VICTIM OF HOLD-UP

C. J. Trenchard, County Judge of Clatsop, Attacked.

BEATEN BY HIGHWAYMAN

Is Robbed of Fifteen Dollars, and Returns to His Hotel Bleeding From Many Severe Wounds in the Face.

C. J. Trenchard, County Judge of Clatsop County, Walked into the Imperial Hotel about 8:30 o'clock last night, bleeding from several wounds on the face and with his clothes covered with blood.

Judge Trenchard, who is a regular guest at the Imperial Hotel, left the hotel about 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon, to procure his dinner at a restaurant and catch the night train for his home at Astoria. He says he finished his meal and was walking down Sixth street toward the depot when he was assaulted.

His clothes were literally covered with mud when he returned to the hotel, and while his wounds were not serious they were deep enough to bleed profusely. He looked as though they had been inflicted by brass knuckles. One of his teeth was loosened, his upper lip split and his chin and neck badly scarred. His whole face was badly swollen when seen by a reporter at about 10 o'clock.

When I was passing by the old Post-office building a man stepped up and inquired as to the time, said Judge Trenchard, in describing the event. "I pulled out my watch and told him it was about 6:30 o'clock. He suddenly hit me in the mouth and we clinched. In the struggle we both fell to the pavement. He was the quicker to recover from the fall, and, rising to his knees, dealt me a crushing blow behind the ear which rendered me unconscious. I have an indistinct recollection of his rolling me over and going through my pockets. The next I remember, I was standing on my feet a considerable distance from the depot. I think I must have wandered about in a dazed condition. I went to the depot and then to the Imperial Hotel."

J.P. BLOCK COMES TO TOWN

TELLS SOME LIVELY STORIES OF HIS TRIP EAST.

Thinks Portland and Seattle Are the Only Towns Worth Living in After All.

J. P. Block, the irrepressible, blew into town last night from Seattle. "I have been East," remarked Mr. Block, when he had recovered his breath and rescued his grip from the bus driver. "Left Seattle a month ago," continued Mr. Block, carefully polling down a few square feet of the latest thing in snags. "Been to St. Paul, Minneapolis, Chicago, Louisville, Indianapolis and Cincinnati; to Butte and Helena, too, but they don't count. Went to Cincinnati to accept a position on the road, with Strauss, Pritz & Co., but, say, is a traveling job a position? Well, never mind, you wouldn't print the story anyhow."

a federation. Their work being done, the constitution which they propose is just published. In essence it conforms to the ideas of those trusts which have absorbed and then controlled various industries. The main points are that the churches shall avoid competition in unoccupied districts and concentrate religious effort at as little cost for organization as possible, and in large cities that they shall co-operate. The whole document has a business-like air and structure and is a marked instance of adoption by the church of the ways of the world and of the principle of association now dominant everywhere. Thus both the world and the churches move.

DECOMPOSED BODY FOUND

It Is Supposed to Have Been a Case of Suicide.

What is presumably the body of a suicide was found on Barnes Heights, about four miles from Portland, Sunday morning. The body, which was that of a man, had evidently been exposed for many months, as the decomposition was such that only the bones remained. The bones were taken to Hillsboro, where they were buried in the poor-farm graveyard.

An empty vital lying close to the bones is that which gives the impression that the man had committed suicide. The supposition is that he climbed on top of the hill and then drank the poison from the vital.

He wore a black coat and vest and his trousers were black with a white strip running down them. A raincoat was lying near. In his hand were the words, "Drexford, Spokane, Wash.," which is supposed to be the name and address of the dealer from whom he had purchased the hat. The Coroner from Washington County, who took charge of the body, is about 5 feet six inches in height. From the condition of the teeth he is judged to have been a man about 40 years of age.

Barnes Heights is the tallest hill in the country for miles around. It is about three miles southeast of Cedar Mills.

The Jew in America. Read the story of the Jew, the "Great Misunderstood Among the Nations," in MUNSEY'S MAGAZINE for January—the amazing record of his achievements for 250 years in America. Read—how his versatility, intellectual strength and energy of character have made him a vital element in every department of American life. Read—how he began by making possible the discovery of America by Columbus; how he first settled in Manhattan, and later proved his patriotism by blood and money in the Revolutionary, Civil and Spanish Wars. Read—what he has done in finance, commerce, business and national development; what he has achieved in law, diplomacy, statesmanship and public service. Read—what he has accomplished in science, music and art; in education as teacher and scholar; in religion as preacher and moral force in the community; in charity and philanthropy both for himself and others. Read—how this persecuted world-wanderer has handled the opportunity that the United States has given him; how he has become Americanized under free institutions, and grown to be a mighty force in the body politic. All these things—and more—are told in a graphic manner in MUNSEY'S MAGAZINE for January. Illustrated with 25 portraits of leading Jews in America. The story tells the truth about the Jew, his faults and virtues, and dispels the fog of prejudice which has enveloped him. When you have read it you will begin to understand why it is that no people, in proportion to numbers, have made a greater or more valuable contribution to our Complex National Life. Every Jew in America should buy MUNSEY'S MAGAZINE for January, cut out this article and hand it down in his family as a true history of the achievements of his race on this continent. 10 cents on all News Stands. This article on the Jew will be followed in the February number by a great article on—"The Scots in America."

The "Triangle A" MERIT MARK. Be sure of your cigars before you buy. Don't trust to luck to get a good cigar. Don't buy in ignorance of what you're really getting for your money.
