Why the Crawfords, Colored, Will Separate.

FIGHTS BOOZE FORTY YEARS

Frank Hall, of Kentucky, Suffering From Delirium Tremens, Promises Judge Cameron He Will Drink No More.

Exhibit A in the case of Crawford vs. Crawford, colored, was a tooth, alleged by her to have been knocked out by him, and B was his finger, tied up in a bandage be-cause she bit it. He said he jerked her tooth our when he decided to withdraw his finger from her mouth, and that he did not strike her. The affair occurred at the residence of the interested couple on Third street, and she had him arrested because she said, he ran, after assaulting her. That was all she had against him, she deciared. He was discharged by Municipal Judge Cameron yesterday.

"Will you have anything more to do with Crawford?" asked Judge Cameron the wife, 'What! Me?" exclaimed she. "Why. dat niggah couldn't play wif mah dawg

No, sah, for I'se done wif him, "Crawford, will you leave your wife alone after this?" asked Judge Cameron. "You seem unable to live in harmony." "Suah, Ah'il leave her alone, sah. Ah can git along without her, speshally after her a-bittin mah fingah, sah."

"What seems to make so much trouble between you and your wife?" asked A. Walter Wolfe, counsel for Crawford.

"'Cause she cats cocalne an' gits crazy mad, sah." replied Crawford.

You'se a linh, Ben Crawfahd," shouted the demure and ill-treated wife, from her station in the rear of the courtroom. "Bailiff, just put her in the 'pen,' the room, weeping most bitterly.

They had been married but seven

"Are you a drinking man?" asked Judge Cameron of Frank Hale, charged with being intoxicated. "I've fought all kinds of booze for 4) ars," replied Hale, were you born?" asked Deputy City Attorney Fitzgerald.

"Kentucky," said Hale.
"This man had the delirium tremens yesterday morning," explained Bailiff Circle, "and was in such a bad condition that I could not bring him into court for a hearing."

"I was not drunk at all," declared "but I admit having the tre-

"I will fine you $2 this time, and give you a chance, but if you ever come back, it will be 30 days in jail for you," said Judge Cameron. "Til never drink again," declared

W. G. Loftus, living at 1122 Union avenue, was arrested at the instance of his wife. She faced him in court, and between sobs, told Judge Cameron and Mr. Fitzgerald that her husband was cruel to her and their two little children; that he drank liquor to excess spending nearly all of his earnings for intoxicants. She said she had of late been taking in washing to help sup-port herself and habies. By solemnly promising to behave himself in a proper manner in future, and to support his family, Loftus was discharged.

With a pair of steel "knuckles" in police headquarters by Acting Detective Murphy. He told Judge Cameron he had carried the "knuckles" ever since coming to this country from Den-mark, and did not know what they were for. He was fined $10, particularly because he got "saucy" to the arresting officer, when asked who he was and what he was doing in the vicinity.

Bud Knudson is being held on language that shocked the sensitive cars of a North End bartender, and his case has been continued several times. This is because the complaining wit-ness has disappeared since filing the complaint. On two previous occasions. Knudson has caused witnesses against him to drop out of sight, and Deputy Fitzgerald yesterday told him he would get this witness and try the case if it takes six months.

PROGRAMME IS IN FRENCH

Women's Club Has an Interesting Session at Its Meeting.

The French department, of which Mad ame Julia Bauer is chairman, had charge of yesterday's meeting of the Women's Club, and the programme offered was not only novel, but one of the most enjoyable of the club season. Madame Bauer presided, and to the roll-call each member of the department answered with a French quotation appropriate to the occa-Extracts from Lamartine's "Joce lyn" were given by various members, the chairman first giving a synopsis of the book in English. Mrs. Arthur Newill, who was to have read one of the papers. was not able to attend the meeting, and Madame Bauer read her manuscript, it afterward being translated by Mrs. Prager. Mrs. Ellen Miller gave a synopsis of the writings of Lamartine, and Mrs. C. R. Templeton recited in French an extract from "Jocelyn," which was a credit to the entire class.

The music consisted of French songs, one by Miss Elsie Garrett, and another by Mrs. Millie Perkins, both being en-cored. Mrs. Perkins was accompanied by Miss Soule at the plane and Miss Barker on the violin. The French idea was carried out in the refreshments served during the social hour. The papers, transof a high class, and indicative of the splendid work this department has been accomplishing. January 18 the club banquet will be given.

