NEW PAPER AT MOUNT SCOTT.—The first number of the first volume of the Mount Scott News is a tribute to the growth of the city of Portland at a rate and to an extent that will surprise many readers. The district which the new paper seeks to serve consisted of fields and woods two years ago. Now between 10,000 and 12,000 people find homes in the district, within six, or at most seven miles east and southeast of the Portland Postoffice. Addition after addition has been laid out into blocks and lots, and sold out to folks who have built and own their own homes. Most of them make monthly payments. It is true. But not for rent. When five or six years have passed they will all be homeowners as well as housekeepers. And many of them will anticipate their contracts with the electric car has made all this possible.

WILL SHOW PLANS FOR PLANT.—W. C. Francis and Daniel Brecht, representing the new St. Johns Sawmill Company, which proposes to erect a large modern sawmill in St. Johns, will show the plans of the plant at the meeting of the Council next Monday night, when they will ask for vacation of city streets extending through the company's land. They will ask for vacation of portions of Albany, Johns and Salem streets. The company is capitalized at $100,000, and in order to show good faith, Mr. Francis has offered to show the plans of the plant at the next meeting of the Council.

PENDING LICENSE ORDINANCE.—A committee of women from the St. Johns W. C. T. U. is fighting the general liquor license ordinance pending before the Council. The three women on this committee were present at the meeting of the Council Monday evening, and importuned the Mayor, City Attorney and Editor Thornbury to know if the ordinance was coming up. They were assured it would not come up before the next meeting, but they were not satisfied until Councilmen L. D. Edwards and J. H. Shields assured them the ordinance would not be considered.

FARMERS MEET TODAY.—Clackamas County Farmers, Patrons of Husbandry, will hold an important meeting today at Oswego, with Oswego Grange as host. A general invitation is extended to Grangers in the surrounding counties to attend this meeting. State Lecturer Clara H. Waldo will be present and address the farmers. J. W. Bailey, State Dairy and Food Commissioner, will also deliver an address to the farmers on "Pure Food Laws." Important topics will come up at this meeting, of interest to the farmers of Multnomah and Clackamas counties.

A. S. PATULLO IS ELECTED.—At a meeting of the committee which manages the People's Institute and the Men's Resort, held yesterday, A. S. Patullo was elected chairman. This fills the vacancy caused by the resignation of the chairman of the committee by William MacMaster, who occupied that position for about nine years. A resolution was adopted expressing the appreciation of the committee of the highly efficient services rendered by Mr. MacMaster.

LADIES' AUXILIARY OF HUSBANDRY.—Five new members were received into the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Husbands' Association last night, and the following officers installed: Miss Marie Chambers, president; Miss Anna Swenson, vice-president; Miss Katharine Farrell, treasurer; Miss Mary Grier, financial secretary; Mrs. Fannie Dietz, recording secretary; Miss Katharine Corrigan, sergeant-at-arms, and Miss Mary Hennihan, sentinels.

ARCANUM COUNCIL ELECTIONS OFFICERS.—Multnomah Council, Royal Arcanum, has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Jerry Brownough, regent; H. McGowan, vice-regent; H. Gilbert, orientor; W. L. Abrams, secretary; J. P. Northrup, collector; F. Dayton, chaplain; L. G. Mayer, sentry; K. Evans, warden; O. P. Season, guide; O. Mangold and J. T. Stonerod, trustees.

RESTORATION OF SUFFRAGE.—"Restoration of Suffrage" will be the subject of Mrs. Helen D. Harford's address tomorrow evening in the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, East Twelfth and Taylor streets. Mrs. Harford was formerly state president of the W. C. T. U. and is a well-known lecturer on the subject of suffrage.

Only One Dog at Pound.
 The sole occupant of the City Pound just now is an intelligent-looking collie, which has been there several weeks and which none of the attaches of the institution have the heart to kill. Mayor Lane and C. A. Cogswell, of the Executive Board, visited the place yesterday, and Poundmaster Reed called their attention to the many redeeming features of the dog. The two officials expressed the deepest concern over his fate, and the Mayor suggested that some farmer ought to have him, as he was too valuable to destroy, and instructed Mr. Reed to give him to the first applicant.

JOHNSON KEEPS HIS PLACE

Answers to Charges of Lewison People Are Satisfactory.

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 9.—(Special.)—United States District Attorney Ruick has received a dispatch from Attorney-General Moody, stating that the answers made by Miles S. Johnson, of Lewiston, to the charges filed against him were entirely satisfactory and that he would be retained in the position of Assistant District Attorney.

