Ex-Policeman Dolan and Jessie Boland were arrested by Acting Detectives Kay and Jones in a local hostelry Saturday night, and in all probability will be changed with a serious offense. The woman now accused with him has broken up the Dolan home, the police declare, and like Dolan affirmed this residence, and $150,000, composing 1500 shares of which Mrs. Dolan affirmed this yesterday morning. Through the troubles growing out of the scandal, Dolan was horsewhipped on the street by his wife about one year ago, while he was still an officer, and at the time the Boland woman ran to escan

All the wealth of H. D. Winters, East Side capitalists, did not make his progood in court yesterday, for when Judge Cameron gave him until next Saturday morning to arrange trap-doors and to clear the sidewalks at Grand avenue and Davis street to the satisfaction of Mounted Policeman Croxford, the court kent Winters' bail of $6, telling him he would return it to him Saturday, if the officer's report was satisfactory.
Winters took the stand, and said that that he could not understand why he should be now. He admitted the against him, but said that he had to have the doors on the sidewalk open all the time so that the 75 guests in the building could get into the basement after wood.

A. Perdinand struck Befail Hippolyte on the head with an iron stick on the French ship Asie, Saturday noon, and Judge Cameron yesterday fined Ferdinand 230. Feeling sorry for the defendant, the aggreeved Hippolyte fished down in his trousers' pocket and brought out a shining gold coln, with which he paid his as-safiant's fine.

Criticism of lax police methods in Chinatown brought the first visible results Sunday night, when Sergeant of om arrested Jake Sing and Lem Mow, charging them with gambling. The defendants were expected to enter pleas of guilty when taken into court yesterday morning, but at first they refused to do so. Later they returned and entered such pleas.

WILL SURVEY SALTON SEA

Government Will Learn About Rayages of Colorado River.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.-The changes now taking place in that part of Southern California, which is known as the Salton Sink, Salton Sea, Imperial Valley, or Colorado desert, have resulted in the di-rector of the United States Geological Survey ordering an Immediate survey of

Owing to changes in the course of the river, the inflow ceased and the water of the lake finally evaporated. At the lowest point in the valley a salt marsh was left, the bottom of which was nearly 300 fee

About a year ago an irrigation compan cut a shallow dirch through the bank of the Colorado River into this basin. A lit-tle later, at a time when the water in the river was very high, the banks of this ditch were cut away and its bottom was scoured out by the rapid current, so that During the past six or eight months thou-sands of dollars have been expended in various ineffectual attempts to control the inflow of the river. The salt marsh has been enlarged to form a lake 40 or 5 niles in length.

The water is rising at the rate of about n inch a day.

The proposed surveys will furnish data for an accurate map of that portion of the old lake that lies within the United States, and will enable the cartographers of the survey to show, in correct position on the map, the numerous towns within the area, the channels of the two streams the area, the channels of the two streams that carry the water of the Colorado River to the lake, and various other topographic features. With this data in hand, a careful estimate can be made of the time that it would take to illi this great lake basin again should the course of the Colorado River not be changed.

INVOLVED IN A CONTROVERSY WITH THE EXECUTORS.

Proposed Distribution of Dividend to the W. C. Noon Estate One of the Features.

A controversy among the beirs of W. C. Noon, deceased, and the executors of his will concerning the distribution of a divi-dend of $25,000 made by the W. C. Noon Bag Company, and the disposition of real property, occupied the time of Judge Webster in the County Court yesterday. Testimony was heard and arguments by counsel representing various contestants. Some time ago W. C. Noon, Jr., and H. M. Cake, two of the executors, petitioned for the sale of a farm in Columbia County belonging to the estate, and advocated the retention of real property in Multnomah County for the reason that It would probably increase largely in value. T. J. Armstrong, the remaining executor, filed an objection to the sale of the Columbia County farm. His reason is that the will gives the immediate heirs a life estate in the property, and their children a life estate, and that the executors could not convey legal title to a pur-chaser. The other executors say they had to return a deposit of $500 to a prospective purchaser, and now cannot sell real prop-erty of the estate on account of the conone of the most dramatic ever enacted in test of Mr. Armstrong. Cake that the money be used to pay outstanding claims due by the estate, except the claim of the W. C. Noon Bag Company which would be waived for the present, and the disputed claim of H. H. Glark.

