

GETS FATAL WOUND

Robert Rommel, Jr., Victim of Accident in Blind.

DIES AT GOOD SAMARITAN

Shotgun Discharged by Striking Log Fires Charge Through Body of Young Man, Who Dies in a Few Hours.

Robert Rommel, Jr., aged 22 years, son of Robert Rommel, proprietor of a fuel and feed store at 575 Vancouver avenue, met with a fatal accident early yesterday morning while gunning on Hauvies Island, from the effects of which he expired at 4:50 last evening.

It appears that Saturday afternoon young Rommel, accompanied by his father and R. P. Knight, a local grain broker, went down to Hauvies Landing on the hunting boat America for a day's duck shooting and at dusk proceeded to set their decoys and arrange for the sport. The elder Rommel and Knight jointly occupied one blind, while the young man was alone in another a short distance away. About 7:45 A. M. a muffled sound attracted the attention of Knight, causing him to think that somebody had discharged a defective shell. This noise was accompanied a few moments later by an outcry from young Rommel, who exclaimed that he was shot. The two men hurried to his assistance and found him stretched out on the bottom of the blind with the blood pouring from a ghastly wound in his right side, and suffering the most intense agony. Investigation developed that the Marlin repeating shotgun used by young Rommel had slipped from a log causing the weapon to discharge, the muzzle resting against the abdomen, the full charge of No. 6 shot passed directly through the young man's body, severing several of the intestines, and causing them to protrude.

With the aid of two other hunters, an injured man was taken across the lake in a rowboat and Knight, although badly handicapped with a pair of heavy rubber boots, ran all the way to a farmer's house, two miles distant, and procured a wagon, in which Rommel was carried to the steamer landing, one of the men having in the meantime gone on ahead and held the boat until the party reached. Reaching Portland at 11:30 A. M., young Rommel was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital and Dr. Rocky summoned. Anesthetics were administered and everything possible done to relieve his sufferings, but there was no hope for recovery. Deceased is survived by his father and mother, residing at 244 Sellwood street, an older brother, who is a clerk in the postoffice and who lives at 388 Stanton street, and a married sister, all of whom were present when he passed away.

CLOTHING AT WHOLESALE

Open Evenings Until After Christmas

Every evening this week Bowman, Eldredge & Co. will keep their wholesale store, on Front and Ash streets, open until 10 o'clock. This will give the man who works six days in the week a chance to take advantage of the closing-out sale of the $100,000 stock which is now being sold at the exact cost of each suit, overcoats or pants. Men's pure wool suits as low as $6. Young men's double-breasted suits as low as $1. Boys' suits made from all-wool cloth as low as $1.50. Twenty thousand pairs of men's pants at from $1.25 per pair up. By walking a few blocks out of the way to the wholesale store, a saving of from 40 to 100 per cent can be made.

STORE OPEN EVENINGS

Until After Christmas.

The Brownsville Woolen Mill Store, on Third and Stark streets, will be open every evening this week. A grand display of special holiday goods are now being shown, and the suit sale, in which $12.50 takes the pick and choice of any suit in the store priced at $15, $16.50, $18, $20, $22.50, $25 and $30, will continue until January 1.

Talks on True Citizen.

"The True Citizen" was the subject of an interesting and instructive lecture delivered by G. A. Gearhart, of Chicago, at the Y. M. C. A., yesterday afternoon. Mr. Gearhart is a lecturer of reputation and he did not disappoint the large audience which filled the association hall. He spoke of the detrimental effects on true manhood and citizenship of the greed for money. He did not believe that a business man who, by greater capital would drive a competitor out of business by selling his goods at bankrupt prices, was a true citizen. He said he did not believe in Sunday excursions as the Sabbath was, in his opinion, for rest, religious observance and a day for a man to spend with his family.
