of Police in Tombstone, Ariz., During Reign of Terror.

Virgil W. Earp, one of the famous Earp brothers, of Western frontier fame, died at Goldfield, Nevada, on October 20, and his remains are now being brought to this city, where he will be buried from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. L. D. Bohn, of 905 East Ninth street North. Virgil Earp, together with his brother, Wyatt, and his nephew, Doc, formed a trio of adventurous men who started out to establish law and order in the early days when shootouts and revolutions played important parts in Western civilization. He was chief of police of Tombstone, Ariz., when that locality was the haven of many desperate characters, and soon rid the vicinity of all the so-called "bad men."

Events in His Career.

"Virgil W. Earp, brother of Wyatt Earp of Starkey-Fitzsimons-fight fame, and a man with a record of his own, is in Portland enjoying a reunion with his first wife and his only daughter, neither of whom he has seen for 29 years. The wife is now the widow of the late Thomas Eaton, and Earp has another at Prescott, Ariz. The story of the separation is one of those romances which give color to the adage that truth once in a while is stranger than fiction. "Earp was married to his first wife, then Elletta Systama, at Okaloosa, Ia., in February, 1869. He was then 17 years old and she was still younger. The parents of both young people strenuously opposed the match—the girl's parents because they did not want their daughter, who was a native of Holland, to marry into an American family; Earp's because he was too young. So the wedding was kept secret, the couple got only an occasional opportunity to see each other, and not till the birth of their daughter did they make their union known. Then there was trouble on both sides of the house, which, however, was soon settled by the enlistment of Earp in the Civil War, when his child was two weeks old, and his immediate departure for the front.

Chief of Police in Tombstone.

"This he did very successfully. He married again in 1872, came West and took an active part in the stirring times on the plains that have furnished unlimited inspiration for Old Sleuth and other chroniclers of cowboy days. He was the famous "Big Game" hunter, who, at the time of the killing of "Doc" Holliday, his brother, Wyatt, "Bat" Masterson and other characters whose names have filled the firing trumpet of fame, were there at that time and took a hand in what happened. Earp carried a lame arm, which was plugged full of lead, and can still recall reminiscences that affect the hair like a stiff breeze.

Good Sport for Hunters

VISITORS TO PRESERVES FILL BAGS WITH DUCKS.

First Good Day Since Opening of the Season Is Marked by Shooting to the Limit.

Duck hunters had a good day's sport Sunday, for there were plenty of ducks in evidence and nearly all the members of the various clubs having preserves along the Columbia and Willamette rivers returned with limit bags, and were kept busy yesterday distributing birds among their friends.

BRIEF TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

An attempt to wreck the Southern express, on the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad, was prevented yesterday by the discovery by the trackwalker of large pieces of iron on the track near Dauphin, Pa. An incendiary fire Sunday destroyed a capus, the country residence of Captain Frederick H. Bugher, forming a part of the historic Ludlow estate, where Admiral Dewey spent his honeymoon, at Okaloosa, Ia. The house was first looted and then burned to cover up the robbery. The loss is estimated at more than $20,000. Thomas Shibe, son of Benjamin F. Shibe, president of the American League baseball club, of Philadelphia, and three friends from Philadelphia, had a narrow escape from being burned to death in an explosion of gasoline on Mr. Shibe's launch, at Tom's River, N. J. Mrs. Shibe was painfully injured. The pneumatic tubes used in the transmission of mail in New York City were seized yesterday by the receivers of the New York Mail & Transportation Company, which controls the tubes, and wagons had to be used. A test of the two-plate system for the Chicago fire department began Sunday, and will continue for three months. Half the men will work eight shifts of 14 hours, while the day shift has ten hours of duty. The night shift must stand a watch of 20 hours on Sundays. Otto Klotz, a German blacksmith, angered Joseph Raggi, an Italian barber, at Naperville, Ill., about his nationality, and Raggi stabbed him 12 times. Klotz walked to a doctor's office and fell dead on the street. Raggi was arrested. Eliza Haffa and Dora, his wife, were found dead at their homes at Buffalo, N. Y., yesterday. Albert W. Berlioz, who boarded with the couple, was found in an unconscious condition. Arsenic poisoning is the supposed cause. Haffa and his wife frequently quarreled. Unless the Japanese colony can produce Kinta Kasooka to the police, Sasaki Sasaki, the Japanese who was stabbed to death Monday morning, because of the actions of Sasaki while drinking in a house at 53 North First street, followed him to his room, demanded that he come to the foot of the stairs, and there cut his victim almost to pieces with a pocketknife. Sasaki died at St. Vincent's Hospital as the result of his wounds three hours later. Murakami, a Japanese lodger at 53 North First street, has been arrested and is being held in the hope that he may throw some light on the whereabouts of the murderer. Other than that Murakami is known to have left the lodging-house after the stabbing occurred to use the telephone and that he was drinking with Sasaki and Kasooka, nothing suspicious is attached to his movements. He is thought, though, to know something of the movements of Kasooka after the stabbing, and is being held on the suspicion that he will divulge information leading to Kasooka's arrest. Following the stabbing Kasooka ran to a Japanese restaurant, but following that nothing so far as known, has been seen or heard of him. A valuable half hour, which would give a criminal of the acuteness which Kasooka is known to possess, plenty of time to escape, was lost before the police were notified of the stabbing. Sasaki, after his jugular vein was cut, his abdomen punctured, and numerous other wounds had been inflicted upon the body, succeeded in crawling to a Japanese pool-room at 82 North Third street, where he staggered through the door, made known the name of his assailant and then became unconscious. Loss of blood caused his death a few hours later. A physician was summoned and a half hour later someone thought of Kasooka and the police were notified. Detectives Day and Vaughn made an effort to locate the murderer at 4 o'clock yesterday morning and worked on the case all day yesterday with the assistance of friends of Sasaki, but Kasooka could not be found. The detectives have reached the end of the rope as far as the case is concerned, and have gathered all the evidence that is obtainable. It now rests with chance and the Japanese of Portland to produce the criminal.