Mr. Armstrong says he objected to this at the meeting, and asserts that H. M. Cake is not a stockholder in the W. C. Noon Bag Company, and consequently had no authority, to vote regarding the disposition of the dividend. Mr. Armside of Jessic Boland.
"Judge. I hope you will give her the full limit," shouted Mrs. Dolan to Judge creditors, save Clark, whose claim is contested, and that the heirs get nothing of the dividend. A. King Wilson, Oscar A. Neal and H. H. Northrup appeared as atorneys for Mr. Armstrong

Thomas G. Green appeared as attorney for the widow, Emily C. Noon, and other heirs interested are Viola Noon, Ralph Yoon Luke Werner and Stuart Freema Werner, a minor. Raiph W. Wilbur ap-peared for the last named. Mr. Wilbur and Mr. Greene were not

He asserted that all of the real property should be sold and the debts liquidated, and that the heirs should receive their share of the dividends of the W. C. Noon Bag Company meanwhile. Mr. Greene voiced like sentimenta, and told the court Mrs. Noon had not received her allowance. Messrs. Greene and Wil-bur argued that the way things were confucted the heifs would not get anything for many years to come.

The will provides that the company shall be kept together for ten years, under a trusteeship, of which H. M. Cake and W. C. Noon, Jr., are members, and the profits disbursed. There are also numerous other provides to the will. ous other provisions in the will. Mr. Wilbur argued that there was plenty of real property to pay the debts, and the heirs were entitled to their share of the profits of the company under the terms of the will. William M. Cake appeared as at-torney for H. M. Cake and William C.

The annual meeting of the Oregon Fish and Game Association will probably be held about Tuesday, January 20. The delay in announcing the date of the meeting has been caused by the absence of several members of the organization, and the secretary desires to secure as full an attendance as possible, as there are several important matters to come before cretary A. E. Gebhart has a plan of reorganization in view which he intends to submit to the organization. FIVE THOUSAND REDUCTION

Despite Protest of Park Commissioners, the Order Is Made, and Six Thousand of Remainder Set Apart for East Side.

At the meeting of the ways and means ommittee of the Council yesterday, Audtor Devlin made the announcement that $32.891 had been appropriated in excess of the estimated municipal income, but explained that a considerable portion of the appropriations would not be used, and would become available to meet any postible deficiency.

The Auditor's statement had the effect of inspiring the committee with a spirit of economy, so that when the three members of the Park Board appeared on the scene and set forth their case relative to the requirements for the coming year, they were met with a counter irritant in the shape of a cut from $30,000, their original estimate, to $25,000, and to make matters worse, this amount was segregated in the ratio of $6000 for East Side parks, leaving the rest for the West Side.

The main duties of the office consisted of the fumigation of infected premises, as well as a general su-pervision over pesthouse patients, and this class of knowledge did not appeal very strongly to Dr. Glesy from a scien-

The salary of the City Physician was also reduced from $1000 to $200, and that of clerk in the Health Office from $300 to $720, creating a total saving by the operation of $660, and giving the Health Depart-ment $865, instead of $565, for the en-

A PLAIN STATEMENT.

Quality of Beer Depends Upon Superiority of Materials, Treatment and Maturity.

Materials, Treatment and Materity.

Purity is a universal exsential in all beers. The observance of cleanliness and sterilization will secure it.

Healthfulness, combined with flavor and taste, constitutes real quality, and these are impossible without the very best materials and the highest order of treatment. This is what science and experience teach, Quality, depending upon the character of materials and the methods employed, is the real goal for competition among brewers.

of materials and the methods employed, is the real goal for competition among brewers.

Materials: To provide the public with a really good, palatable and wholesome beer of the highest quality, we use the best harley-malt, the highest-grade hops, superior yeast, and in our pale beers a small percentage of rice. In all our beers we use the best and purest materials, regardless of cost.

Corn we never use, although it is not excluded by authority, and has the advantage of cheapness. We use no substitute of any kind to reduce our expense. We spare neither money has care to fortify and increase our well-carned and long-established reputation.

Treatment and maturity: We employ only the most modern methods in brewing; our latest acquisition being 20 glasslined steel tanks made by the Pfaudler Company, of Rochester, N. Y. The boer, after leaving the brew kettles, is conveyed to glass-enameled fermenting vain. After fermentation it is lagered (aged) from four to five months in the glasslined steel tanks before it is bottled; thus absolute purity of our beer is insured, because it is in glass from the time it is brewed until it is consumed. Our present storing capacity of 600.00 barrels is more than that of any other two breweries in the world.

These facilities enable us to age our beer the length of time necessary to guarantee its purity and maturity—not in printers ink—but in fact.

For these reasons Budweiser, the King of Bottled Beers, must and does command a higher price than any either beer, and at the same time has a greater sale than all other bottled beers.
