Relative to England's hop imports and ex ports, Lupulin writes as follows in the Mark Lane Express, of London:

"The Board of Trade returns, just besped give us the following information concerning our foreign transactions in hops. We have received in November from the United States 2000 cwt., and from other countries 17,-203 cwt., the total, 22,505 cwt., showing an increase over the receipts of the previous nonth to the extent of 8428 cwt. I fear that this enlarged influx may be taken as an in-dication of what will follow as soon as our rivals are tired of waiting for the sufficient dvance in our values to enable them to find coulded and it is only in the free ports of England, that this can be found; therefore, it is not unlikely that we shall hear of further slipments at tempting prices when local demand has been satisfied and the ne-

The differen imports in our favor during the first quart of the season is no less than 119,788 cwt. "Our exports during the period named ha ness of 1904, being 10,735 cwt. against 5772 cwt. This larger figure is mainly provided by the purchases of English hops for our age of previous years by many hundreds of thousand cases. The heavy output of 1904, which reached over 11,000,000, was the resuit of a light production in the three precedfigures, New York State No. 2 standard selling in 1995 and 1904 up to $1.23, and not 80c in 1904. The report says: "These prices made corn packing a highly profitable induson. Poor crops in several states in 1902on kept down the output to a quantity not consumption was checked by high prices. This tions favorable, so that nearly every factory was worked to its full capacity, resulting in a total pack of 13,415,665 cases, against 11. 462,969 cases in 1904. Canada's pack in 1905 by the purchases of English hops for our colonies, the buyers being attracted by our known qualities, which are always in favor with our kin across the seas, and by the low prices at which we have been willing to sell this season. By deducting the experts from the imports we find that the balances against our market at the close of November were 155,180 cwt. in 1904, and only 30,620 cwt in the present year. We may therefore compressuate ourselves and say. So far, so good: but we must be on the lookout lest the enemy take us by surprise and spoil our trade. There is certainly no margin for any indury of this kind, and it is desirable that English holders, being forewarmed, should be thereby forearmed against possible loss."

the session the wheat market was weak on tations on the local board this morning were terday, seld again today, and pit trader; price of May down to 86% c before the noor hour. Sentiment then suddenly changed feeting prevailed. An exceptionally good demand was reported for cash wheat at all out side markets, and many inquiries were re report on the world's available supply of wheat showed a decrease of 1,800,000 mated. This forced many shorts to cover freely, and there was active buying both for the purpose of covering and by commission houses during the last hour. All offerings were readily absorbed, and prices made sharp rally. The May option rose to 87%c, and the market closed firm with May %@ 5c up at 87%@87%c. The slump in wheat caused a slightly easier tone in the corn market, but later a firm feeling developed. The market closed firm with prices at the highest point of the day. the contestant. The ministers, he said, "bamboozied" Palmer out of his money. Francis Asbury Palmer died at the age of 32 on November 1, 1992. He had been president of the Broadway National Bank, for 53 years, and owned a majority of the stock, which he sold for $2.15,000. A year before he died Palmer made a will, by which, after distributing $120,000 among various religious and educational institu-tions, and remembering a few relatives, he left the residuary estate to the Francis Asbury Palmer fund, the chief objects are to support missions and ministers and to help poor students to become ministers or religious teachers.

Mr. Chandler said in his opening address to the Jury:
"Mr. Palmer was an old and feeble man. A year before his death there came the culmination of what the ministers who surrounded him had been trying to put through for years. One of the ministers lived in the house, had a room there, and bossed the old man and the servants around to sult himself, and it is not a wonder that before the end came Mr. Palmer was clean daft on religion.

"Mr. Palmer had, until eight years before he ded.

fore he died, a strong, able, leving wife, who used to keep these ministers away from bim. But when the old lady died the ministers just stepped in and worked him for all he was worth. They got a needy minister fund, and then they all got