Statement of Sid Cue.

ASTORIA, Or., Oct. 23.—(Special.)—The following has been received from Sid Cue in relation to the disappearance of Mrs. Lum Dong.

"I have lived in America for over 20 years last past. I am the father of two children, a boy and a girl, each being educated, according to the custom of American people. I am trying to rear them under the Christian religion, which I profess and try to follow. Naturally I have enemies. Who has not? These enemies must have circulated insidious stories, for I have never had any thing to do with Mrs. Lum Dong, except in her going or coming. I have had nothing to do with her domestic life. Her husband was my friend, and to him I try my wife, so far as I know, as pure as an angel. I know nothing of her whereabouts, and had nothing to do with her leaving or staying away."

Meeting of the Gillnetters.

ASTORIA, Or., Oct. 23.—(Special.)—The meeting of gillnetters held here last evening was largely attended, and was addressed by C. H. Grant, president of the Oregon State Federation of Labor. The question of the trappers trespassing on the grounds used by the gillnetters for drying was discussed at length, and, while no official action was taken, as the meeting was not an organized body, it was practically decided that the Fishermen's Union shall, at its next session, prepare a petition setting forth the rights of the gillnetters to be presented to the state and Government officials, with the request that no permits be granted for driving traps in the disputed grounds.

IN A WOMAN'S HEAD

STRANGE SENSATIONS CAUSED BY SHATTERED NERVES.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Afford Relief From Distressing Experiences Caused By Overwork.

"Before I began to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills," said Mrs. Mary Reagan, of No. 86 Kilburn street, Fall River, Mass., recently, "I was in and out of bed all the time, but now I stay up all day and do all my own work."

"I was badly run down from overwork. One day noises began in my head and almost made me crazy. My head felt as if a tight band had been put around it, and the pressure and the sounds made me so uneasy that I often had to walk the floor all night when I should have been sleeping."

"My stomach was in bad shape, and I had another sensation. At such times my body seemed bloodless, my hands were like chalk, and my face turned yellow. The doctor said I had dyspepsia in the worst form. Then my nerves gave way and I was completely prostrated. At night I could not sleep, and in the daytime if I bent over to pick up a rug the smothering sensation would come on at once."

"The first box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I used quieted my nerves so that I could get a good night's sleep, which was a new experience for me. Before I began to use them I was a nervous wreck and trembled at the slightest sound. I was so weak that I had to sit down and rest every few steps when I went up stairs. Now I can run up a whole flight at once. The smothering sensations have gone and the noises in my head have stopped entirely. My appearance has greatly improved, my friends who were alarmed on my account before, now say: 'How well you are looking!' My husband spent over a hundred dollars on treatment for me that was worthless, but a few boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills brought me sound health."

"These pills are guaranteed to be free from stimulating or harmful drugs of any description and may be taken without fear of injury to the most delicate system. They quickly cure nervous disorders of every kind, check wasting diseases and build up strength. They are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50 by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N.Y."