Mr. Johnson was appointed assistant on the recommendation of Mr. Ruick, some months ago. Soon afterward charges were filed against the appointee by Lewiston people. These have now been disposed of by the Attorney-General.

CHINESE TO BE DEPORTED

Appeals Are Taken in Each Instance by the Three.

Three Chinese were before United States Commissioner J. A. Sladen yesterday afternoon, and all of them were ordered to be deported. The first, Chin Kay Hing, who is also known by the name of Lee Yick Yee and his wife, Sing Far, were also ordered deported, but will be allowed their freedom, pending appeal, under $500 and $100 bonds, respectively. The couple allege that they are residents of San Francisco, both having been born there. They set out that during the Lewis and Clark Exposition they came to Portland to see the fair, but they were not allowed to enter the city that they were nabbed by the Federal authorities, and have been since detained in Portland.

Depositions in regard to the case were sent from San Francisco and were submitted to Captain Sladen, together with the evidence of friends in Portland, but the testimony did not seem to justify the contention of the defendants, and they were ordered to be deported. They have given notice of appeal.

AN ARTISTIC CALENDAR.
 For Richness, Beauty, and Artistic Merit the Malt-Nutrine Calendar for 1906.

Outrigger All Others.

The Art Calendar for 1906 issued by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association is an unquestioned triumph of art and genius. It is composed of five panels, each 24 1/2 inches in size, representing the Four Seasons, the extra panel being a calendar of the year.

The panels are lithographed in 12 colors, picked out with gold, and are bound together with silken cord.

The subject of the brush of Maud Humphrey, the celebrated artist, are idealized female figures, handled with the delicate delicacy and feeling which characterize Miss Humphrey's work.

Surrounding the central figures are descriptive border designs from the brush of C. A. Eberington, a pupil of Mucha, Paris, the greatest living decorative artist. These are representative of the great artist, and in common with all his productions are indeed a symphony of color harmonies.

We understand that this handsome calendar, with the season panels entirely free from advertising, will be sent to any address upon receipt of 25 cents, or the tops of 12 red tinfoil caps from Malt-Nutrine bottles, sent to the Malt-Nutrine Department of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, St. Louis, Mo.

PLATE-GLASS FRONT

Alteration for the Dekum and Washington Buildings.

CIGAR STORE'S NEW PLAN

United Company Projects Important Changes in the Structures Which It Has Leased for Its Trade in Portland.

It developed last night that the United Cigar Store Company, in leasing the Dekum, the handsome eight-story business block at Third and Washington streets, has under contemplation extensive changes for it, as well as for the Washington, the adjoining building, which was operate stands in the downtown district, would probably be driven out of business. Those outside of the business center would not feel the effect so much, as most of the big firms seek locations except on prominent corners.

Local dealers, when asked about the situation, did not seem greatly alarmed. The opinion among them is that there is business enough for all, and that none will have to quit. Their optimism is not entirely without grounds, as it is known that in other cities the policy of the United Cigar Store Company has been to avoid a cut-rate whenever possible and not to try to squeeze out the small dealers.

President George F. Whalen, of the United Cigar Store Company, was in consultation with Rountree & Diamond much of the time yesterday, completing the details of his arrangements with Mr. Rountree. He will leave this morning for Seattle, and will be accompanied by B. R. Rich, manager of the company's business upon the Pacific Coast. It is understood that the company up to this time has sought no foothold in Seattle, and may not do so, although it is known that it has made purchases of leases in both Tacoma and Spokane.

Other Corporations May Follow.
 Other large companies, dealing in different lines of business, may follow the United Cigar Store Company to Portland. The American Tobacco Company is one of the most substantially backed corporations in the United States. Its operations are watched with interest by men with capital and because of the care which it exercises in selecting live cities for its locations, its actions often determine the establishment of other enterprises. This is said to have been the case in several cities where the company has gone, and Portland may expect as much.

LIQUOR STORE IS ROBBED
 HIGHWAYMEN LOOT ZIMMERMAN'S ESTABLISHMENT.

Cover Men in the Place With Revolvers While They Take Money Out of the Till.

Emboldened by the lethargic movements of the detective staff and the police force, two highwaymen entered Peter Zimmerman's wholesale liquor store at 381 East Burnside street at 2:15 o'clock last night and in the matter of two minutes compelled Zimmerman, James Conway and John Anderson to throw up their hands while one of the men robbed the money till of between $25 and $35. The highwaymen expected to procure more, but a large amount of money had been placed in the safe shortly before the robbery, and the men were forced to leave.

