Extension From Elgin to Joseph Is Also Included in Construction Approved for 1906 by Harriman

CHICAGO, Dec. 4-(Special.)-E. H. Harriman has approved of more than 600 miles of new railway lines, to be com-pleted during 1806, and the total cost of which will be about $18,000,000.

which will be about $18,000,000.

Among the new lines will be an extension of the Oregon Short Line from St. Anthony to the Yellowstone National Park by the way of Marysville. The great increase of visitors to the park has convinced Mr. Harriman that this 74 miles of railroad will pay the interest on the cost of its construction. The St. Anthony route was, several years ago, abandoned for the Monida route into the park. Both entail a long stage ride before the park is reached, and on this account the Oregon Short Line was never able to compete with the Northern Pacific for park traffic. The latter road reaches the very gates of the park from the north. The St. Anthony entrance is on the western side of the

Another extension which has been decided upon will be built between Drain, Or., and the famous Coos Bay on the Pacific Coast. It is understood that this branch is really the beginning of a Callfornia coast line between San Francisco and Portland. The Coos Bay extension will probably be further extended along down the California coast to a connection with the Sante Exwith the Santa Fe.

A third important line is being built from Hershey, Neb., to a connection with the Burlington at Northport, Neb., a dis-

The Klamath country is to be opened up by a line from Natron, Or., along the McKenzie fork of the Willamette River to a point on the east slope of the Cascade Mountains north of the Klamath marshes, a distance of 152 miles.

An extension of the Cananea, Faqui & Pacific road, in old Mexico, from Batamotal to Chumeampace, Sonora, a dis-

REBATE CASE DISMISSED

Court Finds It Has No Jurisdiction Under Eikins Act.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 4 .- Judge John F. Philipps, in the United States District Court for the Western District of Mis-souri, today delivered an opinion hold-ing that his court was without jurisdiction ing that his court was without jurisdiction in the cases brought here by the Federal Government charging the Missouri Pacific, the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, and other railways with giving rebates on shipments of salt in Kansas and on coal in Colorado, and other products in violation of the Elkins act. The motion of the railways to quash the proceedings

March 25, 1902, at the instigation of the Attorney-General's office at Wash-ington, Judge Philipps granted a tem-porary order restraining the Missouri Pa-cific, the Santa Fe, the Chicago & Alton, the Burlington and the Rock Island Rall-M. D. Purdy, Assistant Attorney-General, brought additional proceedings, citing the officials of the railways named, for con-tempt, in the allegation that they had violated the court's order in continuing to sated the court's order in continuing to give rebates. The contempt proceedings were argued in Judge Philipps' court on November 18, when the attorneys for the railways moved that the proceedings be quashed, claiming that the court was without jurisdiction. The grounds of the decision in Judge Philipps' opinion today are substantially as follows:

The original bill of complaint, on which the restraining order was granted, March 25, 1902, was filed at the instance of the Attorney-General of the United States predicated on alleged violations of the intercated on alleged violations of the inter-state commerce law in granting rebates on shipments of grain and packing-house pro-ducts from Kausas City to Eastern points. This sait was based upon the conception of the Attorney-General that the United States had a right to resort to the United States lifecult Court in equity to carry out the solicy of the interstate commerce law and o enjoin railways generally from violating it. But after the temporary restraining order was made and after the demurrer to original bill was argued and submitted, the Supreme Court of the United States, in the supreme Court of the United States, in the case of Missouri Pacific Railway vs. United States, 189th United States Reports, decided that the United States Circuit Court had no jurisdiction to grant such relief; so when the restraining order was issued by the United States Circuit Court for the Western District of Missourt, the court was without jurisdiction to make it; and, tierefore, the defendant could not be held to be in contempt of the court for violating an order which it was without jurisdiction to imake. While what is known as the Elikins act.

While what is known as the Elkins act. passed by Congress in February, 1968, au States District Attorney of the jurisdiction where the offense was committed, this act being passed nearly a year after the restraining order of March 23, 1802, had no retroactive operation so as to validate that

However reprehensible the conduct of the defendant railroad companies (if it be a alleged in these transactions) may have been or however much disposed this court be to compel obedience to its lawful mandates, it is persuaded that it is without authority in this proceeding to draw to it the question involved, rightfully belonging to the jurisdiction of the United States Circuit Courts for the Districts of Kaness and Colorado. Thus the law is a perpetual injunction on the Judge when called upon to easert judicial power which he may not disregard standing in contempt of his own cor