RECORD ARTILLERY MARCH

Sixth Battery Travels 1100 Miles in 55 Days, and Needs Rest.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 12-A special to the Star from Fort Sam Houston, his possession. Charles Poulsen was arrested at Twelfth and Yamhill streets early Thursday evening and taken to police headquarters by Acting Determined by Captain G. W. Gatchell, entered Fort Sam Houston today amid the cheers of the local garrison. The battery broke the world's record for jong-distance practice march of artillery, having covered the estimated 1100 miles from Fort Riley, Kan., to Fort Sam Houston in M days. The battery was compelled to make several detours in order to avoid bad roads and unusually rough country. This made the charge of using profane and abusive distance which it actually covered considerably longer than by rall.

It is asserted by Army men here that it is by far the longest march ever made by artillery in time of peace, and that no forced march in time of war, with the exception of Napoleon's retreat from Moscow, compares with it in distance.

The artillerymen of the Sixth Battery were a sorry-appearing set of men when they arrived here. Their clothing was in tatters and so covered with mud and dirt that the color of the cioth could not be distinguished. The men are haggard and lean. Many of them were scarcely able to The horses resembled moving

The battery encountered severe rains and floods in Indian Territory and North Texas. They had a hard time fording ome streams owing to their swollen con dition. A blinzard swept down upon the battery last Monday morning, just after it left Austin. It continued during nearly all of the remainder of the march to San Antonio, about 10 miles. The men walked nearly the whole distance in order to keep warm.

The battery lost one man, Private Arthur Hall, during the march. He died in the hospital at Austin from malaria, due, according to the statement of physicians who attended him, to the exposure and hardships encountered on the march.

THEIR PLEA BRUSHED ASIDE

Greene and Gaynor Must Stand Trial for Conspiracy.

SAVANNAH, Ka., Jan. 12.—Judge Speer in the Federal Court this morning immediately upon its convening, read his opin-ion upon the special plea of counsel of ion upon the special plea of counsel of Greene and Gaynor as to the jurisdiction of the court. The opinion was adverse to the defendants, whose petition that they be discharged from custody was denied. In delivering its opinion, the court, after citing many authorities, said: Our conclusion is that the extradition was amply authorized by the treaty; that pris-oners were extradited for alleged crimes in-dictable to both the United States and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Irequate to secure their constitutional right to full information of all charges against them and accord them a fair and righteous trial, so far as the indictment goes; and that the plea must be everruled and disallowed. The defense demurred to this raling

not mean that the show will be concluded, for the exhibition will remain open until Tuesday evening, and will be open all day tomorrow for the benefit of those who have not been able to take in the display.

The results of the homing pigeon contests were announced last evening, and the other awards will be made public as soon as the judges complete their tabulation.

The following are the prize-winners among the pigeon fanciers:

SWIFT'S OPTION EXTENDED

FURTHER TIME GRANTED TO BUY ON THE PENINSULA.

No Doubt That the Big Packing Company Will Establish Business Here in Portland.

Through reliable information it has been learned that Swift & 'Co., the big Chicago meat dealers, have renewed the option which they hold upon 200 acres of land upon the Peninsula below Portland... The original option expired December 20, and the new arrangement gives them the opportunity to acquire the property any time before February 1. The renewal of the option gives practical assurance that the Swifts are coming to Portland, as their option upon the plant of the Union Meat Company also extends until February 1, and it is understood that negotiations are in progress toward the completion of the deal.

Those on the inside of the situation say that Swift & Co, have already closed a transaction whereby they have acquired the branch establishment of the Union Meat Company in Tacoma. This they will operate as a branch in connection with their packing-house here, just as the Union Meat Company is doing at present. It now seems certain that the Eastern company intends to close its deal in Portland, otherwise it would have no use for a plant in Tacoma of the kind it has purchased from the Union Meat Company.

As was announced by The Oregonia some time ago, the plant which Swift & Co. propose to establish in Portland will be one of the largest packing-houses in the West. The firm does an enormous business at present in the Northwest and intends to increase it by putting in a plant here to furnish packed meats for the trade of the Pacific Coast, Alaska and Oriental shipment. Such a plant will be a large of the Pacific Coast, Alaska and Oriental shipment. Such a plant will have an enormous output and will make an entire revision in the packing situation in the Northwest. Especially is this true as it is rumored that if Swift & Co. come here they will be followed by the other large Eastern packers who otherwise uld stand to lose much business in this

Since the renewal of the option on the Peninsula property and the purchase of the Union Meat Company branch in Ta. coma, there can be no reasonable do that the Eastern firm will close for the Portland plant. As the options expire February 1, announcement of the ummation of the deal may occur at any
