STATE ABOUT CENTER OF REVOLUTION

By PETER SCHNEIDER—The center of the uprising in Russia is the Russian Caucasus, of all places.

The political situation in the Caucasus is more complicated than it has ever been in the history of the nation. The anarchists are in the lead, and they are being supplied from behind the scenes by foreign agents.

The situation in the Caucasus is so serious that the government has ordered the Russian military forces to be placed on a war footing.

The military forces in the Caucasus have fought bravely against the revolutionaries, but they have been fighting a losing battle.

The revolutionaries have been able to take advantage of the situation and have been able to spread their ideas throughout the land.

The government has been unable to control the situation and has been forced to give in to the revolutionaries.

The revolutionaries have been able to take control of the situation and are presently in control of the Caucasus.
