Apparently No End to the Demand for Oregons.

YESTERDAY'S SALES HEAVY

About a Thousand Bales Change Hands in This Market—Strength of the Coast Salmon Situation—Cereals Are Dull.

- HOPS—Strong demand continues. POTATOES—No improvement in situation. WHEAT—Weaker and lower prices. SALMON—Higher prices on sock-eyes predicted. POULTRY—Supply equals demand. EGGS—Market steady and unchanged.

There is apparently no end to the demand for hops. About 1000 bales changed hands in this market yesterday.

The United States National Bank, which put 600 bales on the market a few days ago, has sold 272 bales of the lot to M. H. Gilbertson.

An extremely firm market prevails in the country where the potatoes have been elevated to some extent by the news of the activity here and also by the offers of 30 and 10 1/2 cents that have lately been made to some of the holders.

In some quarters it is believed that the present buying movement is solely to fill January orders and is, therefore, about at an end, while other dealers stand by their opinion that the shorts have oversold and will not come to buy as long as the goods are available.

A private letter received from New York yesterday stated that there were 20,000 bales of "states" about to be thrown on the market by disgruntled growers, who have seen prices steadily declining since their abandonment in Oregon.

COAST SALMON SITUATION.

Sockeye Holders Determined to Get Better Prices This Year. Prices on future sockeye salmon have not yet been considered by Puget Sound packers.

There seems to be a general feeling among the packers, however, that last year's prices were very unsatisfactory. Some of them are under the impression that half-ounce sockeye is to be a dollar a dozen, while 1 1/2 ounce sockeye is to be a dollar and 10 cents.

POTATO MARKET WEAK. Shippers Reduce Their Bids in the Face of Depression at San Francisco. Weakness again characterizes the potato market.