While Zimmerman was working in his office and talking to Conway the two highwaymen entered by a rear door and without warning entered the office, and commanded the two to throw up their hands. Both complied, and while the larger of the two highwaymen covered both with his revolver, the smaller of the two started to rob the till. The highwayman was at work on the till when John Anderson entered. Stopping their operations for a minute, the highwaymen compelled Anderson to throw up his hands and stand with Zimmerman and Conway. Anderson demurred on the ground that the whole proceeding was a joke, but was ordered to stand.

There was no point to it and at once complied with the command. The shorter of the two highwaymen, after Anderson's compliance, entered the till and took the money till and extracted between $25 and $35. When the money had been scooped into his pocket he turned and, going through Anderson's trousers, took out $11. The other two were not searched.

Still covering the three men with revolvers, the highwaymen backed out by the rear door and entered the street, and the police were notified and Detective Hellyer was sent to the liquor store to investigate the case. No arrests were made, however, and the two will probably do other "turns" before they are captured.

CONVICT CHARLES ROGERS
 Burglar Who Entered Police Captain Slover's Home Sentenced.

Charles Rogers, who entered the residence of Captain of Police Slover, at 488 East Grand street, on December 21, was tried and convicted in Judge George's court yesterday morning. He was sentenced to three years' imprisonment in the penitentiary and was taken to the institution on the afternoon train.

The crime took place in the afternoon. Captain Slover was in bed asleep, and his wife had gone out, leaving a note on the front door calling no one in. Rogers, acting on this information, entered the house. Captain Slover awoke and without waiting to dress chased the intruder out to the street and captured him.

Rogers is a young man of boyish appearance. He testified in his defense that he had been sent by W. J. Robertson to his home to get a football and mistook the place. Mr. Robertson did not appear to corroborate this story, and Rogers admitted that he had only arrived in Portland the day before. He did not detail any of his previous history, except to say that he had been in Puget Sound cities.

PERSONAL MENTION.
 Charles Adams, brother of J. H. Adams, a merchant of Tygh Valley, is visiting in this city.

Dr. Will Jackson, of Baker City, has purchased the home of W. L. Koehler, on East Seventeenth and Ash streets, and will make his home there.

Rev. H. L. Pratt, presiding elder for the United Evangelical Church, Portland district, who has been ill for some time with pneumonia, is recovering, and is now able to be about.

Rev. Father J. H. Black, rector of St. Francis Church, East Oak and East Eleventh streets, left yesterday on a trip to Italy and a tour of Europe. He will be gone about four months.

J. A. Fischer, Commissioner to the Lewis and Clark Exposition from California, arrived in Portland yesterday morning to make final disposition of the also secured for ten years from Charles Freeman by the same agreement. The thorough remodeling which is in store for the two buildings will so improve the exterior appearance that it will make a marked change in the aspect of lower Washington street.

The plans for the Dekum building include the installation of an elegant plate-glass front on the Washington-street side. The huge supporting pillars of stone will be removed and in their place will be inserted narrow steel piers, giving much more window room and imparting to the entire front a modern effect. As the Washington is to undergo the same revision, the entire block from Third to Fourth will present a plate-glass front, broken only by space for entrances.

Light, Heat and Power.
 In addition to this change, the heat, light and power plant for the two structures will be concentrated in the basement of the Dekum. New machinery will be purchased to meet all needs, including power to operate the elevators of both buildings, which will be supplied from this source. The changes for the Dekum alone will cost the tobacco company $20,000.

Just what effect the entrance of the United Cigar Store Company will have upon the tobacco trade was a matter of much comment on the streets yesterday, when it was learned through the columns of The Oregonian that the company had leased the Dekum and the Washington for $60,000 a year. The general opinion was that a hard fight between the new firm and the Gunnis interest is inevitable. In nearly every city where the American Tobacco company has opened stores its entrance has been marked by a cut-rate war. With Gunnis and the newcomers both strongly entrenched in the local field and in many cases occupying adjoining corners, competition will certainly be keen. It seems not improbable that Portland smokers may soon burn choice Havanos at the same price which they would pay for the other kind.

Cut-Rate Policy's Effect.
 If a cut-rate policy is adopted by the large firms, the smaller dealers, of course, will suffer. Many, especially those who

California building. He will also look into the dispute which has arisen between the California Commission and a local contractor as to the amount to be paid for certain construction work.
